Campus Safety: “A Shared Responsibility”

Safety on the campus of James Madison University is a natural source of concern for parents, students and university employees. Education - the business of James Madison University - can only take place in an environment in which each student, employee and visitor feels safe and secure. JMU recognizes this and employs a number of security measures to protect the members of its community.

JMU is located in the City of Harrisonburg which is nestled in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. Although the Harrisonburg area, with its small-town feel and neighborly attitude, has a relatively low crime rate; crime prevention remains a high priority in the campus community. JMU does its part to ensure the safety of its students and employees through a professionally trained and supervised police force and a closely screened and well-trained residence life staff which work in concert with a campus community that is informed, aware, and alert; all sharing the responsibility of making the JMU campus a safe place to study, work and live. You can obtain additional information about JMU here.

Police Protection

James Madison University provides full-service police protection to the campus community utilizing the James Madison University Police Department through the Office of Public Safety. The JMU Police Department is headed by a Chief of Police who reports to the Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance. The JMU Police Department has received accreditation from the Virginia Law Enforcement Professional Standards Commission after in-depth review of every aspect of the agency’s organization, management, operations, and administration to assure the highest standards are practiced and received reaccreditation in 2015. There are 47 sworn and commissioned police officers which consist of 33 full-time officers augmented by 14 part-time special event officers. All officers have comprehensive arrest powers. The JMU Police Department consists of an investigative division, an operations division, a special events and communications division, and a support services division each headed by a Deputy Chief of Police. Full time patrol officers are members of the operations division and they patrol the campus 24 hours a day, seven days a week. They enforce state statutes, local city ordinances along with regulations of the university while protecting property, providing assistance to the JMU community and responding to reported criminal incidents, emergencies, and traffic concerns. Four patrol officers and a sergeant are members of the JMU/Harrisonburg Joint Patrol Task Force which augments the Harrisonburg Police Department primarily in the surrounding off-campus student housing areas adjacent to campus. The support services division is responsible for emergency management and crime analysis and information technology services. The investigation division consists of a forensic unit which provides for evidence gathering response personnel that work in concert with investigators which handle reported cases that require in-depth follow-up investigations. The special events and communications division provides for the coordination of communications for the police department through the communications unit along with special event coordination. Special event coordination involves ensuring appropriate levels of supervision, personnel, security, and traffic control are provided to ensure safety at these venues and provide for emergency situations that may arise. JMU full time police officers along with special event police officers and officers from outside police agencies provide support for events to include athletic events, concerts, speaking engagements, and other programs. Special event police officers are primarily assigned to work special and/or athletic events but are subject to other assignments when necessary.

The authority, responsibility and training of JMU law enforcement personnel are the same as required of any police officer in Virginia. All police officers have completed a basic academy training program, and are required to complete 40 hours of in-service training biennially along with specialized in-house training. All are certified by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services as police officers and are trained in all phases of law enforcement, including the use of firearms. Officers carry standard issue or approved firearms at all times and must maintain firearms proficiency through semi-annual classroom training, qualification, and certification at a firing range.

JMU law enforcement personnel receive training and certification in many specialty areas. The JMU Police Department has many trained and certified officers to include certified general instructors, certified bike patrol officers, certified evidence technicians, certified breathalyzer operators and certified ASP baton instructors. JMU Police have RAD instructors, trained crisis intervention and crime prevention specialists and
Law Enforcement Authority of Campus Police Personnel, Written Memorandums of Understanding (Mutual Aid and Concurrent Jurisdiction Agreements) and Investigation of Alleged Criminal Offenses

JMU Police have the authority to enforce all regulations and laws, both of the University and of the Commonwealth of Virginia, within their jurisdiction which includes all university-owned, -leased or -controlled property, the adjacent streets, and sidewalks. The JMU Police Department has entered into a Memorandum of Understanding with the Harrisonburg Police Department which allows duly sworn, on-duty officers employed by the James Madison University Police Department, jurisdiction to enforce city ordinances along with laws within the city limits of Harrisonburg. The JMU/Harrisonburg Joint Patrol Task Force augments the Harrisonburg Police Department primarily in the surrounding off-campus student housing areas adjacent to campus. The JMU Police work closely and maintain a close working relationship with state and local police including but not limited to the Harrisonburg Police Department, the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office and the local contingent of the Virginia State Police on incidents that occur on off campus. A Mutual Aid agreement with law enforcement and criminal justice agencies within and bordering Rockingham County is a reciprocal agreement for cooperation in furnishing police services and for the use of their joint police forces, their equipment and materials for their mutual protection, defense and maintenance of peace and good order. This agreement was amended in accordance with Virginia Code § 23-234 in the event that any law enforcement agency covered by this agreement conducts an investigation that involves a felony criminal sexual assault occurring on campus, in or on a non-campus building or property, or on public property, that agency shall notify the local attorney for the Commonwealth of such investigation within 48 hours of beginning such investigation. This enables cooperation with the Harrisonburg Police Department, the Rockingham County Sheriff’s Office and the local contingent of the Virginia State Police on incidents that occur on off campus. Additionally, there is a Mutual Aid agreement with the Department of State Police, for the use of their joint forces, both regular and auxiliary equipment, and materials when needed in the investigation of any felony criminal sexual assault or medically unattended death occurring on property owned or controlled by the institution of higher education or any death resulting from an incident occurring on such property has been enacted. James Madison University, as an agency of the Commonwealth of Virginia, may request resources and assistance from the Virginia State Police in the emergency response to, investigation of, or prevention of any other crime occurring at JMU dependent on availability of resources.

When a James Madison University student is involved in an offense located in a non-campus location (locations of student organizations recognized by the institution) or off-campus locations, the primary investigation will be conducted by police agency with primary jurisdictional control. JMU Police officers may assist in the investigation in cooperation with local, county, state or federal law enforcement. The Harrisonburg Police Department and the JMU Police Department communicate on serious incidents occurring on-campus and/or in the immediate neighborhoods and business areas surrounding campus as many JMU students live in apartment complexes and neighborhoods surrounding the university. While the Harrisonburg police exercise primary jurisdiction in areas off campus within the City of Harrisonburg, JMU Police officers, primarily the JMU/HPD Joint Patrol Task Force, serve as force multipliers and can respond as secondary responders to student and non-student related incidents that occur in close proximity to campus at the request of the Harrisonburg Police Department. JMU officers have direct radio communication with the Harrisonburg Police Department and fire and rescue services to facilitate rapid response in any emergency situation.

Reporting a Crime or Emergency

All crime, suspicious activity or emergencies that occur on the campus of James Madison University should be reported promptly to the James Madison University Police through the communications unit for response and documentation. Sex offenses can be also reported to Title IX officers for investigation by contacting James Robinson at 540-568-6991. The JMU Police can be reached in person at Anthony-Seeger Hall or by telephone. The on-campus emergency number, 540-568-6911, directly connects to the JMU Police Department and should be used when fire, police, emergency or medical response is required. This number can be found in the on-line JMU telephone directory. Courtesy telephones have this information on an attached label affixed to the telephone. It should be noted that when using a cell phone to call the JMU Police, callers should dial 540-568-6911 as dialing 9-1-1 directly may route them to another agency. If you should be routed to another agency, you need to advise them of your specific location at James Madison University so that they may relay this information to the JMU Police Department communications center. The JMU Police Department Communication Center houses a network of speed-dialed lines providing direct access to the Harrisonburg/Rockingham Emergency Communication Center for local fire and rescue services and other local police... departments. Two 800 telephone numbers are available to the University and can be utilized during an emergency situation. These numbers will be provided at that time and may be used to disseminate recorded messages and/or to receive calls into a centralized call center so that the standard emergency phone lines will not be overwhelmed. The police department also utilizes another emergency number, 540-442-6911, that can be accessed if the JMU telephone network becomes disabled. For information, escort services and other non-emergencies, students and employees should dial 540-568-6913. The telephone number for parking concerns is 540-568-3300. The telephone number for general information is 540-568-6211.

There are telephones provided at the main entrance to each of the residence halls. There are interior courtesy telephones located in the hallways of residence halls. Areas of Rescue Assistance (ARA) phones are located in many stairwells and outdoor emergency “Blue Light” phones are located across campus to include parking lots and other remote areas. These telephones are housed in highly visible yellow call boxes and feature one-button speed dialing for instant communication with the JMU Police with location of the activated telephone automatically identified to the police communications officer.

The JMU Police Communications Center can be reached directly using the LiveSafe App. It can be downloaded onto a smart phone and allows individuals to text information directly in real time to the JMU communications center.

If you are witness, a victim or have knowledge of a criminal activity, information may also be reported anonymously by utilizing the JMU Police Department’s on-line “Silent Witness” program. For this information to be included in crime statistics, however, enough information has to be given to determine a crime has occurred and the location. This can be accessed on line at Silent Witness.

The JMU Police encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes to the campus police and/or the appropriate police agency. This includes when the victim of a crime elects to or is unable to make such a report. The JMU Police will assist students in reporting crimes to other law enforcement agencies if requested.

The JMU Police Department Communications Unit which supports the police department in emergency and non-emergency situations is maintained 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Communications Unit consists of 16 telecommunicators including a supervisor, 8 full time and 7 part time employees. By mutual agreement with state and federal agencies, the JMU Police Department maintains a VCIN/NCIC (Virginia Crime Information Network /National Crime Information Center) communication terminal. All communicators are certified through NCIC/VCIN as Level A Operators and are responsible for manning a terminal 24 hours a day with nationwide access to query criminal information and receive updates via teletype on in progress or recently occurred crimes. They are also responsible for monitoring alarm panels for all fire and intrusion alarms on campus and allowing vehicles access to campus via the campus gate system. All communicators are certified through the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services and the regional Criminal Justice Training Academy. Initially, they receive training in a Basic Communication Officer Academy as well as 80 hours of in house training with a certified communications trainer. Additionally, all communicators maintain the required certifications through NIMS/ICS to meet federal standards.

Response to a Crime or Emergency

Upon notification of a criminal activity, emergency, or request for assistance, the James Madison University Police Department has the responsibility of responding to, and summoning the necessary resources to assist, mitigate, investigate, and document the incident. The call will initiate a response from the JMU Police Department, immediate or otherwise, as dictated by the nature of the incident. The responding officer will assess the reported incident and will arrange for necessary resources to include but not be limited to crime investigation, victim services, medical services or the utilization of other available resources. Criminal actions will be thoroughly documented in an appropriate report.
Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

The James Madison University Police Department has the responsibility of responding to, and summoning the necessary resources to mitigate, investigate, and document any situation that may cause a significant emergency or dangerous situation to the JMU community. In addition, the JMU Police Department has the responsibility to respond to such incidents to determine if the situation does, in fact, pose a threat to the community and notify the campus community or the appropriate segments of the community that may be affected by the situation utilizing appropriate measures to include emergency notification, emergency evacuation, “shelter in place” or other measures deemed necessary using the National Incident Management System (NIMS) structure. The JMU Police enjoy autonomous authority to activate the emergency measures upon their confirmation of the emergency or dangerous situation and determine the content and scope of the notification. The position titles of those persons given such autonomous authority include the Chief of Police, the Deputy Chiefs (support services, operations, special events and communications, and investigations) in the absence of the Chief, or any appointed designee. In weather related instances communication personnel, upon verification of an emergency by the National Weather Service, may issue weather related warnings. Concurrently or contemporaneously, based upon the type of incident, the official initiating the emergency notification incident will inform the Vice President of Administration and Finance and the Director of Media Relations of the emergency at hand and the justification for the implementation of emergency measures. The Chief of Police or his designee will act as the incident commander and with the assistance from other personnel or organizations such as risk management, facilities management, student health services, and external sources such as the National Weather Service and/or responding law enforcement or fire departments, will assess possible hazards to human health and the environment, considering both the direct and indirect effects. The incident commander ensures notification of facility employees and may coordinate an internal response and/or act as a liaison to external emergency responders. The types of incidents that may cause an immediate threat to the campus community could include, but are not limited to, emergencies such as an active shooter on campus, hostage/barricade situation, a riot, suspicious package with confirmation of a device, a tornado, a fire/explosion, suspicious death, structural damage to a university-owned or controlled facility, biological threat (anthrax, etc.), significant flooding, a gas leak, hazardous materials spill, criminal or terrorist activity, train wreck, or a possible meningitis outbreak.

