

“HOW SHOULD
FUTURE TEACHERS
TEACH EDUCATION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT?”

FRIDAY, 9:00 – 10:00 A.M.
MEMORIAL HALL FORUM
OPEN TO STUDENTS & FACULTY

October 28

CHARLES HOPKINS

VISITING SCHOLAR & UNESCO CHAIR FOR EDUCATION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

OCTOBER Brown Bag Events sponsored by the CoE Sustainability Committee:

Oct. 4 – Hood Frazier, “The Story of Stuff,” Deans Conference Room, 12-1 pm

Oct. 5 – Eric Pappas, “A New Systems Approach to Sustainability,” Faculty Commons, 12-1 pm

Oct. 10 – Ed Brantmeier, “Peace Education & Sustainability,” Faculty Commons, 12-1 pm

Oct. 12 – Deborah Carrington, “Your Ecological Footprint Workshop: How Do You Tread on the Earth?,” Memorial Hall 7215 (computer classroom), 12-1 pm

Oct. 17 – Susan Barnes & Marianne Baker, “Sustainability Books for the K-12 Classroom,” Faculty Commons, 12-1 p.m.

Oct. 19 – Jennifer Coffman, “Sustainability Perspectives from Kenya,” Faculty Commons, 12-1 pm

Oct. 20 – Jen Newton, Field trip to JMU Recycling Center, meet at Dean’s Office 12 noon

Oct. 28 – Charles Hopkins’ Talk to Future Teachers, Memorial Hall Forum, 9-10 a.m.

For more details and for recommended readings prior to his visit, go to the CoE web page and then to the GoGreen Link