

EDUC 490 OP01 #53643:

EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY

A THREE (3) SEMESTER HOUR COURSE

TO BE OFFERED BY

JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY

AT DIAMOND HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

1415 GRACE STREET, LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

May 22 – June 27

MAYBE USED FOR CERTIFICATION OR RECERTIFICATION

COST: $471.00

For more Information

Email wrennah@jmu.edu

To apply (and all other information needed), visit

<http://www.jmu.edu/outreach/apply.shtml>

ORIENTATION:

Hybrid Class:

Face to Face Meetings

Online Meetings

Friday Classes: 5 – 7 PM

Saturday Classes:

9 AM – 1 PM

Online Classes: 7:30-9 PM

Some Topics to be Covered:

Digital Natives, Immigrants

The Myth about Online Course Development

Creating Flexible E-Learning Through the Use of Learning Objects

Meeting Generation NeXt: Today's Postmodern College Student

Curriculum and Instructional Design

Classroom Application and Software Evaluations

Assessing the Technology Training Needs of Elementary School Teachers

An Investment in Tomorrow's University Students: Enhancing the Multimedia Skills of Today's K-12

Teachers Learning Management Systems and Learning Objects
Integrating Technology into the Learning Environment
Standards of Education
Ethics in Technology and Education
Podcasting
Computer Safety for Children
Technology Literacy