James Madison University police officers and supervisors along with communication staff receive training in “Incident Command” and “Responding to Critical Incidents on Campus”. When a serious incident occurs that causes an immediate threat to the campus, the first responders to the scene are usually the James Madison University Police, the Harrisonburg Fire Department, and the Harrisonburg Rescue Squad. These agencies typically respond and work together to manage the incident. Depending upon the incident, other local agencies may provide support and response to include the Harrisonburg Police Department, other local law enforcement agencies along with state and federal agencies at the request of the Chief of Police. The Chief of Police/Incident Commander, utilizing the Emergency Management and Crime Prevention and Analysis officer or other designated personnel, is responsible for determining the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive a notification, determine the content with the assistance of the of the notification and initiate protocols for the implementation of the emergency notification system through the established procedures. Implementation of notification systems to be conducted by the Emergency Management and Crime Prevention and Analysis officer, Director of Media Relations, Deputy Chiefs, communication staff, or other designated personnel as needed.

Building coordinators are utilized and are responsible for developing emergency evacuation plans and guidelines, contingency plans and continuity of operations plans for their designated areas of responsibility in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety Emergency Management and Crime Analysis Coordinator and Safety Coordinator. The Chief of Police/Incident Commander or designee will, upon confirmation of an emergency that necessitates evacuations, will order an evacuation or if the situation warrants instructions to “shelter in place”.

Evacuation drills are performed both live and in table top exercises. The purpose of evacuation drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of fire or other emergency. Evacuation drills for residence halls are coordinated by the JMU Police and the Office of Residence Life each semester. Students learn the location of the emergency exits in the building and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term evacuation.

If an incident occurs and the buildings or areas around you become unstable, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it is usually safer to stay indoors, because leaving the area may expose you to that danger. Thus, to “shelter-in-place” means to make a shelter of the building that you are in, and with a few adjustments this location can be made even safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

Basic “Shelter-in-Place” Guidance

If an incident occurs and the building you are in is not damaged, stay inside-seeking an interior room-until you are told it is safe to come out. If your building is damaged, take your personal belongings (purse, wallet, JAC card, etc.) and follow the evacuation procedures for your building.
events and communications

activate components of the dangerous situation and determine the content and scope of the notification

The JMU Police enjoy autonomous authority to activate the emergency notification system upon their confirmation of the existence of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, employees, or visitors on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, employees, or visitors on campus.

All members of the James Madison University community are required to notify the JMU Police Department of any situation or incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, employees, or visitors on campus.

How You Will Know to “Shelter-in-Place”

A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources, including the JMU Police Department, Office of Residence Life, other University employees, or other authorities utilizing the University’s emergency communications tools.

How to “Shelter-in-Place”

No matter where you are, the basic steps of shelter-in-place will generally remain the same but can be modified for specific situations. Should the need ever arise; follow these steps, unless instructed otherwise by local emergency personnel.

If “sheltering in place” for toxic substances or irritants:

1. If you are inside, stay where you are. Collect any emergency shelter-in-place supplies and a telephone to be used in case of emergency. If you are outdoors, proceed into the closest building quickly or follow instructions from emergency personnel on the scene.
2. Locate a room to shelter inside. It should be an interior room above ground level without windows or with the least number of windows present. If there is a large group of people inside a particular building, several rooms may be necessary.
3. Shut and lock all windows (tighter seal) and close exterior doors.
4. Turn off air conditioners, heaters, and fans.
5. Make a list of the people with you, a staff member should call the JMU Police Department with this information so they know where you are sheltering. If only students are present, one of the students should call in the list.
6. Keep advised by monitoring text messaging and following any and all guidelines provided by the mass communication systems.
7. Make yourself comfortable.
8. If a computer is available please check the main JMU website for additional instructions.

Long term evacuations are detailed in the Emergency Response Plan located in the Comprehensive Safety Plan. It is designed to establish a framework for James Madison University to both avoid preventable emergency situations and to respond effectively and safely to emergencies when they occur. This includes assessing an emergency situation, coordinating a response effort, minimizing adverse effects, and, most importantly, ensuring that individuals are informed, safely evacuated or sheltered and accounted for with reasonable assurance.

This plan incorporates the many regulatory requirements concerning the development and implementation of a campus emergency plan into one meaningful and usable document. Information regarding procedures can be located in the University’s Comprehensive Safety Plan.

All members of the James Madison University community are required to notify the JMU Police Department of any situation or incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students, employees or visitors on campus.

Emergency Notification System

The James Madison University Police Department will immediately notify the campus community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, employees, and visitors, occurring on the campus, unless issuing a notification will compromise efforts to contain the emergency.

The institution will without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification system unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. The comprehensive mass-communication system includes the following components which may be activated independently or in-conjunction with each other, based upon the circumstances, to notify the university community of the existence of an emergency and provide updated information as necessary throughout the duration of any incident. The JMU Police enjoy autonomous authority to activate the emergency notification system upon their confirmation of the emergency or dangerous situation and determine the content and scope of the notification. The content is generally provided by the Emergency Management and Crime Prevention and Analysis officer or designee. The position titles of those persons given autonomous authority to activate components of the emergency notification system include the Chief of Police, the Deputy Chiefs (support services, operations, special events and communications, and investigations) in the absence of the Chief or an appointed designee in the absence of the Chief and Deputy.
students or updated information as necessary throughout the duration of any incident with each other based on the Chiefs. Concurrently or contemporaneously, the official initiating the emergency notification will inform the Vice President of Administration and Finance and the Director of Media Relations of the emergency at hand and the justification for the broadcast of the related notification.

The comprehensive mass-communication system includes the following components which may be activated independently or in-conjunction with each other based on the circumstances of the emergency to notify the university community of the existence of emergency and provide updated information as necessary throughout the duration of any incident. In the event of an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus, follow up information will generally be sent electronically through blast email or text messaging.

Blast E-Mail - An e-mail will be distributed to the inbox of all members of the JMU community with an email account to warn them of a campus emergency. Blast email gives the University the ability to expeditiously reach the entire campus community with critical information in the event of an emergency.

Emergency Notification (SMS Text Messaging) - The JMU community can now register to receive text and voice messages over their cell phones during a campus emergency. Faculty, staff and students may register through MY Madison.

JMU Web Page - University Web Page (black page) - This simple page helps to ensure that servers and systems remain accessible if an incident occurs. This black page displays in lieu of all other jmu.edu web pages and only allows the user to read specific posted information relative to any ongoing emergency situation.

Emergency Horns & Sirens

JMU currently utilizes two different systems that produce audible signals to warn students, staff, and visitors on campus of impending emergency situations or hazardous conditions.

1. Madison Alert - One component of the University's emergency communications system is Madison Alert Horn, Siren and Public Address system, a campus wide outdoor horn and public address system used to communicate with constituents in the open exterior areas of the campus. It can be activated to alert members of the University community of an imminent threat to public safety on campus. The following horns and sirens are used as part of this system:

   Emergency Siren: - MP3 - This signal is intended to immediately get the attention of members of the JMU Community. When students, staff and visitors hear this siren they should immediately try to seek shelter in a secure location and/or following any verbal instructions that accompany this alarm.

   All Clear Horn: - WAV - MP3 - This signal consists of three consecutive 5 second horn blasts and indicates that it is now safe to resume normal activities on campus.

2. James Madison University Lightening Prediction System - A second component of the University's emergency communications system is the Severe Weather Early Warning System. This separate system is completely automated and continuously monitors weather conditions in proximity to the University's Main Campus, Memorial Hall complexes, and Upark fields. When the system detects atmospheric conditions that have a high probability of producing an electrical storm (lightning) close to campus the system will activate a series of horns and strobe lights in designated areas on campus. The following horns are used as part of this system.

   Red Alert Horn: - WAV - MP3 - This signal consists of a single, 5 second horn blast which indicates that there is an imminent danger of a lighting strike on campus. When students, staff and visitors hear this horn they should immediately try to seek shelter in a safe location such as a building or vehicle away from water and electrical sources until the severe weather passes and the All Clear signal is given.

   All Clear Horn: - WAV - MP3 - This signal consists of three consecutive 5 second horn blasts and indicates that it is now safe to resume normal activities on campus.

Fire Alarms - The fire alarm systems in buildings can be activated and utilized to evacuate a building due to a fire or other emergency situation.

Building Coordinators - through face to face contact - All building coordinators are periodically trained on how to respond to various emergencies on campus and may disseminate information within their buildings.
Emergency Notification - Timely Warnings

In order to disseminate emergency information to the larger community, radio station AM1610 will be programmed to broadcast emergency information and local media will be contacted.

Radio AM1610 - In the event of campus emergency, information will be broadcast over the radio station AM1610.

Local media/Campus TV/Radio broadcasts.

For a comprehensive overview of Emergency Notification and Procedures you may go to Emergency Notification. In addition to detailed information on Emergency Horns & Sirens, this site includes interactive training in emergency procedures and a companion follow-up self-evaluation and review of information retention through a multiple choice testing site. A poster can be downloaded which contains detailed information on the official JMU mass communication system plus related advice on response to a hostile intruder, fire, and weather emergencies.

The University conducts numerous emergency response exercises each year, such as table top exercises, field exercises, and tests of the emergency notification systems on campus. Systematic tests of the Emergency Notification System will be conducted at least annually to include documentation of the exercise with the date, time and description of the test and whether the test was announced. These tests are designed to assess and evaluate the emergency plans and capabilities of the institution. Various drills are conducted throughout the year to familiarize students and faculty with emergency procedures and individual roles.

All members of the JMU community are instructed to notify the JMU police of any situation or incident on or near campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may pose an immediate or on-going threat to the health and safety of students, staff and visitors to the campus.

Timely Warnings/Community Alerts/Safety Announcements

In compliance with the "Timely Notice" provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the James Madison University Police Department is required to give a timely notice for Clery Act crime that occurs on Clery geography. Timely warning notifications are sent to notify the campus community in the event that a situation arises on the Clery geography which encompasses the JMU campus, non-campus property (property owned or controlled by the University or a recognized student organization not on the main campus), and public property (property within or immediately adjacent to campus) that, in the judgment of the Chief of Police or his designee, after reviewing the facts and circumstances of the incident, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat to the campus community. Timely warnings are primarily triggered by Clery Act crimes (criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery involving force or violence, aggravated assault, and major cases of arson). Timely notices may also be posted for other crime classifications, as deemed necessary. Timely Warnings are evaluated on a case by case basis depending on the facts of the case and the information known.

JMU is not required by law to issue a timely warning for off-campus crimes; however, incidents occurring off campus will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine if there is a crime that poses an ongoing or serious threat to the community. A Community alert may be developed to notify the campus community in the event that a situation arises off campus, that, in the judgment of the Chief of Police or his designee, after reviewing the facts and circumstances of the incident, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat to the off campus community.

The Chief of Police, the Deputy Chiefs (in the absence of the Chief) and in the absence of the Chief or Deputy Chiefs, or a designee will approve the content and the dissemination of the timely warning or community alert message provided by the Emergency Manager/Crime Analyst or the Clery Compliance Officer or designee. Concurrently or contemporaneously, based upon the incident, the official initiating the timely warning notification will inform the Vice President of Administration and Finance and/or the Director of Media Relations of the notification and the justification for the implementation. Timely warnings and community alerts will be issued by means of rapid response mass-communication technology providing the JMU Community with immediate notification to students, faculty and staff through the issuance of:

- “Blast” bulk e-mailings originating from the Public Safety Office to all student and employee e-mail accounts, and/or;
- Text messaging to the campus community via cell phones.
- Companion posters may be sent to various residence life listservs and other address book listings as attachments.
- The Office of Public Safety may also post a notice on the campus-wide electronic bulletin board on the JMU Police website. The electronic bulletin board is immediately accessible via computer by all faculty, staff, students or visitors.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning/crime alert should report the circumstances to the JMU Police office, by phone (540-568-6911) or in person at the communication center within the Office of Public Safety, Anthony-Seeger Hall, located at the Southwest corner of West Grace and South Main Streets.

Timely Warnings and Community alerts for situations that may pose a threat to others can be generated from reports made to Campus Security Authorities as identified by James Madison University in addition to the JMU Police and/or the local police agencies. Timely Warnings and Community alerts are provided to students and employees in a manner that is timely, that withholds the names of victims as confidential, and that will aid in the prevention of similar occurrences.

The JMU Police may not issue Timely Notices/Community Alerts for instances in which the perpetrators have been apprehended and the threat of imminent danger for members of the JMU community has been mitigated by the apprehension or in which a report was not filed with the JMU Police Department and the JMU Police Department was not notified of the crime in a manner that would allow the department to post a “timely” warning for the community.

Safety announcements encompass information of value to the community and are sent via electronic communication (blast email and text messaging). Safety announcements contain information which is used to promote general safety to the JMU community.

Campus Security Authorities

“Campus security authority” is a Clery-specific term that encompasses four groups of individuals and organizations associated with an institution: a campus police department or a campus security department of an institution; any individual or individuals who have responsibility for campus security but who do not constitute a campus police department or a campus security department; any individual or organization specified in an institution’s statement of campus security policy as an individual or organization to which students and employees should report criminal offenses; and an official of an institution who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities.

