

PGA

Middle Atlantic Section

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

MIDDLE ATLANTIC PGA JUNIOR GOLF INTERNSHIP

The Middle Atlantic Section of The PGA of America (MAPGA) is offering three internships for three-months in junior golf tournaments to college students from May to August. The MAPGA is the sixth largest of the 41 sections in The PGA of America with over 1,100 members and apprentices. The Section is comprised of PGA professionals in Maryland, Virginia, and Washington, DC. The intern will report to the Junior Golf Director and assist in conducting approximately 30 golf tournaments throughout the season.

DUTIES/JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

Interns will learn everything that is involved with conducting a golf tournament. Some of the duties and responsibilities include:

- On-course rules officiating
- Tournament administration set-up and preparation
- Starting and scoring of players
- Media and public relations plus tournament promotion
- Equipment inventory, maintenance and replenishment
- Public speaking
- Other duties as needed to support the Section

REQUIREMENTS:

- Experience in Golf
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to work and communicate in a team environment
- Excellent communications skills, both written and verbal
- Well organized, punctual, energetic, innovative and a "self-starter"
- Excellent computer skills
- Strong work ethic, physical stamina

DATES NEEDED May 18 – August 18 (These dates are flexible to some degree)

COMPENSATION $1,100 per month plus reimbursable travel expenses.
Includes Housing and Utilities.

RÉSUMÉ DEADLINE: Tuesday, December 1, 2009

SEND COVER LETTER AND RÉSUMÉ TO:

Bob Heintz, Junior Golf Director
Middle Atlantic PGA Section
1 PGA Drive
Stafford, VA 22554
bheintz@pgahq.com