CALL FOR PAPERS

The Journal of ERW and Mine Action invites government bodies, nongovernmental organizations, military personnel, researchers, academics and industry experts to contribute their articles or case studies. We are actively looking for theoretical and practice-based non-promotional editorial contributions.

SPOTLIGHT:
Middle East and North Africa
How is illicit SA/LW and CWD proliferation currently affecting the Middle East and North Africa? What broader issues are connected to illicit SA/LW in the region (public health, gender, youth, crime, etc.)?

Other topics of discussion include training, clearance, survey and mapping, victim and survivor assistance, refugees/ internally displaced persons, storage and disposal methods, and community-risk reduction initiatives.

FEATURE:
SA/LW and CWD
The Journal seeks articles on small arms and light weapons (SA/LW), including marking and tracing, conventional weapons destruction (CWD), how illicit SA/LW affect humanitarian deminers’ and community safety, creative ways to reduce the number of illicit SA/LW in communities, and methods to assure weapons ammunition security.