Campus Map

Location

JMU is located in Harrisonburg, a progressive city of over 40,000 inhabitants. Located in the heart of Virginia's historic Shenandoah Valley, the area is flanked by the Blue Ridge Mountains on the east and the Alleghenies on the west. Harrisonburg is located at the intersection of three major highways: Interstate 81, U.S. 33 and U.S. 11. The campus entrance is located just off Interstate 81 and is within a two-hour drive from Richmond, Roanoke and Washington, D.C.

Campus

The JMU campus contains a total of 486.5 acres, including 31 acres at the University Farm located about nine miles from the campus. The original campus faces Harrisonburg's Main Street and extends in an eastward direction past Interstate 81. Most buildings on the western portion of the campus are constructed of blue limestone. Stone for the university's original buildings was taken from the campus itself. The new buildings on the eastern portion of the campus have been constructed since the mid-1960s.
