

Drawing for Peace: International Art Contest 2015

Objective: The purpose of this contest is to foster a culture of peace and nonviolence by raising awareness among young children about relevant themes. The theme for the 2015 contest is “Show Your Colors” to emphasize the value of diversity and the acceptance of others.

Teachers and educators can encourage children to use their imaginations to convey the “show your colors” theme by using colorful displays, symbols, animals, nature, people, and so on.

Size: No larger than 11” x 14” on paper with a reasonable thickness. (For physical submissions)

Ages: 5-10

Range of Entry Dates: May 1 - May 31

Physical Submissions:

Mahatma Gandhi Center for Global Nonviolence
James Madison University, Moody 107a
90 Bluestone Drive, MSC 1205,
Harrisonburg, VA 22807

Electronic Submissions:

gandhicenter@jmu.edu
(Recommended for international entries)

The submissions that best capture the contest theme will be featured on the Gandhi Center website and displayed in the Prism Gallery at James Madison University.

Please provide a brief description of the artist.

Physical submissions will not be returned