Registration Information for Applied Voice Lessons in Fall 2015
Students are responsible for registering for classes (including MUAP 200 or MUAP 300-Voice Applied, all choirs and Opera Theatre) and for verifying their class schedules on e-campus.

The deadline for adding a Fall Semester class without instructor and academic unit head signatures is Tuesday, Sept. 8, 2015. Between Tuesday, Sept 8, 2015 and Thursday, Sept. 17, 2015, instructor and academic unit head signatures are required to add a class for the current Semester.

No student will be allowed to register for a Fall full-semester class after Thursday, Sept. 17, 2015. No exceptions will be made to these deadlines. The withdrawal with a W grade (drop) deadline for the fall semester is Thursday, October 29, 2015.

Disability Accommodations
JMU abides by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act, which mandate reasonable accommodations be provided for students with documented disabilities. If you have a disability and may require some type of instructional and/or examination accommodations, please contact me early in the semester so that I can provide or facilitate provision of accommodations you may need. If you have not already done so, you will need to register with the Office of Disability Services, the designated office on campus to provide services for students with disabilities. The office is located in the Student Success Center, Suite 1202, and you may call 540-568-6705 for more information.

Music Education Competencies
MUAP 200/300 contributes to the fulfillment of the following endorsement competencies:
*Music Education-Vocal/Choral PreK-12-- Competencies 7
All endorsement competencies are described in the School of Music Undergraduate Student Handbook
Grades

Studio Voice grades will be determined by the following percentages:

• 25% for jury exam or recital
• 15% for other performances, e.g., vocal masterclasses, area recitals, or any other performances for which lesson time was spent learning the music
• 35% for lesson preparation. A properly prepared student has:
  1. thoroughly practiced all assigned technical exercises
  2. learned assigned music correctly with specific attention to the melodic and rhythmic aspects of the music
  3. entered into their music IPA (where required) and word-by-word translations of all foreign languages for instant reference
  4. worked out the correct pronunciation of assigned songs and is ready for vocal coaching
  5. researched and become familiar with the historical context, stylistic traits, overall plot or libretto and context of the piece being learned (opera or other staged works), and can demonstrate the above in lessons
  6. memorized those pieces assigned by the instructor
• 15% for any additional requirements in each studio, such as notebooks, recital attendance, etc.
• 10% for demonstration of entire memorized repertoire at the semester's end

Academic Honesty

It is important to understand that the JMU Honor Policy applies to all work submitted for this class. This has particular reference to any written work required by the various studios. Please refer to the Honor Council website: (http://www.jmu.edu/honor/code.shtml) for specific information.

Numerical Grade Equivalents

• A=4 points; A minus = 3.7
• B=3 points; B plus = 3.3; B minus = 2.7
• C=2 points; C plus = 2.3; C minus = 1.7
• D=1 point; D plus = 1.3; D minus = .7
• F=zero points

FAILURE TO PASS A SCHEDULED LEVEL AUDITION WILL RESULT IN A MAXIMUM FINAL VOICE GRADE OF "D" FOR THAT SEMESTER.
General Goals for the Bachelor of Music, with Voice as major instrument

In addition to the core objectives for all music majors (See JMU’s Undergraduate Catalog 2015-2016, ), the following goals are specific to those who are seeking a B.M. with voice as major instrument. In order to successfully complete the degree, a student will be able to demonstrate:

1. a high level of musicality, technical facility, performance ability, and understanding of diverse musical styles, through successful presentation of a half recital (pass/fail) and/or graded senior graduation recital (MUS 395, MUS 495).
2. a mastery of appropriate level requirements in applied music by successfully completing semester juries on his/her major instrument (MUAP 300-level applied courses).
3. an appropriately comprehensive knowledge of pedagogy and literature corresponding to his/her applied area (MUAP 300, MUS 465-466, MUS 467-468, MUS 477).
4. an appropriate level of knowledge and experience with musical analysis and counterpoint (MUS 242-244, MUS 341).
5. an ability to function effectively as a performer in a collaborative/chamber music setting (i.e. public performance), contributing productive musical ideas and insights (MUAP 300, MUS 395-495).

Objectives Incorporated into all Applied Voice Lessons

Applied Voice lessons at all levels provide guidance for vocal and musical development. Students should demonstrate substantial improvement in the following areas throughout each semester. Appropriate levels of musical and technical mastery are tested in Jury Exams at the end of each semester, as well as in graduation recitals that are the culmination of the degree.