Although every institution wants its campus community to report criminal incidents to law enforcement, we know that this doesn’t always happen. Even at institutions with a police department on campus, a student who is the victim of a crime may be more inclined to report it to someone other than the campus police. For this reason, the Clery Act requires all institutions to collect crime reports from a variety of individuals and organizations that Clery considers to be "campus security authorities". A campus security authority’s primary responsibility is “to report allegations made in good faith that have occurred in the Clery geography to the reporting structure established by the institution”. Data is collected from a wide variety of “Campus Security Authorities” to provide the most accurate crime statistics possible via an electronic data form sent to the Clery Compliance officer. The Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice and the Office of Residence Life send reports to the Clery Compliance Officer on a continuing basis.

The James Madison University Police Department encourages Campus Security Authorities to promptly and accurately report Clery reportable crimes to the JMU Police Clery Compliance officer on a continuing basis by filling out the Clery Incident Electronic form and submitting the information electronically or the information can be forwarded to Lisa Carickhoff Clery Compliance Officer 821 South Main Street MSC 6810 Harrisonburg, VA 22807 or by FAX to JMU Police Clery Compliance Officer at 540-568-7926 or email to caricklt@jmu.edu

“Pastoral Counselors” and “Professional Counselors”, when acting in their role of a pastoral or professional counselor are not considered campus security authorities and are not required to report crimes for inclusion into the annual disclosure of crime statistics. This exemption is intended to protect the counselor-client role. At a minimum, this provides crime victims valuable counseling and referral information.

Pastoral Counselor

An employee (in the case of JMU, they are affiliates) of an institution who is associated with a religious order or denomination, recognized by that religious order or denomination as a person who provides confidential counseling and who functions within the scope of that recognition as a pastoral counselor.
JMU pastoral and professional counselors are encouraged to tell their clients about reporting procedures outlined in this document. Victims of sexual violence have the option of keeping their report in complete confidence, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center or affiliated pastoral counselors.

The James Madison University Police Department does not allow voluntary confidential reporting. If a complainant files a report with the JMU Police Department, the information may not be able to be kept confidential. Crimes, however, may also be reported anonymously by utilizing the JMU Police Department’s “Silent Witness”. For this information to be included in crime statistics, however, enough information has to be given to determine a crime has occurred and the location.

University Sponsored Trips

Pursuant to the Clery Act, the University on an annual basis is required to disclose certain reported crime statistics that occur during University sponsored / arranged trips. Community members who are administratively responsible for student trips are expected to report student trip information to the Clery Compliance Officer for compliance. Student trips must meet certain requirements. The University must have control over the trip or program accommodation and any related academic space used in conjunction with the trip. Control, as defined by the Clery Act, means that there is a written agreement (no matter how informal) directly between the University and the end provider for use of the space. In addition, the controlled space must be used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution’s educational purposes and frequented by students.

Information on student trips is needed by the University Police to follow-up with the local law enforcement agency associated with the trip location. A request is sent to the trip location local law enforcement agency to determine if any Clery Act qualifying crimes (occurring during the trip time frame and at the University arranged accommodation and/or related academic space) were reported directly to the local law enforcement and thus may not be known to University personnel. Documentation of trips can be made electronically at Clery Act Trip Documentation Form or may be emailed to the Clery Compliance Officer at caricklt@jmu.edu.

* Note, other University / Departmental internal crime reporting requirements may also exist on any Clery Act reportable and non-reportable student trips

Emergencies Involving Students or Faculty and Staff

For emergencies involving students, the JMU Police can call upon the services of the Behavioral Assessment Team (BAT) chaired by the Dean of Students with members from the Counseling Center, the Health Center, Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice, Public Safety, the Office of Residence Life, Disability Services, representatives from academic programs and representatives from other university offices on an as needed basis to assess and intervene with students whose behavior may present a threat to themselves or the safety of the university community. JMU is committed to improving community safety through a proactive, coordinated, objective, and thoughtful approach to the identification, assessment, intervention, management, and prevention of situations that pose, or may reasonably pose, a threat to the safety and wellbeing of the campus community. Any member of the university community who is concerned about the behavior of a JMU student is encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office at 540-568-5468, the JMU Counseling Center at 540-568-6552, the JMU Police at 540-568-6913 or other member of the BAT team.

For emergencies involving faculty and staff, the JMU Police can call upon the Faculty/Staff Assessment Team. The Faculty/Staff Assessment Team (FSAT) is charged with assessment and intervention with faculty and staff members whose behavior may present a threat to themselves or the safety of the university community. The FSAT is chaired by the Director of Human Resources, and constituted as an ad hoc committee that includes members from the Counseling Center, Human Resources, Public Safety, and other university offices as appropriate. Any member of the university community who is concerned about the behavior of an employee is encouraged to contact human resources at 540-568-7916.

The BAT and FSAT will meet as needed to assess and intervene with students or faculty and staff members whose behavior may present a threat to themselves or the safety of the university community. Any member of the university community who believes that the behavior of an individual who is on campus or who is a member of the community may present a threat to self or others in the university community should report the person to the appropriate team.
The Victim/Witness Assistance Program, established through a cooperative effort between the Commonwealth Attorney’s Office, the JMU Police, Harrisonburg and Rockingham County law enforcement agencies, the State police, and the Harrisonburg-Rockingham Community Services Board, is designed to lessen the impact of criminal acts on the victims and witnesses of crimes and to ensure that such individuals receive fair treatment while participating in the criminal justice system. The JMU police can help arrange assistance by from the Victim/Witness coordinator and also provides a brochure outlining Virginia’s Crime Victim and Witness Rights Act information.

Police Crime Log Information

The Daily Crime Log at James Madison University contains entries of crimes or alleged crimes that have been reported to the JMU Police Department for the required geographic locations to include on campus, non-campus, and on public property within the campus or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus. It also contains information regarding crimes or alleged crimes that the JMU Police Department has been made aware of through other sources to include the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice, the Office of Residence Life, third party reports, and outside police agencies. Entries in the crime log include reports of crimes that occur within the concurrent patrol jurisdiction of the JMU Police Department, the City of Harrisonburg, that are reported directly to the JMU Police. Instances where JMU officers respond to assist are documented as outside agency assists. Crime listings generated by the Harrisonburg Police Department electronic crime listings report can be accessed from a portal on the Daily Crime Log. The Crime log is updated within two business days upon receipt of the information. The Daily Crime Log information appears on the JMU Police Department website. The JMU Police maintains accessibility to the crime log 24/7, 365 days a year in the police department communications area electronically.

According to Federal law, an institution may withhold any of the required fields of entry; the nature, date, time, location and/or disposition of the crime or alleged crime if any of the following conditions apply:

The disclosure is prohibited by law:
- If disclosure would jeopardize the confidentiality of the victim;
- If disclosure would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation or the safety of an individual;
- If disclosure would cause a suspect to flee or evade detection;
- If disclosure would result in the destruction of evidence.

The information temporarily withheld from the log for any of the aforementioned justifications will be posted once the possibility of adverse or harmful effects are no longer likely to occur.

The JMU Police Department requests local police agencies keep the institution informed on an immediate basis of crimes that may require timely warnings or community alerts. We are committed to an open line of communication to enable us to routinely review incidents occurring in areas beyond our campus that could serve as a potential threat to members of our campus community especially those apartment complexes with heavy concentrations of off-campus resident students and places where students often frequent.

Campus Police Cadet Program

Through the Campus Police Cadet Program, carefully screened students are employed to act as additional eyes and ears for the JMU Police. They alert the police of incidents for possible further investigation, provide services during special events, and provide building and campus security. They are in radio contact with the JMU police at all times. Cadets are mainly on duty in the evening and late night, patrolling their assigned areas providing security escort services to students walking across campus and to and from parking lots. Cadets also provide vehicular escorts from distant areas on campus. Following cadet duty hours, JMU police escort students as needed. Cadets are also responsible for patrolling and securing academic and administrative buildings on campus each evening. Cadets are primarily assigned to walking patrol of the campus and escorts during the fall and spring semesters. During the summer, cadets provide building lockup and security functions.

Prior to the beginning of the fall semester each year, a two day “Cadet Academy” is held to provide training. All current cadets and newly hired cadets are required to attend. During the academy, policies and procedures are explained and the cadets receive information and training in radio usage, special events, sexual assault and harassment, drug usage on campus, accountability procedures and the role of the JMU Police.
University Housing

The Office of Residence Life at James Madison University is committed to designing and maintaining a caring environment that encourages academic success, respect, personal growth and responsibility to one's community. Approximately 6,200 undergraduate students reside in 47 residence halls on the JMU campus. All sororities are housed on-campus. Freshmen are required to live on campus, with the exception of day student commuters. Upper-class students select residence hall assignments dependent upon availability.

Off-campus housing includes apartments, private homes, individual rooms or apartments within private homes, and off-campus fraternity houses. The University does not provide supervision for unaffiliated off-campus housing and relies on the Harrisonburg Police Department for enforcement.

University housing provides coeducational housing for such lifestyle options as first year and upper class. There are also a number of residential learning communities. These communities are facilitated by academic departments and include Honors, International, Pre-professional Health, Psychology, Biology, Visual & Performing Arts, and Education. A Faculty in Residence (FIR) program was created to house a university professor in the residence halls in the hopes of increasing interaction between students and educators. Five Fir’s have been created in Chesapeake Hall, Potomac Hall, Shenandoah Hall, Eagle Hall, and Wayland Hall. Each residence hall has set visitation hours which may be further reduced by a vote of the residents. Guests should be escorted by a hall resident at all times.

Access to on-campus housing by university employees is on an "as needed" basis and incorporates strict card key control procedures during hours of restricted access. All university repair and maintenance personnel must be in uniform or wear a JMU photo ID to allow for easy identification by residents. Residence halls are staffed with hall directors and a number of resident advisers. These individuals, living in the halls and on call 8:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. daily, are members of the university's residence life staff and receive extensive training in the enforcement of residence hall security policies and Clery and Title IX requirements.

All residence hall doors accessing resident living areas remain locked 24 hours daily, seven days a week. Unrestricted access to certain administrative, dining service, public assembly, and meeting rooms in Chandler, Huffman, and Frederikson Halls is permitted generally 7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., weekdays. Interior doors separating public access from residential room areas remain locked at all times in these halls. Currently perimeter security to all university-owned residence halls is maintained by automated card access. A student who enters or leaves a residence hall is responsible for securing the door. Propping or otherwise preventing any door from being completely secure is a serious safety violation. A propped door alarm in many residence halls issues an alarm when the door is propped for a set time period.

A resident director or adviser is on duty each evening in the office at the main entrance of each hall from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and also from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. the following morning both Friday and Saturday. This individual is in immediate telephone contact with JMU police, if necessary. Following this desk assignment detail, the person on duty remains on call, with the office phone transferred to his or her apartment or room.

All residence halls and on-campus sororities are closed during Thanksgiving, Spring Break and semester breaks. During low occupancy periods, such as the summer terms, students remaining on campus are moved into one concentrated area of the residence life complex to enhance security effectiveness. The JMU Police remain in service during all breaks. Over extended breaks, the doors of all vacated halls are secured from access by even the assigned residents by means of a temporary programming change in the card access software.

Inspections are conducted periodically by representatives from residence life, facilities management, locksmiths shop, police and safety and engineering to survey the security and integrity of university housing and campus facilities. In addition, a committee of students meets monthly to discuss security concerns and to provide feedback to the residence life staff. Repairs are made promptly, locks quickly replaced when keys are lost or stolen, and reports of potential safety hazards, such as broken windows, receive immediate response.

