Invitation to an Oral Health Education Training

Date: Wednesday, August 27, 2014

Time: 1:15 – 4:15 p.m. (sign-in at 1:00 p.m.)

Location: Staunton Public Library, 1 Churchville Ave, Staunton, VA 24401
(540) 332-3902, www.stauntonlibrary.org

Who should attend?
Family educators, nurses, family support workers, home visitors and associated staff from any family education or home visiting program.

The Virginia Department of Health (VDH), Dental Health Program, is offering this course for home visiting or family education programs serving pregnant women; families with infants, toddlers and school age children; and families of children with special health care needs. The training will provide crucial information necessary to address the 'silent epidemic' of dental disease. Participants will learn the most current evidence-based information about basic oral health care and oral disease prevention. There is no registration fee for the course.

Learning objectives for three (3) nurse contact hours:
- Understand the connection between oral health and overall health for young children and identify diseases linked to poor dental care.
- Identify and share at least one key oral health message to encourage others to prevent or control the epidemic of dental disease.
- Identify and share at least one prevention strategy for good oral health in children with disabilities.

Cost: There is no cost for attending the training however, pre-registration is required to attend the course.

Registration deadline: Tuesday, August 19, 2014 by 12:00 p.m.

If you have not pre-registered, you will not be able to attend the training. Registration is available via email only - kami.piscitelli@vdh.virginia.gov Please include:
- your full name
- organization/company
- phone contact information
- date and place of course you wish to reserve a seat (very important due to multiple training dates/times offered)

You will receive a confirmation email when your registration is accepted. If you don’t receive a confirmation email within 3 days, please send your email again or call to confirm.