Vocal Technique: Coordination of Breath Support and Tonal Placement. Improved flexibility and expansion of vocal range. Awareness of vocal anatomy and function and defined vocal terminology.

Repertoire: Overview of vocal literature of various styles and eras, including pre-20th century Art Songs, contemporary Art Songs, Opera, Oratorio and Music Theatre. (See Vocal Area Levels for suggestions of appropriate repertoire).

Language Competency: Accurate pronunciation and inflection of sung texts, primarily English, Italian, German, French, Spanish. Thorough comprehension of text meanings and implications.

Musical Artistry: Development of communication skills and interpretive presence on stage. Effective collaboration with pianists and other musicians. Familiarity with leading vocal artists of classical music, both present and past. Ability to properly recognize, evaluate, verbalize, and learn from superior, average, and sub-standard vocal performances of self and others.
REPERTOIRE REQUIREMENT

The number of songs required for each voice student’s semester repertoire will be contracted between each student and his/her teacher at the beginning of each semester, in accordance with the credit hours taken and the level of accomplishment of the individual student. In order to pass a level, a sufficient number of pieces must be completed (correctly learned and memorized) to cover all the requirements of the level attempted. Required Textbook(s): Each voice teacher will require Song and Aria Anthologies appropriate to the level of advancement of the individual student. In general, it will be necessary for each voice student to acquire at least one new song or aria anthology per semester. In the process, the student will begin to build a professional library.

APPLIED LESSON LENGTH

Voice Students registering for MUAP 200 will receive one twenty-five minute lesson per week. Those registering for MUAP 300 (2-3 credits) will receive one fifty minute lesson or two 25 minute lessons per week. In rare situations, a student may register for four credits of voice (MUAP 300, 3 credits, plus MUAP 200) in order to make up a deficiency in credits. In this instance, the student will receive seventy-five minutes of lesson time per week, as scheduled by the instructor.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT AND MAKE-UP LESSON POLICY

Attendance is required at all lessons, as scheduled by the instructor. It is normal for a permanent lesson time to be established by the end of the first week of classes. Irregular attendance and frequent tardiness will lower the student’s grade, as determined by the individual instructor.

Missed lessons will be made up by voice instructors under the following circumstances:

1. If, for any reason, the teacher has missed the lesson.
2. If the student has contacted the teacher 24 hours, or more, in advance of the lesson in question. Excuses may be granted due to incapacitating illness or injury.
3. If a student misses a lesson without an excuse because of a verifiable emergency, the lesson may be made up at the discretion of the teacher.
4. In case of weather or other emergency that necessitates the closing of the University, the following policy will apply: see website: http://www.jmu.edu/JMUpolicy/1309.shtml Such missed lessons will be considered excused absences. They will be made up if possible, or in any case, they will not negatively affect the student’s grade for the semester.

In all cases, lessons will be made up at the convenience of the teacher, as time allows.

AREA RECITALS

Each vocal student is expected to appear on one Vocal Area Recital per semester.

- Dr. Little is the supervisor of Vocal Area Recital programs for the 2015-2016 academic year, with a graduate assistant in program assembly. Students will be able to obtain a Vocal Area Recital Application from their teachers. If you have questions about the application process, refer them to Dr. Little (littleja@jmu.edu).

- Be sure to include all program information (Selection Title, and larger work if applicable, Composer’s name and dates, names and instruments of all participating performers (i.e., Soprano, Piano, Flute, etc.).
Recital programs will be filled in the order in which applications are received, according to availability of space.
Submit your application as early as possible during the semester in order to secure a space on one of the programs!

ACCOMPANISTS: The acquisition of a competent accompanist is the responsibility of the student.

ACQUIRING A PIANO ACCOMPANIST FOR LESSONS AND RECITALS

The acquisition of a pianist for lessons and Area Recitals is a 2-stage process. First, at the beginning of each semester, voice students will receive an email Accompanist Request Form from Dr. Dobner. Second, students must fill out the form and submit it electronically to Dr. Dobner, office: Roberts 1105, as early as possible since only a limited number of pianists are available. Each voice student will then be notified of the individual assignments.