JMU students are expected to maintain a high level of maturity, responsibility and common sense regarding their behaviors and actions and follow residence hall policies. In addition, students are responsible for understanding policies, rules and regulations contained in the JMU Student Handbook, their JMU Residential Contract, the JMU Honor Code and information from residence hall staff members. Students may contact their resident adviser or hall director if they have questions. The following are possible disciplinary actions that might be taken after a student violates the residence hall policies, rules or regulations.
Missing Student

At James Madison University each student living in an on-campus student housing facility will be given the option to register a confidential contact person(s) whom the institution shall notify if the student is determined missing by the JMU Police for 24 hours. Residents of on-campus student housing will register this contact information on line with the Office of Residence Life upon moving into university housing where it will be maintained electronically. Resident students are advised that contact information will be considered confidential, accessible only to authorized campus officials and law enforcement and will not be disclosed outside of a missing person investigation. University officials must notify a custodial parent or guardian when the student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated and is determined to be missing, in addition to any additional contact person designated by the student. If a member of the JMU community has reason to believe that a student is missing, whether or not the student resides on campus, all possible efforts are made to locate the student to determine his or her state of health and well-being through the collaboration of the JMU Police, the Office of Student Affairs and other appropriate law enforcement agencies. Anytime a member of the University community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify the JMU Police Department to initiate an investigation. There is no time minimum period for reporting a person. If the student is an on-campus resident, the University Police will secure authorization from Student Affairs officials to make a welfare entry into the student’s room and the Office of Residence life will be contacted to provide missing person emergency contact information in furtherance of a missing person investigation. If an off-campus student resident, the University Police will informally enlist the aid of the neighboring police agencies having jurisdiction. Concurrently university officials will endeavor to determine the student’s whereabouts through contact with friends, associates, and/or employers of the student. Information gathered to include whether or not the student has been attending classes, labs, recitals, and scheduled organizational or academic meetings; or appearing for scheduled work shifts will be investigated. If located, verification of the student’s state of health and intention of returning to campus will be determined. A referral will be made to the JMU Counseling Center and/or the University Health Center if appropriate. Notification of a custodial parent or guardian or failing that any other available family member within 24 hours of receiving the initial report is made to determine if they know of the whereabouts of the student in addition to contact information provided by the student. If the student is an off-campus resident, appropriate family members or associates are encouraged to make an official missing person report to the law enforcement agency within the appropriate jurisdiction. The JMU Police will cooperate, aid, and assist the primary investigative agency in all ways prescribed by law. The JMU Police Department is an active participant partnering in the Rockingham County/Harrisonburg City/James Madison University Mutual Aid Compact. If the student is an on-campus resident, the JMU Police will open an official investigation and retain status as the primary investigative unit. All pertinent law enforcement agencies, be they neighboring municipal, county, or state; those located along suspected travel corridors; or place of original domicile, will be notified and requested to render assistance, through direct telephone contact, email, in person visit, Virginia Crime Information Network (VCIN) message, and/or radio transmission with a comprehensive BOL message based on the totality of up-to-date information. Suzanne’s Law requiring local police to notify the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) when someone between 18 and 21 is reported missing was signed into law by President George W. Bush in the Spring of 2003 as part of the national “Amber Alert” Bill. The federal law is named after Suzanne Lyall, a State University of New York at Albany student who has been missing since 1998. The law is intended to impel police to initiate prompt investigations of young persons who have gone missing.

Upon closure of the missing person investigation, all parties previously contacted will be advised of the status of the case.

To summarize, when a student who resides in an on-campus student housing facility is determined to have been missing for 24 hours, the University is legally obligated, if the student has designated a contact person, to notify that contact person within 24 hours; if the student is under 18 years of age and is not emancipated, the University officials must notify the student’s custodial parent or guardian and any other designated contact person within 24 hours; and inform the University Police that the student is missing within 24 hours.

Greek Life

Student Affairs maintains contact with recognized fraternity and sorority organizations through the efforts of the Coordinator for Fraternity and Sorority (Greek) Life. JMU Police provide law enforcement services to on campus chapters. The Harrisonburg Police Department provides law enforcement services to off-campus residences of recognized fraternities located in the City of Harrisonburg. Criminal activity at recognized off-campus fraternity residences is monitored and recorded by the Harrisonburg Police Department. Student Affairs, though its offices of Accountability and Restorative Practice, Greek Life, and the JMU Police enjoy a close working relationship with the Harrisonburg Police Department, especially when violations of federal, state or local laws surface. This cooperative team approach addresses situations as they arise as well as future concerns.

Further information on fraternity and Sorority Life can be accessed at here.

Hazing

Hazing is a very serious concern. Many hazing incidents could be avoided if members were better educated about what constitutes hazing, alternatives to hazing and the university hazing policy. Though it is the responsibility of each member of an organization to uphold the hazing policy it is the officer’s responsibility to educate each member, set a no-tolerance policy, led by example, and report any hazing that has occurred. Groups can lose their recognition and individuals can be accountability sanctioned for allowing/ignoring or taking part in any form of hazing. JMU is an institution of higher learning devoted to excellence in teaching, research and service to the people of the Commonwealth and the nation. The University is committed to developing students through academic and co-curricular activities. Hazing is an unproductive and hazardous custom that is incongruous with this responsibility and has no place in college life, either on or off campus. No individual student or recognized student organization may engage in or plan any activity that may be defined as hazing. In addition, no individual or recognized organization may by physical or mental stress or by subtle or covert technique, impair, make captive, or destroy an individuals’ freedom of thought and choice.

Accountability Policy J17-100 Hazing

The university prohibits any situation created intentionally to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, harassment or ridicule in connection with or the purpose of initiation, admission into, or affiliation with or as a condition for continued membership in a club, organization, or association, regardless of whether the students participated voluntarily in the relevant activity. Hazing activities include but are not limited to; calisthenics or other strenuous physical activity; exposure to inclement weather; consumption of any food, liquid, beverage, drug, or other substance; confinement in any room or compartment; spraying, painting, or pelting with any substance; burying in any substance; burning, branding, or tattooing; or any other activity which may result in physical injury or endanger the health or life of the individual being hazed.

Section 18.2-56 of the Code of Virginia declares hazing illegal, establishes conditions for civil and criminal liability, and outlines the duties of the university when a student has been found guilty of hazing in civil or criminal court.

Alcohol and Drugs

The impact of alcohol and other drugs is a concern that JMU recognizes affects the health and safety of all members of the campus community. Alcohol, if misused, can endanger your well-being, and have serious legal, health, and academic consequences. The abuse of alcohol can increase the risk of accidents due to impaired judgment and coordination, can damage the brain, liver and heart, create physical and psychological dependence, and lead to unwanted sexual activity. It can also cause social relations to quickly deteriorate, or exacerbate or induce psychological and behavioral problems.

JMU hopes all community members stay safe and act responsibly if they choose to drink. Remember, the legal drinking age is 21. Underage drinking puts you at risk for both criminal and accountability sanctions. Set your own alcohol limit and stick to it. You should pace your consumption of alcoholic beverages. Designate a nondrinker in your group to watch out for potential problems. Don’t leave your group of friends and don’t put yourself at risk by leaving with a new acquaintance. Monitor your drink at all times.
Alcohol Policies

JMU is committed to working against the illicit use of drugs and alcohol among students and employees. JMU police officers enforce all Virginia State laws, Harrisonburg city ordinances, and university policies concerning the purchase, possession, consumption, use, sale and storage of alcoholic beverages and drugs, including the following:

Alcohol Policies – Office of Accountability and Restorative Practices

J38-101.1 Individuals must be 21 years of age to buy, possess or consume alcoholic beverages. Examples of possession and consumption include, but are not limited to, holding, drinking a beverage containing alcohol or having alcohol in an area under the responsibility of the student. Areas of responsibility for a student may include, but not be limited to backpacks, refrigerators, or residence hall rooms.

J38-101.2 Alcoholic beverages may not be sold or furnished to any person who at the time of sale or exchange is underage or visibly under the influence of alcohol.

J38-101.3 Falsely representing one’s age for the purpose of purchasing, possessing, or consuming alcohol is against university standards of conduct.

J38-101.4 Drunkenness and/or possession of open containers of alcohol are prohibited in public areas as defined by state and local laws/ordinances or University policy.

Sponsors are responsible for assuring that all persons in attendance at an event comply with state alcohol law and university alcohol policy.

J38-101.6 Kegs, party balls or other large containers with alcohol are prohibited on campus unless previously approved by JMU Special Events and Catering Services. All kegs and other alcohol containers on or off campus must comply with Virginia’s Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control rules and regulations.

J38-101.7 Students shall not misuse or abuse alcohol regardless of their age. This includes but is not limited to; driving under the influence, providing alcohol to those underage, or consuming alcohol to the point of hospitalization.

Criminal Sanctions – Alcohol

Virginia’s Alcohol Beverage Control Act contains a variety of laws governing the possession, use and consumption of alcoholic beverages. The act applies to the students and employees of this institution. As required by the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, the pertinent laws, including sanctions for their violation, are summarized below:

- It is unlawful for any person under age 21 to purchase or possess any alcoholic beverage. Violation of the law exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is either confinement in jail for up to 12 months, a fine up to $2,500 or both. Additionally, such person’s Virginia driver’s license may be suspended for a period of not more than one year.

- It is unlawful for any person to purchase alcoholic beverages for another when, at the time of the purchase, he/she knows or has reason to know that the person for whom the alcohol is being purchased is under the legal drinking age. The criminal sanction for violation of the law is the same as Item 2 above.

- It is unlawful for any person, regardless of age, to consume alcoholic beverages in unlicensed public places. Violation of the law, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is a fine up to $250.

• It is unlawful for any person under 21 to operate any motor vehicle after illegally consuming alcohol. Violation of the law is a misdemeanor for which the punishment is loss of driver’s license for 6 months and up to $500 fine.

Convictions for violations of these laws could result in fines, loss of driver's license and imprisonment. University sanctions could include penalties ranging from disciplinary probation, sanctioned substance abuse education programs, civic education programs, restitution, counseling center administrative request, suspension from university housing, expulsion from university housing, special assignments/restrictions, suspension, expulsion and fines. Further information concerning sanctions for students found responsible for violating university policy can be found here.

Drug Policies

JMU is committed to working against the illicit use of drugs and alcohol among students and employees. University police officers enforce all Virginia State laws, Harrisonburg city ordinances, and university policies concerning the purchase, possession, use, consumption, sale and storage of alcoholic beverages and drugs including the following:

Drug Policies – Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices

J38-102.1 No student shall use, possess, sell, or distribute an illicit drug. Illicit drugs include both illegal drugs as defined by the Drug Control Act of the Commonwealth of Virginia, prescription medications used by an individual other than the person for whom the drugs are prescribed, legal drugs used outside of their recommended directions, and/or other recreational substances used as drugs. Examples of possession and use includes, but are not limited to, ingesting an illicit drug, or having and illicit drug in an area under the responsibility of the student. Controlled substances are classified under the act into schedules ranging from Schedule I - Schedule VI, as defined in sections 54.1-3446 through 54.1-3456 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended. As required by the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, the pertinent laws, including sanctions for their violation, are summarized below:

• Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedules I or II of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a felony conviction for which the punishment is a term of imprisonment ranging from one to ten years, or in the discretion of the jury or the court trying the case without a jury, confinement in jail for up to twelve months and a fine up to $2500 either or both.

Sanctions: Types of Sanction

Any student found responsible for violating any of the regulations or policies of JMU may be subject to one or more of the following sanctions.
Disciplinary Probation

A period of time where the university reserves the right to impose a more severe sanction if the student is found responsible for violating an additional university policy. Probation shall be for a specified period of time, for a minimum of one semester.

Substance Education

<tr>
<th>By the Numbers</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>This two-hour program examines the reason for the establishment of community standards. An overview of VA laws and university policies is given. This short course was designed for minor alcohol violations.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Calling the Shots

This three-week program guides students towards making future decisions more consistent with their values and in compliance with the law. Harrisonburg and/or JMU police participate in this program to answer students’ questions and address risk-reduction strategies. This program was designed for students who violated alcohol policy.

BASICS

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates BASICS - Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students. The BASICS program is comprised of two 50-minute interview sessions. The first session retrieves information from the student about his/her substance use, using a self-assessment instrument. The second session is a feedback session designed to help the student assess his/her own behavior and potential risks, identify potential changes, and help reduce future problems related to substance abuse.

BASICS II

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates BASICS II - Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students (Level II). BASICS II is appropriate when a student has previously participated in BASICS (Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students) either as an accountability or other mandated referral. Comprised of two 50-minute sessions, BASICS II provides personalized feedback by examining the ongoing consequences of alcohol use and current or previous action plans to reduce alcohol-related risk. BASICS II is not therapy or substance abuse treatment.

High Expectations

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates High Expectations. High Expectations is an early-intervention program designed to help students evaluate the risks associated with marijuana and other drug use. It is an empathetic, confidential, non-judgmental program open to all JMU students. It consists of two, 50-minute interview sessions that use self-assessment of drug use, behavior, and potential risks, and then helps students identify potential changes to reduce future drug-related negative consequences.

Civic Education

Mentor Experience

This program is used for students who have violated university policy and lack a personal understanding of their mission, values, and goals. Through participation in one-on-one meetings with a faculty, staff, or graduate student mentor, students develop a relationship of mutual respect and trust. The Mentor Experience includes attendance at 8, 10, 12, or 15 weekly mentor meetings and submission of a final reflection paper.

Site Experience

This program is used for students who have violated university policy and have a lack of connection with the university community. Through participation in 30 site hours, students make a connection with the university and recognize the impact they have on the community.

Values in Action

This two-week program encourages participants to explore their personal values, act with integrity, and practice ethical decision-making. In addition, students are challenged to set personal goals for increased positive community engagement. This program was designed for students whose actions in a particular incident may not have been in line with their personal values or the values of the institution. A $50 fee will be due upon completion of the program and receipt of invoice.

