

The Centennial Scholars Program Graduate Assistantship Opportunities

www.jmu.edu/centscholars

Benefits

- Provide financial assistance to qualified graduate students
- Build confidence in academic and leadership abilities
- Gain knowledge to effectively manage and resolve challenges at JMU and beyond
- Foster skills to work productively in an increasingly racially diverse world
- Offer interaction with faculty
- Gain professional development in a higher education setting
- Achieve enhanced interaction with underclass students
- Learn program development and implementation skills

Eligibility

- Must be fully admitted to the JMU Graduate School
- Must complete FAFSA and meet eligibility criteria
- Must be a Virginia Resident
- Must complete Centennial Scholar application

Expectations

- Commitment to hard work in the pursuit of academic excellence
- Maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0
- Facilitate small group and study hall meeting with mentees
- Attend all CSP events
- Demonstrate the work ethic of a Para-professional
- Be open to supervision
- Possess a desire to work with college students

For additional information contact: Diane L. Strawbridge, strawbdl@jmu.edu