Welcome to the Marching Royal Dukes Flute and Piccolo Section for the 2016 season! We are so excited to have you as a part of our section this year. In this flyer you will find the themes for our spirit week, what to bring to band camp, answers to frequently asked questions and some info about us. Please feel free to contact any of us with questions you might have. We’re looking forward to meeting you on Sunday, August 21st for the first day of band camp!

Go Dukes!

-The 2016 Flute and Piccolo Leadership Team

Spirit Days!

Movie Monday - Escape reality for the day as your favorite movie character!

Twin Tuesday - Grab a pal or two and match for the day!

Wet n’ Wild Wednesday - Break out those Hawaiian shirts & floppy hats for some fun in the sun!

Throwback Thursday - Jump back in time to your favorite decade!

Freedom Friday - Bring everything red, white and blue!

Spirit Saturday - Bleed Purple, Live Gold. Show us how much you love JMU!

Frequently Asked Questions:

Do I have to provide my own instrument?

Yes! Please bring your own instrument. You can choose to bring either a flute or piccolo to camp and to use throughout the season!

What do I need to provide for my uniform?

You will need to provide your own black marching shoes as well as long black socks for performances. For more details, please visit our website!

Do I need to have my music memorized?

We ask that you are familiar with your music when you arrive for camp. We will be going over the music as a section! Be sure to look at both parts as we are going to be assigning parts this year!

What to Bring:

- Instrument
- Khaki shorts
- SUNSCREEN and lots of it
- A white T-shirt (plus $2 for tie-dye!)
- Tennis shoes
- Athletic clothing
- SUNSCREEN
- Water bottle
- Hat/Sunglasses
- Fanny Pack (optional but highly recommended)
- Spirit day clothing