Conversations about Conflict

A 2-week, 4 hour program (2 hours per week), with a 1-hour follow up meeting. It is meant for students to reflect on how they deal with conflict in their relationships with friends, roommates, family members, professors, university staff, strangers, and even themselves. Through this class, students will be given the opportunity to assess their own conflict style, discuss how their community is impacted by conflict, and develop skills for future engagement in conflict. Upon completion of the class students submit a reflection paper and participate in a follow-up discussion. A $50 fee will be due upon completion of the program and receipt of invoice.
Restitution
Reimbursement by the student to the university or a member of the university community shall cover the cost of damage or loss of community or personal property.

Counseling Center Administrative Request
Students are referred to the Counseling Center for 2 intake appointments with the Associate Director or the designee. This is not sanctioning counseling, but only asking the student to work with Counseling Center for appointments to see if it could be helpful in the future.

Suspension from University Housing
The student loses the privilege of living in or visiting anyone in university housing for a specified length of time. Afterward, the student is allowed to reapply for university housing, provided there is space available. If the student enters a residence hall during their suspension, s/he will be subject to arrest for trespassing and additional charges in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices.

Expulsion from University Housing
The student permanently loses the privilege of living in or visiting anyone in university housing. If the student enters a residence hall during their expulsion, s/he will be subject to arrest for trespassing and additional charges in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices.

Special Assignments/Restrictions
In certain cases, special assignments or restrictions may be imposed as a sanction. These may include, but are not limited to:

- Removal or restriction of a student’s parking privileges.
- Removal or restriction of a student’s privilege of attending athletic events.
- Removal or restriction of a student’s ability to use specific campus facilities or other student privileges.
- Removal or restriction of eligibility for extracurricular activities.
- Requiring a student to have no direct or indirect contact with the victim(s) of the violation(s), including but not limited to verbal or nonverbal contact in person, through electronic means, or through a third party. Failure to comply or noncompliance with this restriction can result in additional violations and immediate suspension.
- No trespassing on the JMU Campus for a defined period of time. Failure to comply with this restriction can result in additional violations and criminal trespassing charges.

University departments may also consider a student’s case history in OSARP for the purpose of university employment or for admissions into certain academic programs, supplemental learning opportunities, or studies abroad.

Suspension
The student is dismissed from JMU for a specified length of time, after which he or she is allowed to return to the university. A suspended student may not visit the campus without the permission of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. If the student does come to the campus during their suspension, s/he will be subject to arrest for trespassing and additional charges in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. See also Leaving and Returning to the University and Interim Suspension.

Expulsion
The student loses the privilege of attending JMU as a student and is permanently separated from the university. A student who is expelled may not visit the campus without the permission of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. If the student does come to the campus, s/he will be subject to arrest for trespassing.

Fines
Fines shall be no less than $15 and no greater than $100, depending on the severity of the violation. All payments are to be made to the University Business Office in Warren Hall upon receipt of invoice.

Sanctions: Ranges of Sanctions

Taking into consideration the totality of the circumstances surrounding the case and all evidence provided at the time of the hearing, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, the Accountability Board or the University Case Administrator may assign any sanction listed in the Types of Sanctions listed above.
Sanctions: Jurisdiction

Adjudicative jurisdiction for all cases shall be assigned by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. Campus jurisdiction will include all violations occurring on campus, on university leased or controlled properties, or on study abroad programs. Off campus jurisdiction will include Rockingham County or the City of Harrisonburg for alcohol and drug violations or felonies, and student behavior that is against the mission of the institution in any location. Further, if the Accountability Process for a charge in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices that stems from a concurrent criminal case concludes prior to the resolution of the criminal process, the case in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices will not be revisited at the conclusion of the criminal process.

JMU Alcohol and Drug Strategies for Students

THREE STRIKES

Students will receive a strike if found responsible for an incident involving alcohol and/or drugs. Students may be suspended for a minimum of one semester upon their receipt of a third strike; strikes are cumulative over a student’s career at JMU. However, students may be suspended prior to a third strike for violations which pose health or safety concerns to the student or the community. Examples of health and safety concerns include but are not limited to; distribution of drugs, supplying alcohol to minors, hospitalizations due to alcohol or drug use, DUI, and keg registration violations.

PARENTAL NOTIFICATION

Parents will be notified of alcohol or drug incidents their student is involved in while under the age of 21. Notification will occur at the conclusion of the Accountability Process for on-campus cases and upon arrest or citation for off-campus cases.

OFF-CAMPUS ADJUDICATION

Alcohol violations, drug violations, felonies, and other student behavior that occurs off campus within the City of Harrisonburg or Rockingham County may be addressed by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. Student behavior that is against the educational atmosphere or mission of the institution, including felonies or sexual misconduct, may be addressed by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices regardless of the location in which it occurred.

ENLIGHTENED CITIZEN AMNESTY POLICY

Students who voluntarily report they are in need of medical attention, have medical attention requested for them by a bystander, or bystanders who voluntarily report that someone else is in need of medical attention due to the consumption of alcohol or drugs may apply to the Office Student Accountability and Restorative Practices for amnesty from receiving a strike.

A biennial review by the institution of the institution’s program to:

- determine the program’s effectiveness and implement changes to the program if the changes are needed; and
- ensure that the required sanctions mentioned above are consistently enforced.

This policy is applicable to all employees of the university, whether classified or non-classified, full-time or part-time salaried or hourly, and includes all instructional and administrative & professional faculty.

Regarding university discipline, any employee who commits any prohibited act under this policy shall be subject to the full range of disciplinary actions, up to and including discharge, and may be required to participate satisfactorily in an appropriate rehabilitation program. University employees with problems related to the use of alcohol or other drugs are encouraged to seek counseling or other treatment assistance.

Crime Prevention and Personal Safety Programs

A sanctioned alcohol/drug program, IMPACT, is designed on a three-tiered system. Each program becomes progressively more intense as the severity of the substance use violations increase. Students' individual needs regarding alcohol or drug intervention are determined prior to placement.

By the Numbers

This two-hour program examines the reason for the establishment of community standards. An overview of VA laws and university policies is given. Students discuss personal values, community resources, and risk-reduction strategies for avoiding negative consequences of alcohol use. This short course was designed for minor alcohol violations.
Calling the Shots*

This three-week program guides students towards making future decisions more consistent with their values and in compliance with the law. Harrisonburg and/or JMU police participate in this program to answer students’ questions and address risk-reduction strategies. This program was designed for students who violated alcohol policy.

BASICS*

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates BASICS - Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students. The BASICS program is comprised of two 50-minute interview sessions. The first session retrieves information from the student about his/her substance use, using a self-assessment instrument. The second session is a feedback session designed to help the student assess his/her own behavior and potential risks, identify potential changes, and help reduce future problems related to substance abuse.

BASICS II*

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates BASICS II - Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students (Level II). BASICS II is appropriate when a student has previously participated in BASICS (Brief Alcohol Screening and Intervention for College Students) either as a judicial or other mandated referral. Comprised of two 50-minute sessions, BASICS II provides personalized feedback by examining the ongoing consequences of alcohol use and current or previous action plans to reduce alcohol-related risk. BASICS II is not therapy or substance abuse treatment.

High Expectations*

The University Health Center’s Substance Abuse Prevention Office coordinates High Expectations. The program is comprised of two 50-minute interviews. The first meeting retrieves information from the student about his/her marijuana or other drug use, using a self-assessment instrument. The second meeting is a feedback session designed to help the student assess his/her own behavior and potential risks, identify potential changes, and help reduce future problems related to marijuana or other drug use.

JMU constantly strives to enhance the safety of the JMU community through safety and security initiatives and services. Each fall, in cooperation with Public Safety’s Crime Prevention/Special Events Coordinator, the Crime Analyst/Emergency Management Specialist and the Office of Residence life, a safety and security campaign is conducted distributing safety literature to resident students. All residents are required to attend hall meetings on personal safety. Resident advisers in each hall are required to offer a number of programs throughout the year to students in their areas on varying topics of personal safety. At least one lock check per semester is conducted late at night in each residence hall to ensure that student room doors are properly secured. In addition to programming throughout the year, the University annually sponsors Alcohol Awareness Week and Drug Awareness Week, two weeks devoted specifically to alcohol and substance abuse prevention.

James Madison University Lightening Prediction System - When the system detects atmospheric conditions that have a high probability of producing an electrical storm (lightning) close to campus the system will activate a series of horns and strobe lights.

Door Prop Alarms – Alarms on residence hall doors that activate when the door has remained open too long.

LiveSafe – An App which allows information sharing to police via text messaging.

Bicycle Registration – Members of the university community can register their bicycle with JMU Parking Services or the JMU Police Department and receive a registration decal to affix to the bicycle to help deter theft and aid in the recovery.

Traffic Calming Devices – Lighted crosswalks, speed humps, and the campus gate system provided to provide safer transportation on campus.

Police Substations – Police substations in academic buildings and residence halls to provide for additional police presence throughout campus.

Training/Programs for Students and Faculty – Crime prevention and personal safety classes provided by the JMU Police Department to include the RAD program for self-defense along with general safety instructional programs including a video on bike and pedestrian safety.

Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act and Sex Offender Registry and Access

Incarceration may remove a sex offender from the streets but it does nothing to prevent the offender from committing another crime when released.

The Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act (CSCPA) (section 1601 of Public Law 106-386) is a law that provides for the tracking of convicted, registered sex offenders enrolled as students at institutions of higher education, or working or volunteering on campus. The law requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement agency information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice, to the appropriate state agency, as required under State law, of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.

The CSCPA amended the Jacob Wetterling Crimes against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act, the Jeanne Clery Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The CSCPA covers not only individuals actually employed by an institution, but also those who are employed at an institution such as third party contractors (food service, custodial, etc.) through outsourcing.

This act provides special requirements relating to registration and community notification for sex offenders who are enrolled in or work at institutions of higher education. CSCPA also amended the Clery Act, an annual crime reporting law, and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 to allow the disclosure of this information regarding students. As provided in the Wetterling Act, any person required to register under a state sex offender registration program must notify the state regarding each institution of higher education in the State at which the person is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student and must also alert the state of any change in enrollment or employment status.
In the Commonwealth of Virginia convicted sex offenders must register with the Sex Offender and Crimes against Minors Registry. The purpose of the Sex Offender and Crimes against Minors Registry shall be to assist the efforts of law-enforcement agencies and others to protect their communities and families from repeat sex offenders and to protect children from becoming victims of criminal offenders by helping to prevent such individuals from being allowed to work directly with children.

The JMU Office of Residence Life Housing Contract provides for the cancellation of the housing contract of a sex offender, or any other convicted person, who is disruptive to the educational environment of the residence hall.

Bystander Intervention

The JMU Police along with the JMU community is committed to ending sexual violence in our community by encouraging its community members to be a courageous bystander with safe and positive options for bystander interventions to prevent harm or intervene.

Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. Bystander intervention recommendations include:

- Notice the event and interpret it as an emergency.
  We often choose to ignore the situation, look away, or call it something else. It is important to remember that no one has a right to be violent, even if two people are dating.

- Take Responsibility for acting.

- Decide How to Act.
  In a situation potentially involving sexual assault, relationship violence, or stalking approach everyone as a friend, do not be antagonistic and avoid using violence. Be honest and direct whenever possible. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, call 6911 on campus or 911 off campus.

- Choose to Act.

Risk Reduction

Risk reductions entails options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

While you can never completely protect yourself from sexual violence, there are some things you can do to help reduce your risk of being assaulted. Avoid dangerous situations by:

- Be aware of your surroundings. Knowing where you are and who is around you may help you to find a way to get out of a bad situation.
- Try to avoid isolated areas. It is more difficult to get help if no one is around.
- Walk with purpose. Even if you don’t know where you are going, act like you do.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation or location feels unsafe or uncomfortable, it probably isn’t the best place to be.
- Try not to load yourself down with packages or bags as this can make you appear more vulnerable.
- Make sure your cell phone is with you and charged and that you have cab money.
- Don’t allow yourself to be isolated with someone you don’t trust or someone you don’t know.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
• When you go to a social gathering, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, check in with each other throughout the evening, and leave together.

• Don’t leave your drink unattended while talking, dancing, using the restroom, or making a phone call. If you’ve left your drink alone, just get a new one.

Date rape drugs are colorless, tasteless, and odorless substances that can be placed in any drink, not just alcohol, undetected. They are strong relaxants the effects of which can be felt as soon as fifteen minutes after ingestion. The side effects of date rape drugs include possible blackouts, coma, impaired judgment, memory impairment, dizziness, headaches, confusion and loss of coordination. Alcohol can intensify these side effects. Date rape drugs often cause memory loss. Some date rape drugs remain in the system for as little as 6-8 hours, making immediate testing imperative.

