

Copyright Transfer Statement

The copyright to this article is transferred to the International Journal of Gandhi Studies (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable) effective if and when the article is accepted for publication. The author warrants that his/her contribution is original and that he/she has full power to make this grant. The author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all co-authors. The copyright transfer covers the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, translations, photographic reproductions, microform, electronic form (offline, online), or any other reproduction of similar nature.

An author may self-archive an author-created version of his/her article on his/her own website and his/her institution's repository, including his/her final version; however, he/she may not use the publisher's PDF version which is posted on the Journal's website, www.jmu.edu/gandhicerter/ijgs/. Furthermore, the author may only post his/her version provided acknowledgment is given to the original source of publication and a link is inserted to the published article on the Journal's website. The link must be accompanied by the following text: "The original publication is available at www.jmu.edu/gandhicerter/ijgs/."

Please use the appropriate DOI for the article. Articles disseminated via the Journal's website are indexed, abstracted, and referenced by many abstracting and information services, bibliographic networks, subscription agencies, library networks, and consortia.

After submission of this agreement is signed by the corresponding author, changes of authorship or in the order of the authors listed will not be accepted by the Journal.