Working with a pianist is a collaborative partnership that is to be respected. Lessons are to be scheduled so that the pianist can be there for half of the total lesson time each week. It is the vocalist’s responsibility to provide the pianist with clean copies of all music, taped together accordion style, by the following times:
- Lessons – at least one week in advance
- Area Recitals – at least two weeks in advance

Failure to do so may result in the pianist’s refusing to play at the lesson and/or Area Recital.

Singers’ Responsibility to the Accompanying Class (MUAP 357)

If a pianist has been provided with the understanding that the singer will be available to perform in the Accompanying Class, the class meets MWF from 12:20-1:20 in the Forbes Recital Hall and performances may be required anywhere from one to three times during the semester.

It is singer’s responsibility to rehearse with the pianist in preparing for the class performances. The music for the Accompanying Class performance must be provided at least two weeks in advance of the performance date.

A performance schedule for the semester will be posted outside Dr. Dobner’s studio (Roberts 1105) by the second week of the semester. If you must miss a scheduled class performance for any reason, you must notify Dr. Dobner directly and before the class. Failure to do so will result in your pianist being reassigned to another singer.

Voice lessons should be scheduled so that the accompanist will be there for at least half the total lesson time each week. Generally, the pianist should be there for the second half of the lesson.
GENERAL VOICE AREA POLICIES

A. Jury Examinations

Final examinations for private voice students consist of singing for the assembled JMU voice faculty. These juried examinations are given at the conclusion of each semester during Finals Week, generally on Tuesday, Wednesday, and/or Thursday.

All students whose primary instrument is voice are required to take jury exams every semester, until the required vocal credits and graduation recital performances have been completed. Exceptions to this rule are granted during a semester in which a student either student-teaches, interns, or performs an official half or full voice recital. Voice students who take lessons (at the MUAP 200-level) but do not major in voice may or may not be required to take a jury, at the discretion of their teachers.

Jury examinations are divided into slots. Vocal students in all concentrations other than Performance sign up for 2 consecutive slots. Vocal performance majors must sign up for 3 jury slots whether taking 1, 2, or 3 credits of lessons.

Students who are excused from juries by their teachers because of extenuating circumstances (illness or incapacity) will receive a grade of "Incomplete" for the semester. Make-up juries to remove the "I" will be scheduled during the following semester at the earliest convenience of the voice faculty.

Formal approval for a voice student to enter the vocal performance or music theatre programs will take place in the jury exam at the conclusion of the student’s first year as a JMU music major. In order to be approved for the performance track, the student must have achieved a minimum performance proficiency of Level 3.

Sophomore Barrier
People admitted to the Performance and Musical Theater curricula will be re-evaluated for continuation in the concentration in the jury at the end of the sophomore year.

B. Voice Recitals:

Voice recitals are part of the graduation requirement in the Music Education, Music Industry, Music Theatre, and Music Performance curriculums. Students majoring in voice in the Composition curriculum are not required to perform vocal recitals but may apply for senior voice recitals if they continue to take at least two hours of private voice credit each semester through their recital semester. Vocalists in the Jazz Studies program perform their junior and senior recitals under the supervision of their jazz coaches. These programs may or may not include music from the classical repertoire.

Recital expectations are as follows:
1. Music Education and Music Industry--a half recital (25 minutes of music) in the senior year. Special application may be made at the final jury of the junior year for a full senior recital.
2. Vocal Performance--a half recital in the junior year and a full recital (50 minutes of music) in the senior year.
3. Music Theatre--a half recital in the senior year. At least 50% of the recital repertoire to be selected from Music Theatre works, which may include opera. Application may be made for a special full recital as in the Music Education and Music Industry degrees.

In all concentrations, a leading role in a main stage opera or music theatre production during the senior year may be substituted for a senior half recital. Students will need to submit a written application letter to the voice faculty for this substitution.

Any student who is expected to perform a half or full recital must audition for recital permission to schedule a recital. This audition will normally take place at the final jury of the year preceding the proposed recital year. No one except Bachelor of Music, Vocal Performance majors will be allowed to audition for a half junior recital.

There will be a ten-minute maximum intermission for a full recital. No intermission is allowed in shared half recitals.