Common date rape drugs are rohypnal, GHB, ketamine, and alcohol. Alcohol remains the most commonly used date rape drug both on and off college campuses. Today it remains the substance most frequently associated with date rape, and the most easily accessible sedating substance. When large enough quantities are consumed alcohol can have a tremendous sedating effect leaving anyone vulnerable to assault.

If you suspect or suspect someone you know has been drugged and/or assaulted, first, go to a safe place; call the JMU police at 540-568-6911 or the local police if off campus by dialing 911. Go to the University Health Center and/or the local hospital’s emergency room for immediate treatment and testing.

Most importantly, remember that whether you follow these tips or not, if someone sexually assaults you, it is not your fault. You are never to blame for someone else’s actions. No one deserves or wants to be raped.

Programming and Services

Prevention, intervention and education programs addressing sexual violence, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking are regularly sponsored by a variety of organizations at James Madison University. JMU uses comprehensive, intentional and integrated programming, initiatives, strategies and campaigns intended to end dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking that are culturally relevant, inclusive of diverse communities and identities, sustainable, responsive to community needs, and informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome and consider environmental risk and protective factors as they occur on the individual, institutional community and societal levels.

Programs to prevent dating violence, domestic violence sexual assault, and stalking include both primary prevention and awareness programs directed at incoming students and new employees; and ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns directed at students and employees. Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns consist of programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the institution. Primary prevention programs include programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to stop dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy, mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention, and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe direction.

Haven is a program first implemented in 2013 which is an important part of JMU’s comprehensive approach to sexual assault prevention. It is an evidence-based mandatory online program designed to educated first–year students about domestic violence, sexual assault, relationship or dating violence and stalking while empowering them to develop strategies to serve as effective bystanders and make decisions for themselves about healthy relationships. Haven provides key definitions and statistics, reflective and personalized content, bystander skill and confidence-building strategies, and campus–specific policies procedures and resources. It is designed to foster positive attitudes and perceptions about healthy relationships. At JMU, Haven is completed anonymously by first-year students starting in the summer and continued about one month after classes begin. This program includes: A statement that the institution of higher education prohibits the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking; the definition (from VAWA) of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; the definition of “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” “sexual assault,” and “stalking” in the applicable jurisdiction; the definition of consent, in reference to sexual activity, in the applicable jurisdiction; a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention and information on risk reduction.

Mandatory training for new employees is provided in coordination with human resources. New employees are required to enroll in a Canvas course the week following their hire date which consists of a series of videos covering the topics of domestic violence, sexual assault, relationship or dating violence and stalking with an emphasis on developing strategies to serve as effective bystanders and providing risk reduction strategies. This program includes: A statement that the institution of higher education prohibits the crimes of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking; the definition (from VAWA) of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking; the definition of “dating violence,” “domestic violence,” “sexual assault,” and “stalking” in the applicable jurisdiction; the definition of consent, in reference to sexual activity, in the applicable jurisdiction; a description of safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than such individual; and information on risk reduction to recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and how to avoid potential attacks. Employees also receive information on Title IX responsibilities and on-campus and off-campus resources and services available to employees and students.

Awareness programs are community-wide or audience specific programming, initiatives, and strategies that increase audience knowledge and share information and resources to prevent violence, promote safety, and reduce perpetration. Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns means programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the institution. Primary prevention programs are programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to stop dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe direction.

The JMU Health Center, Student Wellness & Outreach, the Counseling Center, and the Women’s Resource Center are among the groups that present programs throughout the year in classes, residence halls and student organizations. Programs on sexual assault occur at least once each semester in all residence halls and the topic is addressed at freshman orientation.

Description

RA Training - The University Health Center holds a one hour training session with all RA’s on recognizing and responding to sexual violence. Participants explore the definition of sexual assault and what constitutes lack of consent, become familiar with on-campus resources and understand their role as a responder to survivors in the residence halls.

Blurred Lines – This presentation was given to academic classes as a guest lecture. The participants discussed sexual violence in all forms and its prevalence among college students. Students also learned the definition of consent, became familiar with rape culture, victim blaming and resources available to survivors.

Dukes Step Up! This peer facilitated, bystander intervention program is attended by all incoming first-year students during 1787 Orientation. The program addresses sexual assault in terms of showing a video in which an evening in played in reverse and shows how individuals stepped up to intervene in a situation that could lead to sexual assault followed by discussion.

OSARP Accountability Board Training – This training is collaboration between the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice and the University Health Center. Board members are trained to hear sexual assault cases using best practices and guidelines from the Association for Student Conduct Administration, the Office for Civil Rights and the Campus SAVE Act.

FSL Staff Training – This training provided the Fraternity and Sorority Life staff with information on sexual violence response and obligations for reporting as a university employee.

Project Unbreakable - The mission of Project Unbreakable is to increase awareness of the issues surrounding sexual assault and encourage the act of healing through art. Sponsored by CARE, they presented their photos in Grafton to around 300 people and then took photos of JMU survivors afterwards.

Sexual Violence on College Campuses – This training was held as a professional development session for the staff of the Financial Aid Office. The objectives of the session were for participants to be able to define sexual assault, identify appropriate responses to survivors of sexual assault, identify resources for survivors of sexual assault, and understand their obligations for reporting sexual violence.

Response for SafeRides - Members of CARE presented to members of SafeRides about sexual violence response in college and procedures for dealing with survivors.
Dukes Step Up 2.0 - This supplemental bystander intervention program seeks to enhance students’ comfort level with intervening when they see behaviors or hear attitudes that can lead to sexual assault or IPV and also targets their perspective-taking skills to increase empathy for others.

Flashpoint on Sexual Violence – This panel discussion was sponsored by the Center for Faculty Innovation and had panel members representing the Office of Judicial Affairs, Title IX, the University Health Center, CARE and Counseling faculty.

Fraternity Exec Member Program - Co-facilitated in small groups by CARE members and Fraternity executive board member to 90 fraternity men. This program focused on the definitions of sexual assault, consent and bystander intervention.

Step Up for Survivors - A walk from campus to Court Square with a symbolic (biodegradable) balloon release. The walk is meant to show support for survivors in our community. After the balloon release we migrated to Larkin Arts, which was hosting a survivor art show featuring photography from our showing of Project Unbreakable. This is the second year CARE has sponsored this program.

Sexversations - Sexversations is a sexual assault outreach program facilitated by CARE (Campus Assault ResponsE) that uses guided and facilitated candid conversations to educate students on sexual assault. This program is framed around 4 learning objectives that address defining “sexual assault”, defining “consent” as it pertains to sexual assault, responding to situations in their own lives that could be leading towards sexual assault occurring, identifying primary campus resources related to sexual assault and beginning conversations about sex, and sexual assault.

Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) Program - The IPV program is coordinated by CARE (Campus Assault ResponsE) and is designed to engage and educate students on what factors constitute relationship abuse and ways to support survivors. This program also discusses healthy relationship and resources on and off campus that JMU students can utilize. Learning objectives for the program include identifying differences between domestic and intimate partner violence, recognizing the Power and Control Wheel, explaining 3 out of the 8 constructs of the Power of Control Wheel, and identifying ways to support survivors and list resources on and off campus.

Red Flag Campaign- JMU has again been selected by the Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance as a partner campus for the Red Flag Campaign, which is an awareness and education campaign designed specifically to address dating violence among students on Virginia’s college and university campuses. The Red Flag Campaign is a dating violence bystander intervention campaign that features a series of posters that focus on various components of dating violence: emotional abuse, coercion, excessive jealousy, isolation, sexual assault, victim-blaming, and stalking. The campaign also includes an interactive website to learn more about dating violence and to direct students to campus resources. The majority of the campaign’s efforts occur in the month of October.

Janine Latus - Author and survivor of intimate partner violence. Sponsored by CARE and the UHC, she spoke in Grafton to students as part of the Red Flag Campaign.

Take Back the Night - Take Back the Night is filled with musical performers, speakers, a speak-out, and a march. Musical performances and dramatic readings set the tone for speakers who bring their own personal insights about various forms of violence. A speak-out follows, which provides a supportive environment for those survivors and secondary survivors that choose to share their experiences. After the speak-out, the participants carry candles and march through campus breaking the silence and making their voices heard. The University Health Center employs a Take Back the Night Student Coordinator who runs this event and leads the Take Back the Night coalition, which is comprised of student volunteers. For over 35 years this national program has focused on eliminating all forms of sexual violence, specifically on college campuses.

The Clothesline Project - The Clothesline Project is a visual display that bears witness to violence against women and men. The Clothesline Project is composed of t-shirts decorated to represent various individual’s experiences with intimate partner violence, sexual assault or sexual victimization. JMU students, faculty, staff, and local community members created all of the t-shirts on display. Anyone interested in creating a shirt can do so during the event. The Clothesline Project is a collaboration between The University Health Center and the Office of Residence Life’s First Year Involvement.

CARE - CARE (Campus Assault ResponsE) is a student organization advised by the University Health Center that provides education and awareness to the JMU campus about sexual assault and intimate partner violence. CARE also coordinates a Helpline (540-568-6411) when JMU is in session where primary and secondary survivors of sexual assault and intimate partner violence can receive information and resources for seeking assistance.

REACH, Let’s Talk About Sex Program - REACH facilitates a sexual health program for fellow students by request (residence halls, other clubs, fraternities/sororities). This program includes a discussion and definition on what is consent.
REACH, Healthy Relationships Program - This discussion-based program encourages students to utilize healthy communication techniques with their partner(s). This program defines the different labels that characterize many relationships, and explores characteristics of both healthy and unhealthy relationships.

The Men’s Program - The Men’s Program is a JMU organization dedicated to challenging and reframing the concept of masculinity. The all-male group presents programs and holds dialogues across campus – focusing on, but not limited to, all-male audiences.

Real Man/Strong Man - The dominant story of masculinity in our culture is one of dominance, power, and control. It is played out in a variety of ways, as evidenced by the previous lesson, “What’s for Sale?” This lesson challenges participants to look beyond the real man façade to uncover the strongest man characteristics that are highly valued in our culture. It is through the cultivation of these characteristics that health masculinity can thrive.

What’s for Sale? Healthy Masculinity – Unhealthy/traditional/restricted stories of masculinity are pervasive in our culture. Identifying where these stories exist is the first step in helping people see how easy it is to internalize their messages without even realizing it. In order to challenge traditional, restricted definitions of masculinity, the first step is investigation of where they exist and what their messages actually convey.

Sexual Trauma Empowerment Program (STEP): The JMU Counseling Center offers free and confidential short and long-term individual, group, and emergency sexual trauma counseling services for JMU students; advocacy services for survivors, including assistance with medical, judicial, and legal referrals; and, finally, consultation services, including consultation around Title IX, for faculty, staff, family members, and friends of survivors of sexual trauma.

Campus Coalition Against Sexual Assault - The coalition is a dedicated group of faculty, staff, and students who hope to stimulate dialogue in our community around issues of sexual violence. By educating our community on preventing and responding to sexual violence we contribute to a campus climate that is inclusive and supportive of all survivors.

Outreach, Advocacy and Referral Services – The assistant director of the University Health Center, Liz Howley, serves as an advocate for student survivors of all types of sexual and intimate partner violence. Ms. Howley provides students with medical, judicial, and legal referrals. This includes but is not limited to accompanying a student to court, the magistrate’s office or the hospital, serving as an advisor through the judicial process on campus, speaking to parents and friends on the survivor’s behalf, and meeting as often as the survivor requests.

Title IX Administrator: The University has designated James Robinson as the Title IX coordinator for receiving and investigating formal complaints and determining the applicability of policy on the processing of complaints. The formal complaints will be of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, sexual violence or other sexual misconduct, against University students.

Crimes of Violence: Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking

James Madison University prohibits domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. Individuals who report they have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, whether it occurred on or off-campus, will be provided support, offered resources along with a written explanation of his or her rights and options and the procedures for addressing the violation. Assistance will be provided by the university when the victim of such crime elects or is unable to make a report. Complainants Rights Information

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”), 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1681, et seq., prohibits discrimination based on sex (including sexual harassment and sexual violence) at any federally funded education program or activity. The university must respond to complaints concerning Title IX. Due to this mandate, please note that your confidentiality cannot be guaranteed but efforts will be made to provide confidentiality of victims to the extent permissible by law. Furthermore, no officer, employee, or agent of an institution shall retaliate, i

You Have Choices

James Madison University takes the issue of sexual violence seriously and sexual violence includes a broad spectrum of behavior. The JMU Police Department recognizes the fact that sex offenses are personal violent crimes that have great psychological and physical effects on the victims. It is the policy of the JMU Police Department to assist sexual assault victims in a supportive manner, using appropriate crisis intervention skills while providing resources for the victim. Due to the seriousness of these offenses and the delicate nature of the investigations involved, it is important for the department to undertake diligent investigations in order to increase the reporting of these crimes. Reducing recidivism and serial criminal offenses through the apprehension and prosecution of the assailants is a department priority. Although the university strongly encourages all members of its community to report sexual violence to law enforcement, you also have the option not to make a report with law enforcement.

