

Commonwealth of Virginia Laws

Underage Possession of Alcohol

No person to whom an alcoholic beverage may not lawfully be sold shall purchase or possess any alcoholic beverage. Any person found guilty of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 Misdemeanor; upon conviction, such person's license to operate a motor vehicle in the Commonwealth may be suspended for a period of not more than one year.

Keg Laws

The purchaser shall sign a statement that the purchaser is 21 years of age; does not intend to allow persons under 21 years of age to consume the alcoholic beverages purchased, and that the purchaser will not remove or obliterate the keg registration tag affixed to the keg or allow its removal or obliteration.

No person shall remove, alter, deface, or obliterate the registration seal affixed to a keg. If any non licensee is in possession of a keg containing alcoholic beverages, and which keg does not bear the registration seal, or upon which keg the registration seal has been altered defaced or obliterated, the container and its contents shall be deemed to be contraband and subject to seizure and forfeiture.
