

Lesson Implementation Reflection

As soon as possible after teaching your lesson, think about the experience. Use the questions/prompts below to guide your thinking. Be thorough in your reflection and use specific examples to support your insights.

- I. How did your actual teaching of the lesson differ from your plans? Describe the changes and explain why you made them.
- II. Based on the assessment you created, what can you conclude about your impact on student learning? Did they learn? Who learned? What did they learn? What evidence can you offer that your conclusions are valid?
- III. Describe at least one way you could incorporate developmentally appropriate practice in a better or more thorough way if you were to teach this lesson again.
- IV. Based on the assessment data you collected, what would you do/teach next if you were the classroom teacher?
- V. As a result of planning and teaching this lesson, what have you learned or had reinforced about young children as learners?
- VI. As a result of planning and teaching this lesson, what have you learned or had reinforced about teaching?
- VII. As a result of planning and teaching this lesson, what have you learned or had reinforced about yourself?
