Areas of Interest

Russian in Moscow
The JMU Russian program in Moscow is a unique opportunity to study the Russian language of any level at Moscow State University. Along with classes, there will be educational excursions such as tours of Moscow, the Kremlin, Red Square and the famous Armory Museum, Novodevichii Monastery, Cathedrals and churches and more!

Instructional methods include lectures, guided tours, field work, journal assignments and/or papers, tests and exams.

Russian Table
The Russian Table offers a chance to practice Russian conversation in an informal atmosphere. Please check the Foreign Language website (www.jmu.edu/forlang/tables.html) for times and places.

Elizabeth B. Neatour Russian Studies Lecture Series
The series offers semesterly lectures on Russian topics, given by invited experts in the field. The lectures are free and open to the public. The lectures are usually given in April and October, but for exact dates and topics, please check the Foreign Language website (www.jmu.edu/forlang).

THE MINOR

This minor offers students a broad, cross disciplinary perspective on Russian culture, history, political institutions, economy and geography. The program deepens the students’ understanding and knowledge of the Russian and non-Russian peoples of the former Soviet Union, and prepares them for careers in teaching, government and international business.

The Russian Studies minor requires 18 credits with a minimum of 6 credits of Russian language. Students should take courses in at least three different disciplines. Special topics courses not listed can be applied to the minor degree with approval of the program coordinator.

Students may also earn credit by studying in a program in Russia or any of the former Soviet states.