Recital Hearings:
All recitals will have a Pre-Hearing for the purpose of completing the degree requirement of the recital. The hearings will be scheduled 10 to 14 days before the actual performance, and will be adjudicated by a voice faculty jury. The jury will consist of three or more members, one of whom must be the teacher of the recitalist. All memorization must be completed at the time of the hearing and a printed list of recital repertoire will be provided by the student, from which the jury will choose to hear up to half of the total content. Written critiques will be available for the student to read after the hearing.

If the committee does not give a passing grade to the hearing, the recital performance must be rescheduled, with a second hearing to precede it.

Vocal recital repertoire will be limited to material which has been approved by the private teacher and studied under supervision in applied lessons at JMU.

C. Vocal Studios:
The studio voice faculty are: Profs. Hoyt, Little, Maddison, McMillan, Newman, Stevens and Witmer.

It is important that each voice student study with a voice teacher of his/her choice. It is normal for voice students to study continuously with the same teacher during entire their JMU careers. It is considered most conducive to good training to have a consistent approach to vocal technique during undergraduate study. But sometimes it becomes necessary to change teachers. Such a change should not be taken lightly.

1. In instances where dissatisfaction exists in the studio, the first step in correcting the situation is the discussion of the problem between the student and the teacher. Many problems can be solved through communication. If this step has been taken and the results have been unsatisfactory, one possible remedy might be a studio change for the student. The procedure below is to be followed for a studio change.

2. Studio changes may only take place at the beginning or end of the Fall and Winter semesters. Studio changes at semester’s beginning should be initiated as soon as possible (by the end of the first week of classes), but must be completed before the University census date in the semester (Sept. 17, 2015, and Jan. 28, 2016). Studio changes at the end of a semester must be completed by the end of the final exam week. All parties involved MUST be kept fully informed, so that grading issues will be clearly defined. No studio changes can be enacted during the Summer or during Christmas Break.

3. Except in extenuating circumstances, no studio changes should take place before a student has studied with a teacher for at least one full year (two semesters).

Vocal Studio Change Procedure

a) The student must contact the vocal area coordinator and make known his/her concerns. The vocal area coordinator must first ascertain whether or not the student has discussed the concerns with the present teacher. If so, the vocal area coordinator will give the student a Vocal Studio Change Form, which must be filled out and signed by the student, the present teacher, the proposed teacher, and the vocal area coordinator before a studio change can take place. The completed form must be returned to the vocal area coordinator. If not, the student will be directed to meet with and inform the present voice teacher of his/her intent to change studios and the reasons for the intended change. Following this meeting, if the intent to change studios is unaltered, the current teacher must sign the studio change form, acknowledging that the intended change has been duly discussed.

b) Following the discussion with the current teacher, the student may contact the studio teacher with whom he/she would like to study, to obtain permission to study in that teacher’s studio. If the student has no specific studio preference, then the vocal area coordinator will assign the student to a studio according to faculty load levels. Barring the student’s possession of a Studio Change Form signed by the present teacher, no voice faculty member, other than the Vocal Area Coordinator, should discuss a potential studio change with the student of another voice faculty member. If a contact is made without the form, the student should be directed to proceed as in step a) above.

The above policy and procedures do not apply in situations when a student discontinues vocal study, then resumes it with a different teacher after the passage of at least one semester.

D. Code of Ethics: The James Madison University vocal faculty members all accept and abide by the Ethical Code of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, whether or not they individually are members of the organization. The NATS Code of Ethics can be found online at the following location: http://www.nats.org/code-of-ethics.html

E. Additional Policies

1. Non-curricular Vocal Activities
   Voice students will have opportunities to perform solo and ensemble works in various non-curricular settings. Since the amount and type of singing play a major role in the maintenance of good vocal health, the voice teacher must be informed of all student vocal activities.
2. Jury Repertoire

Songs used in diction class may or may not be allowed as jury repertoire, at the discretion of the teacher.

3. Applied Lesson Credit Deficit

If a voice major is behind in credits in his/her applied major, he/she can make up the deficit by registering for an extra hour of voice credit during a semester, at the discretion of the teacher.

4. Half Junior or Senior Recital Class (MUS 395)

All Vocal students, other than those in the Composition Major track, are required to complete a half recital on their major instrument during the junior or senior year. Half junior recitals are limited to vocal performance majors and Jazz Studies majors. All other major tracks require the half recital in the senior year. In order for the completion of the half recital to appear in the students’ transcripts, they must register for MUS 395 during the recital semester. MUS 395 is a zero credit class.

