

JMU Alumni Association

2008 Distinguished Faculty/Staff Awards

The James Madison University Alumni Association is accepting nominations for its 2008 Faculty/Staff Recognition Awards, recognizing excellence in teaching and service among the university's faculty and staff. Anyone may nominate individuals who best represent the qualities of these awards. Nominations are considered active for three consecutive years. If a nominee is considered, but not selected for three years, their nomination becomes inactive. Nominations may be resubmitted after becoming inactive.

The James Madison Distinguished Faculty Award recognizes professional achievement in and outside of the classroom. The recipient will have demonstrated a consistent pattern of excellence in classroom teaching and student motivation and will have enriched this experience through participation and professional activities outside of the classroom. The recipient will receive $500 to be used for professional development and departmental expenses. All full-time faculty with a minimum of five years of service at the institution are eligible.

The James Madison Distinguished Service Award recognizes a staff or non-teaching faculty member whose service to JMU and/or the local, national or international communities has continually advanced the mission and goals of the institution. The recipient will receive $500 to be used for professional development and departmental expenses. All full-time non-teaching faculty and staff members are eligible.
