TRANSFER AND CHANGE OF MAJOR
Portfolio Review Application Information

Transfer students or students who are currently enrolled in JMU under another major, and who wish to declare a Studio Art major, must submit a portfolio for review to the portfolio review committee. Transfer and change of major portfolios will be reviewed once each Fall and Spring semester. Transfer and change of major students who are not recommended for admission to the Studio Art major may reapply the following semester.

Portfolio reviews for transfer, change of major students are held approximately two weeks prior to advanced registration. Should you have any questions about this process, please contact the School of Art and Art History via email: art-arthistory@jmu.edu or phone (540) 568-6216 or (540) 568-6661.

PORTFOLIO
A portfolio should consist of twelve to sixteen examples of actual works of art that you have created within the past two years. The portfolio should contain a variety of works that demonstrate your creative ability and visual arts potential. Images of both two and three-dimensional projects using a variety of media are encouraged. Six to eight images should be works drawn by hand from direct observation (for example: figure, still life, perspective). Do not include drawings done from two-dimensional sources (for example: photographs or magazines).

In addition to submitting studio work, all students MUST COMPLETE the Transfer or Change of Major Application and submit it with their portfolio. Portfolios that do not contain this completed form will not be reviewed. Candidates are also expected to drop off and pick up their work on time. No portfolios will be stored until a later date!

If you cannot submit actual works of art, submit work using one of the following two formats:

- Organize 12-16 slides in a clear, plastic slide sheet.

REVIEW PROCESS
Select faculty members in the School of Art and Art History will conduct review of all artwork. Decisions of the faculty review committee are final. Rating of student work is based on the School of Art and Art History’s studio rating scale. Prior to the faculty review, the student will set up their artwork in the designated space assigned to them when they check in at the Studio Center at 106 Grace Street. Artwork can be picked up after the review has taken place. Students will be notified of their status prior to the applicable advanced registration period. See calendar of important dates below.