5. Senior Graduation Recital Credit (MUS 495)

Vocal Performance majors must register for credit in their full senior recitals (MUS 495). A vocal student in any other concentration who is granted the privilege of a full senior recital may register for credit under MUS 495, if he/she desires.

6. Vocal Ensemble Requirement (Passed in Vocal Committee Spring 2015)

A minimum of one auditioned ensemble will be assigned each semester during a student’s tenure at JMU. Exceptions to this policy include student teaching or Music Industry internship semesters.

Based on the results of choral and opera auditions, vocal music majors are required to participate in one or more of the Assigned Vocal Ensembles listed below, in accordance with the School of Music Ensemble Participation Policy (See JMU 2015-16 Catalog, p. 268, or p. 12 in this handbook). Placement in Assigned Vocal Ensembles is based on the outcome of required choral auditions. Students are also encouraged to participate in appropriate Elective Ensembles to broaden their experience. Please note, however, that participation in Elective Ensembles is in addition to registration for and participation in Assigned Vocal Ensembles, and does not fulfill degree ensemble requirements.

Assigned Ensembles (Vocal):

MUAP 234: University Men’s Chorus (UMC)
MUAP 235: Treble Chamber Choir (TCC) (doubles as MUED 201 requirement)
MUAP 236: University Women’s Chorus (UWC)
MUAP 340: The JMU Chorale
MUAP 341: The Madison Singers (TMS) (doubles as MUED 201 requirement)

MUAP 381: Bach Aria Group (doubles as MUED 201 requirement)

Vocal Area Ensemble Auditions
All vocal music majors must participate in choral ensemble auditions each semester. These auditions take place, as announced, on the Sunday prior to and Monday and Tuesday of the first week of classes. Based on the recommendations of studio teachers, ability, interest and career aspirations, students will participate in Opera Auditions, which take place as announced, on the Thursday and Friday of the first week of school. The Director of Choral Activities and the Director of Opera/Music Theatre will determine final ensemble assignments, with the input of studio voice faculty.

All undergraduate music majors must successfully complete their ensemble credit hour requirements before graduating, while also fulfilling the concentration area requirements as listed below.

All undergraduate music education majors must successfully complete their ensemble credit hour requirements as well as their MUED 201 Small Ensemble Requirement before graduating, while also fulfilling the concentration area requirements as listed below.

These requirements must be accomplished by participation in one or more of the designated Assigned Ensembles each semester. The credits for any additional Elective Ensembles will appear on the students’ transcript but may not be applied toward minimum degree requirements.

VOCAL AREA LEVELS

First Semester Freshman Voice students are admitted to the Vocal degree program with varying levels of experience. While some have studied for one or two years prior to college, others bring several years of experience with them. Level I is designed to encompass all entering students regardless of their vocal backgrounds. Repertoire will be chosen to suit the technical and linguistic abilities of each student.

A student’s initial level placement will take place during his/her first semester’s jury. GENERAL LEVEL INFORMATION

At the conclusion of the first semester in residence, students may audition to pass the highest level of competence at which they are capable. For Freshmen, the maximum level is Level IV. This initial level placement must be approved during jury exams by the consensus of the voice faculty. Thereafter, normal level progress will be monitored in the studio and reaffirmed by the entire voice faculty present at jury examinations. If a student desires to pass more than one level in a single semester, he/she must be tested and approved by a consensus of the voice faculty present at the jury. In such instances, the student will be responsible for the content of repertoire represented in the attempted levels, but not the total quantity of repertoire.

Voice majors who fall behind the normally expected level progress for their degree programs by more than one level, may be dropped from the program. Those on the BM Performance track are expected to maintain the normal level of progress, and if any level is failed, the student will be advised to change his/her curriculum to a track with lower level expectations. However, it will be possible to regain admission to the performance curriculum by a re-audition. If a student chooses not to attempt a level in a particular semester, he/she will still be required to take a jury exam unless he/she has attained the level required for graduation in his/her degree program.

Regardless of level attainment, all voice majors will continue to take appropriate applied credit until graduation requirements are met, including performance of recitals if required in their degrees. Students in degree programs in which the graduation level is lower than Level VIII may, with permission of their teachers, attempt levels beyond their minimum graduation level without penalty.
