“Get the Picture: How Students Achieve Physical Education Standards Using Historical Digital Images!” by Sue A. Straits, Physical Education Teacher, Kent Gardens Elementary School, VA, Fairfax County Public Schools, Sue.Straits@fcps.edu.

Instructions: Click on the hyperlinks to view the “Introduction” of various physical education learning experiences using digital historical images from The Library of Congress, Washington, D.C. (see below Henderson, McGrath, Polk, or Straits). Start by reading the “Overview,” “Actions,” and “Reflections” of an “Introduction.” Please add your own ideas by completing a field test of one or more learning experience if you wish. Thank you!