Although an immediate criminal justice police response is an option which is best, a victim can also choose to meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) to explain possible remedies and resources. The university must respond to complaints concerning Title IX. Another choice is for a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to help explore options.

Victims can go the JMU Counseling Center, speak with a victim advocate or go to the health center (if a student) or to Sentara RMHER for treatment. Resources available to victims include counseling, the criminal process, possible civil suits, the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process, and the Title IX Process. The Title IX process can provide assistance and options to change academic, living, transportation, and working situations after an alleged incident, if such changes are reasonably available (including no-contact orders).

Along with legal prosecution, University accountability action is an option that can be pursued in lieu of/or concurrent with legal prosecution. Accountability proceedings will provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence as well as dating violence and stalking and how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. A proceeding includes all activities related to a non-criminal resolution of an institution disciplinary complaint, including, but not limited to, fact finding investigations formal or informal meetings, and hearings. A proceeding does not include communications and meetings between officials and victims concerning accommodations or protective measures to be provided to a victim. A prompt, fair and impartial proceeding that is completed with reasonably prompt timeframes designated by an institutions policy, including a process that allows for the extension of time frames for good cause and with written notice to the accuser and the accused of the delay and the reason for the delay, that is conducted in a manner that is consistent with the institutions policies and transparent to the accuser and accused; includes timely notice of meetings at which the accuser or accused, or both, may be present; and provides timely and equal access to the accuser, the accused, and appropriate officials to any information that will be used during informal and formal disciplinary meetings and hearing; and is conducted by officials who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the accuser or the accused. Compliance with these provisions does not constitute a violation of section 444 of the General Education Provisions Act (20 U.S.C. 1232g), commonly known as the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). To begin a university accountability action, a student, faculty member or staff member who feels he or she has been a victim of sexual assault can meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) and/or a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to speak with a staff member to explore options. Both the victim and the accused are afforded rights. The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or preceding by an advisor of their choice. An advisor is any individual who provides the accuser or accused support, guidance or advice. Both the accuser and the accused shall be simultaneously informed, in writing of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation; the institution’s procedures for the accused and the victim to appeal the results of the institutional proceeding; of any change to the results that occurs prior to the time that such results become final; and when such results become final. A result is any initial, interim, and final decision by any official or entity authorized to resolve disciplinary matters within the institution. The result must include any sanctions imposed by the institution. The accused has the right to a presumption of not being responsible for a violation until proven responsible as determined by a preponderance of the evidence present at the hearing. The right to appeal to a higher accountability body or university administrative official can be made within 3 days of receiving the accountability decision from JMU. Student victims will be provided assistance and have the option to change their academic, living, transportation, and working situations after an alleged incident, if such changes are reasonably available. Accountability response to referral(s) related to act(s) of sexual violence can result in a charge of “Sexual Misconduct” against the accused; (J34-100 Student Handbook Sexual Misconduct).

The institution will, upon written request, disclose to the victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for these purposes

Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process

Sexual Misconduct J34-100

James Madison University takes the issue of sexual misconduct seriously and sexual misconduct includes a broad spectrum of behavior. Students who want to report they are a victim of sexual misconduct, or are unsure, can meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) or a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to explore their options. These options include counseling, the criminal process, the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process, and the Title IX Process (including no-contact orders).
Stalking

Incapacitation means the physical and/or mental inability to make informed, rational judgments. States of incapacitation include, without limitation, sleep and blackouts. Where alcohol and/or drugs are involved, one does not indicate that a person consents to sexual activity. Consent cannot be gained by force, intimidation, or by advantage of the victim’s incapacitation or physical helplessness where the accused student knows or reasonably should have known of such incapacitation. Consent can be withdrawn at any time.

Incapacitation means the physical and/or mental inability to make informed, rational judgments. States of incapacitation include, without limitation, sleep and blackouts. Where alcohol and/or drugs are involved, one does not have to be intoxicated or drunk to be considered incapacitated; incapacity is determined by how the alcohol and/or drugs consumed impacts a person’s decision-making capability.

Stalking defined as conduct occurring on more than one occasion that places another person in reasonable fear of bodily injury, sexual assault, or death, or that causes such fear concerning the other person’s family or household members.

Determining a Charge

James Madison University takes the issue of sexual misconduct seriously and sexual misconduct includes a broad spectrum of behavior. Alleged behavior by a student that falls under the behavior outlined by J34-100 Sexual Misconduct will follow the process described below. A student, faculty member or staff member who feels he or she has been a victim of sexual misconduct by a student, or who is unsure, can meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) and/or a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to explore options. These options include counseling through the Counseling Center for students, counseling through the Employee Assistance Program for employees, the criminal process, the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process, and the Title IX Process (including no-contact orders), as well as appropriate interim measures such as changes in housing, changes in sections of classes, changes in work assignments, changes in scheduled meetings, and other methods of separation from the accused. This Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process is separate and distinct from the Accountability Process, which is used to address all other reports of policy violations by students.

Reporting Parties who report sexual misconduct will not be charged with violations of J38-101 Alcohol or J38-102 Drugs, even if these substances were involved.

Both Reporting Parties and Accused Students will be assigned an advisor by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to guide them through the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process and help them understand the rights afforded to them. Additionally, appropriate interim measures may be arranged with the advisor’s assistance. Employees making accusations against a student may also seek assistance from Human Resources or the Faculty Ombudsperson.

Any JMU student, faculty, or staff member believing that a student has violated J34-100 Sexual Misconduct may bring a charge by giving relevant details of the alleged violation to the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. The accusation need not be by the individual who is alleged the victim of the sexual misconduct. If the accusation is brought by someone other than the alleged victim, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices will attempt to gather additional information from the individual who is alleged the victim of the sexual misconduct, and who will from that point be considered the Reporting Party. If the alleged victim does not wish to proceed with a charge, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices will generally abide by that choice, unless the relevant details indicate a sufficient reason to disregard the wishes of the alleged victim. Examples of a sufficient reason are, but are not limited to, the use of a weapon, violence, multiple charges against the same Accused Student, or a danger to the university community.

Upon receiving relevant details of the alleged violation, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices will determine whether there are grounds for a charge and the initiation of the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process.

If the information produced provides sufficient cause to believe that a violation may have taken place:

- The Accused Student will be notified of the charges. Proper notification of a charge shall consist of an electronic message (email) and/or written notice mailed to the student’s last address on file with the university or placed in the Accused Student’s assigned mailbox. The notice will be considered received one day following the date the notice is sent via email. The charge will set out the relevant policy for the alleged violation, but will not list the specifics of the alleged incident. However, the Accused Student is entitled to access to all of the evidence and information in the possession of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices before delivering a response to the charge.

- When the Accused Student is informed of the charges, he or she may also be instructed to have “no direct or indirect contact” with the Reporting Party. This includes, but is not limited to, verbal or non-verbal contact in person, through electronic means, or through a third party. A violation of this instruction will result in a charge of J21-100 Non-compliance with an Official Request.

- The Reporting Party may also be instructed to have “no direct or indirect contact” with the Accused Student. This includes, but is not limited to, verbal or non-verbal contact in person, through electronic means, or through a third party. A violation of this instruction will result in a charge of J21-100 Non-compliance with an Official Request for an Accusing Student, or a charge of misconduct for a Faculty or Staff member.

- A Sexual Misconduct Case Review will be scheduled at a time where the Accused Student, Reporting Party, all witnesses, and support persons are able to attend. The parties will be informed of the time and location via email. Neither the Accused Student nor the Reporting Party is required to attend the review. The Reporting Party may request the ability to participate in the review by phone, video conferencing, or another method that does not require the Reporting Party and Accused Student to be in the same room.

The university may proceed with charges and the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process regardless of enrollment status of the Accused Student. If a student discontinues enrollment, regardless of reason, charges and/or sanctions remain pending and will still be active upon a request to reenroll. Since policy violations occurring through the end of a student’s graduation day may result in charges being brought, in cases involving graduating students, the student’s diploma and/or official transcripts may be withheld pending the conclusion of the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process and/or the completion of any outstanding sanctions. In addition, for these cases, if the sanction is immediate suspension or expulsion, it will be deemed effective for the most recent semester the student attended.

For cases alleging sexual misconduct where the case review occurs during the last three weeks of the semester, the decision to proceed or postpone the process will be determined by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices.

Sexual Misconduct Case Review

The rights of an Accused Student and Reporting Party participating in a Sexual Misconduct Case Review are delineated in the Accused Student Rights (Sexual Misconduct) and the Reporting Party Rights (Sexual Misconduct). Allegations of violations of J34-100 Sexual Misconduct will be reviewed in a Sexual Misconduct Case Review by a board of Case Administrators, consisting of one staff member from the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices who will serve as a voting Board Chair and two faculty or staff members of the Accountability Board in accordance with the following procedures:

- Procedures, including that the case review will be audio and/or video recorded, will be explained
- Participants state any questions they have concerning rights or procedures
- The statement of the charges is presented.
- Information is presented about the alleged incident by the Reporting Party, his or her witnesses, and the witnesses for the University; each witness presenting for the University and for the Reporting Party is called individually. The Board may question the Reporting Party, witnesses for the University or the witnesses for the Reporting Party as they are called and may request witnesses to return for further clarification. The Accused...
Student may also question the evidence presented by the Reporting Party, witnesses for the university and witnesses for the Reporting Party. However, the Accused Student and Reporting Party may not directly question each other.

- Witnesses may not also serve as a support person or attorney for the Reporting Party.
- The Reporting Party’s parents may serve as witnesses for the student at the Reporting Party’s discretion.

- Information is presented by the Accused Student and his or her witnesses; each witness for the Accused Student is called individually. The Board may question the Accused Student or witnesses for the Accused Student as they are called and may request witnesses to return for further clarification. The Reporting Party may also question the evidence presented by the Accused Student or witnesses. However, the Accused Student and the Reporting Party may not directly question each other.
- Witnesses may not also serve as a support person or attorney for the Accused Student.
- The Accused Student’s Parents may serve as witnesses for the student at the discretion of the Accused Student.

- The Board may limit the amount of information any witness or participant in the Case Review provides if it appears to be repetitious or does not contribute positively to the fair and efficient review of the case currently being considered.
- The Accused Student may present concluding remarks.
- The Reporting Party may present concluding remarks, including a “Victim Impact Statement.”
- The Board may ask final questions of the Accused Student and/or the Reporting Party.
- All persons are excused from the hearing room while the Board determines responsibility and, if applicable, sanctions.
- The Board will consider only the information introduced in the Sexual Misconduct Case Review and case file. The decision of responsibility is based on the preponderance of the evidence and be determined by a majority vote.
- The decisions regarding responsibility and, if applicable, sanctions are then given concurrently to the Accused Student and the Reporting Party.
- The Accused Student and Accusing Student or Employee is then informed of the right of appeal and the appropriate procedure for initiating an appeal.
- In cases where an accused student is found responsible for physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or against a person incapable of giving consent and is suspended or expelled, or where an accused student withdraws prior to a decision being made in such a case, a notation will be placed on the accused student’s transcript for the duration of the suspension or expulsion or until a decision in the case is made for a withdrawal. Students must contact the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to have their transcript notation removed in cases of suspension; notations in cases of expulsion are permanent. Such notations will read (as applicable):
  - Expelled for violation of Student Standards of Conduct
  - Suspended for violation of student Standards of Conduct
  - Withdrew while under investigation for violation of Student Standards of Conduct

Accused Students and Reporting Parties may request one postponement of the Sexual Misconduct Case Review due to an academic conflict, work conflict, family emergency, or illness by contacting the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. If a party fails to appear at a Sexual Misconduct Case Review after being properly notified of its date and time, the case will be heard on the basis of the information accumulated in the case file and as a result of the information provided by witnesses present. In such situations, the parties will be notified of the decision via email.

A student who provides false information at a Sexual Misconduct Case Review may be charged additionally with a violation of J18-100 Interference with the Accountability, Honor Council, or Title IX Process. An employee may be charged with misconduct under the relevant policies of the university.

A student who discusses the case before the Sexual Misconduct Case Review with any of the witnesses for the other party may be charged additionally with a violation of J18-100 Interference with the Accountability, Honor Council, or Title IX Process. An employee may be charged with misconduct under the relevant policies of the university.

An employee may be charged with misconduct under the relevant policies of the university.

