

Teach English Abroad Teach English in Taiwan

Go2TeachEnglish is looking for college graduates who want to teach English abroad. We are currently looking to fill 2 types of positions. Before an applicant contacts us regarding either of these positions, we highly encourage an applicant interested in teaching English abroad to check out our website at www.go2teachenglish.com

Although we are open to all graduates interested in teaching English to second language speakers, we give top priority to those interested in a career as English teachers.

Position 1

20 Openings

We need 20 teachers who want to teach English to adults in Taiwan.

Applicant must be a U.S. citizen and must possess a bachelors degree. Applicant must also hold a U.S. passport and be willing to commit to a one year contract to teach English and live in Taiwan. This position starts in July.

Salary is ~US$2,000 per month. Health and Dental insurance is provided. All legal documents associated with living and working in Taiwan will be handled and paid for: working permit, resident visa, alien resident card.

One week of training and preparation will be included for each applicant upon arrival. Assistance in finding housing will be provided.

This is basically a great opportunity for recent graduates to go abroad and teach English. Although experience is not necessary, confidence, openness to a new culture and enthusiasm for teaching are definitely high on our list of prerequisites. Go2TeachEnglish will also offer an opportunity for some of those teachers placed in Taipei to take Chinese language classes at TamKang University. These classes will be fully transferable to U.S. colleges/graduate school. For a select few who are interested in pursuing a graduate degree, Go2TeachEnglish will offer scholarships and stipends from the government of Taiwan R.O.C.

Position 2
