THE DREW C. RICHARDSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN FORENSIC SCIENCE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICATION FORM

Eligibility: The Drew C. Richardson Memorial Scholarship in Forensic Science and Criminal Justice is open to all rising juniors and seniors minoring in Criminal Justice or enrolled in the Pre-Forensic Studies program. The award may only be received once.

Deadline: To be considered for the Drew C. Richardson Memorial Scholarship in Forensic Science and Criminal Justice applications must be received by April 4, 2018. Please submit your application to justicestudies.jmu.edu or bring it to the Department Office, Maury 213A.

Student Information

First Name M.I. Last Name

JMU Student ID

JMU Email Address

Expected Graduation Date

Academic Reference Letters

Please provide two letters of reference from faculty whose courses you have taken or are enrolled in. They may be submitted with this application or sent separately.

Academic Record

Area of Concentration: CRJU Minor Pre-Forensic Studies

Overall GPA

CRJU or Pre-Forensic Studies GPA

List relevant courses taken (including ones currently enrolled in)

Personal Statement

Please discuss 1) your academic interests 2) your future education plans and 3) how courses in criminal justice/forensic sciences have helped shape your future career goals. Your essay should be approximately 2-3 pages but no more than 5 pages.