

Chesapeake Public Schools

Central office requires fingerprinting and background checks sent to their office before you can begin student teaching. They will accept a background check from any division or law enforcement, but will not do it for you directly. If you have had a previous background check, you can have it sent to Dr. Boyd via fax at 757-547-0252.