

Do you have what it takes to join the 1787 Society?

The 1787 Society is open to all James Madison University students regardless of major. Selection is competitive and is based on the following criteria:

- *Willingness to learn more about James Madison
- *Sophomore or Junior status at time of application
- *Minimum commutative 3.0 GPA
- *Willingness to take History 316: “The Life and Times of James Madison 1751-1836

Please fill out the following information at submit it to
Philip Bigler, Director
The James Madison Center
MSC 7402, 222 Johnston Hall
Harrisonburg, VA. 22807

Name: _____

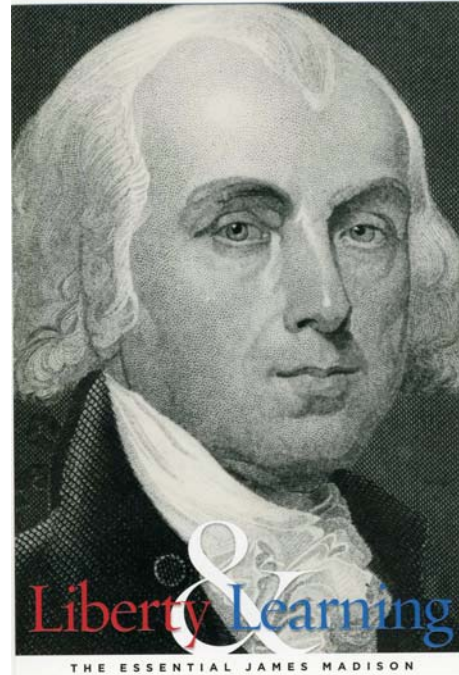

Campus Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Major: _____

GPA & Academic Level: _____

On a separate sheet of paper, please write a short essay (250-500 words) on the following: Why should the legacy of James Madison be important to JMU students and contemporary Americans?

Please attach a copy of your current Report on Academic Progress (RAP) along with this application and your essay. Send it to the James Madison Center at the above address.