

Pest Control

Pest control is a part of the James Madison University Comprehensive Safety Plan. Procedures followed in addition to those identified in that document are as follows:

All windows have secure screens

Fly swatters are used to control individual insects.

When extermination using chemicals and pesticides is necessary, it is conducted by qualified University personnel.