Sexual Misconduct Case Reviews are closed meetings and all information and decisions shall be kept confidential by all parties until the case is fully resolved, including all appeals. Upon conclusion, the University will continue to maintain confidentiality as required by law. The Accused Student and Reporting Party shall receive notice of all rights they are guaranteed through the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process. In Sexual Misconduct Case Reviews, the technical rules of evidence applicable in civil and criminal cases do not apply.

Appealing a Sexual Misconduct Case Review

Accused Students and Reporting Parties have the right to submit a written appeal of a decision made at a Sexual Misconduct Case Review within three business days of receiving notice of the decision. Accused students may appeal the decision based on a violation of due process rights, if new information becomes available, or due to the harshness of the sanction. Reporting Parties may appeal the decision based on a violation of due process rights, if new information becomes available, or due to the leniency of the sanction. The rights of an Accused Student and Reporting Party participating in an appeal of a decision made at a Sexual Misconduct Case Review are delineated in the Reporting Party Rights (Sexual Misconduct). Accused Student Rights (Sexual Misconduct) and the Reporting Party Rights (Sexual Misconduct).

- Appeals will review the case file based on the points raised in the written appeal submission and a review of the audio recording of the Sexual Misconduct Case Review. If the appeal(s) is submitted by the Accused Student or the Reporting Party, the other party will be notified upon submission and given the opportunity to submit a written response to the appeal within the same amount of days from receiving notification that an appeal has been submitted that the other party had to write the appeal. If appeals are submitted by both parties, they will both be given the opportunity to submit a written response to the other party’s appeal within three business days from receiving notification that an appeal has been submitted. For the purposes of appealing a decision in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices:
  - Allegations of due process violations describe specific rights and procedures delineated in the student handbook were not afforded to a party or, if these rights or procedures were altered, describe how the party was harmed by those changes.
  - New information is any new information that may affect the decision of responsibility or sanctioning in the case.
  - Harshness or leniency of the sanction is providing perspective of why the student feels the sanction is not appropriate in the case.

- Students will not typically present in person at the appeal review. However, in the rare or extenuating circumstances it is determined by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices that the student should address the appeal board in person, the appeal review will be arranged around both the Accused Student’s and the Reporting Party’s schedules and their participation will be recorded. In these rare circumstances, the other party will also be given the opportunity to present in person a response to the appeal board and submit a written response.

- In cases where both the Reporting Party and Accused Student appeal the decision, there will be one appeal review to evaluate both appeals and the recording of the Sexual Misconduct Case Review, and to make one final decision in the case.

- For appeal reviews in cases alleging Sexual Misconduct, the appeal board will be composed of three faculty and/or staff members of the Accountability Board. One of the faculty or staff members, in addition to being a voting member, will also serve as the Board Chair. The decision of the appeal review will be determined by a majority vote.

- If only the Accused Student appeals the decision made at the Sexual Misconduct Case Review, the student may not be given more severe sanctions as the result of his or her decision to appeal. If only the Reporting Party appeals the decision made at the Sexual Misconduct Case Review, the Accused Student may be found responsible or given more severe sanctions as a result of the Appeal Review.

  • If the appeal is only based on the harshness or leniency of the sanction, the appeal board will only vote to affirm or change the original sanctions.
  • If the appeal has included new information or contention of errors in due process, the appeal board will vote first on responsibility and then on sanctioning.

- If both the Accused Student and the Reporting Party appeal the decision made at the Sexual Misconduct Case Review, the Accused Student may be found responsible or given more severe sanctions as a result of the Appeal Review.

- In all cases of Sexual Misconduct resulting in an appeal level decision, there shall be a final review by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs and University Planning or designee. For all cases in which the appeal level decision for a Sexual Misconduct case results in expulsion, a final review of the case will be done by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs and University Planning in consultation with the President. The reviewer(s) will take one of the following actions:
• Affirm the "responsible" finding and sanction.
• Affirm the "responsible" finding and either reduce or increase the sanction.
• Find the student "not responsible" and dismiss the charges.
• Determine the case should be reheard at the case review level or at the appeal level.

After the Review by the Senior Vice President for Student Affairs and University Planning or designee, the Reporting Party and Accused student will be notified of the final decision in their case by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices.

In cases where an accused student is found responsible for physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or against a person incapable of giving consent and is suspended or expelled, or where an accused student withdraws prior to a decision being made in such a case, a notation will be placed on the accused student’s transcript for the duration of the suspension or expulsion or until a decision in the case is made for a withdrawal. Students must contact the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to have their transcript notation removed in cases of suspension; notations in cases of expulsion are permanent. Such notations will read (as applicable):

• Expelled for violation of Student Standards of Conduct
• Suspended for violation of Student Standards of Conduct
• Withdrew while under investigation for violation of Student Standards of Conduct

Interim Suspension

If the Director of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices or a designee determines that a student presents a risk to the orderly operation of the university or to the safety and welfare of members of the university community, the Director or designee may initiate an interim suspension of the student.

• During the interim suspension the student is barred from the university campus; the student may not attend classes or come on the JMU campus without permission from Director of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices or designee. If the student does come to the campus without permission, they will be subject to arrest for trespassing and additional charges in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices.
• The suspended student may, within two business days of the suspension, appeal the decision of interim suspension. The appeal review will determine if the interim suspension should continue until the Accountability Board Case Review or Sexual Misconduct Case Review (if at least one of the charges is Sexual Misconduct) for the case is finalized.
• The appeal for interim suspension cases will be reviewed by a University Case Administrator.
• An Accountability Board Case Review will take place within ten business days of the date of the interim suspension appeal review (if it was requested by the student) to determine a decision for the case. If the student does not request an interim suspension appeal review, the Accountability Board Case Review will take place within ten business days of the interim suspension to determine a decision for the case. (See Accountability Board for more on this process.)
• If an interim suspension is enacted due to allegations of sexual misconduct, a Sexual Misconduct Case Review will take place within ten business days of the date of the interim suspension appeal review (if it was requested by the student) to determine a decision for the case. If the student does not request an interim suspension appeal review, the Sexual Misconduct Case Review will take place within ten business days of the interim suspension to determine a decision for the case. (See Sexual Misconduct Case Review for more on this process.)
• After the Accountability Board Case Review or Sexual Misconduct Case review occurs, then an accused student has the right to appeal the Board’s decision. For Sexual Misconduct Case Reviews, the appeal will follow the procedures set out by the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process. (See Appealing a Decision for more on this process.)

Circumstances that surround interim suspension often involve concurrent criminal charges. The Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices may implement the interim suspension process prior to the conclusion of the court process in these extenuating circumstances. In addition, these decisions will not be revisited at the conclusion of the criminal process.

In cases where a student has extenuating circumstances that prevent attendance at an Accountability Board Case Review or Sexual Misconduct Case Review, including but not limited to incarceration, the decision to continue with or delay the hearing will be made by the Director of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices or a designee.
When an interim suspension occurs during the last three weeks of any semester or during the summer sessions, the Accountability Board Case Review will be heard by a University Case Administrator (for all charges except Sexual Misconduct). If a student chooses to appeal the University Case Administrator’s decision, the appeal will be done by an Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and University Planning or designee. For interim suspension involving a charge of Sexual Misconduct, the process for Sexual Misconduct Case Review and Appeal listed above will be followed.

If a student who is under an interim suspension for a charge alleging physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or against a person incapable of giving consent withdraws from the university pending a final decision in the case, a notation will be placed on the student’s transcript to reflect the student’s interim suspension and pending case. In these circumstances, the notation will remain until a final decision in the case is made. The notation will read: “Withdrawn while under investigation for violation of Student Standards of Conduct.”

The final decision to suspend or expel is the responsibility of the president of the university or his/her designated appointee.

Expulsion
The student loses the privilege of attending JMU as a student and is permanently separated from the university. A student who is expelled may not visit the campus without the permission of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. Fines
Fines shall be no less than $15 and no greater than $100, depending on the severity of the infraction. All payments are to be made to the University Business Office upon receipt of invoice.
Guidelines for Assignment of Sanctions

To maintain fairness and uniformity in the assignment of sanctions for policy violations, charges have been classified as either major, minor, or flexible. Depending on the severity of the incident, a flexible violation can be classified as major or minor. Typically, major violations will carry more severe sanctions than minor violations. A student’s violation will be classified as either major or minor by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. To balance consistency and fairness in sanctioning, guidelines have been developed as a starting point for Case Administrators and Board Members to consider when determining sanctioning for a student found responsible for a first time violation. However, the totality of the evidence, the severity of the incident, previous case history, and the perspectives of the students involved may result in the severity of the sanction being higher or lower than the guidelines listed below. Case Administrators or board members have the ability to increase or decrease the severity of the sanction when making a decision in a case.

- Sanctions resulting from first time minor policy violations typically include disciplinary probation and educational programs
- Sanctions resulting from first time major policy violations can include probation, educational programs, fines, special assignments, special restrictions, suspension or expulsion from housing, and suspension or expulsion from the university.
- Sanctions resulting from first time flexible policy violations when classified as minor typically include disciplinary probation and educational programs.
- Sanctions resulting from first time flexible policy violations when classified as major can include probation, educational programs, fines, special assignments, special restrictions, suspension or expulsion from housing, and suspension or expulsion from the university.
- When applicable, disciplinary decisions made by the university honor council and a case administrator or accountability board will occur concurrently.

Further, the Governor of Virginia signed Senate Bill 1193 into law which became effective on July 1, 2015. This law requires that institutions of higher education in the state of Virginia place a notation on transcripts of students in cases where an accused student is found responsible for physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or against a person incapable of giving consent and suspended or expelled, or where an accused student withdraws prior to a decision being made in a case alleging sexual misconduct. Students must contact the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to have their transcript notation removed in cases of suspension; notations in cases of expulsion are permanent. Notations made when a student withdraws prior to a decision being made in a case will remain until a decision in the case is made.

Such notations will read:

- Expelled for violation of Student Standards of Conduct
- Suspended for violation of Student Standards of Conduct
- Withdrew while under investigation for violation of Student Standards of Conduct

Students found responsible for physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or against a person incapable of giving consent who were suspended or expelled prior to July 1, 2015 will not have this notation added to their transcript.

Jurisdiction

Adjudicative jurisdiction for all cases shall be assigned by the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices. Jurisdiction includes all violations occurring on campus or on university leased or controlled properties, in study abroad programs, in Rockingham County or the City of Harrisonburg for alcohol and drug violations or felonies, and student behavior in any location that might be detrimental to the mission of the university, including felonies or sexual misconduct. Further, if the Accountability Process for a charge in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices that stems from a concurrent criminal case concludes prior to the resolution of the criminal process, the case in the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices will not be revisited at the conclusion of the criminal process.
Sexual Assault

Sexual assault includes offenses that meet the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program. Per the National Incident-Based Reporting System User Manual from the FBI UCR Program, a sex offense is any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.

- Rape – the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim;
- Fondling - the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental incapacity;
- Incest - Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law;
- Statutory rape - Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.

Virginia defines sexual assault as offenses involving sexual penetration or sexual contact with any person by force or threat of force, fear, intimidation, ruse, or through the use of a person’s mental incapacity or physical helplessness, or any other attempt to force sexual penetration/contact on any person. Sexual Assault offenses meet the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape. The Code of Virginia under Article 7 Criminal Sexual Assault provides additional information regarding Virginia law listed below.

Due to the seriousness of these offenses and the delicate nature of the investigations involved, it is important for the department to undertake diligent investigations in order to increase the reporting of these crimes. Reducing recidivism and serial criminal offenses through the apprehension and prosecution of the assailants is a department priority. The thorough, complete and accurate collection of evidence is a vital and often key requirement for the successful investigation and prosecution of sexual assaults.

Consent is not defined by the Commonwealth of Virginia in state criminal law. To constitute lack of consent, acts must be committed by force, intimidation or through use of the victim’s mental incapacity or physical helplessness. Intoxication may indicate an inability to give consent.

If a sex offense should occur, the victim has the option of take the following actions:

- The victim is urged to go to a safe place and contact a friend or family member for support.
- After an incident of sexual assault, the victim should begin considering seeking medical attention as soon as possible. Sentara RMH Hospital will be able to examine and treat you after an assault, whether or not you choose to report the assault to police. You can go to the emergency room at the hospital, tell them you were sexually assaulted. JMU students may also seek medical attention at the JMU Health Center.

- As with any crime, it is important to preserve evidence. The victim is encouraged to preserve evidence. Do not destroy physical evidence that may be found. If the offense occurred within the past 72 hours, evidence of criminal activity may be preserved. Evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement. The evidence collected can be held until a decision is made about pursuing legal action.
- Do not destroy the physical evidence that may be found in the vicinity of the crime. If the crime occurred in the victim’s home, the victim should not clean or straighten until the police have had an opportunity to collect evidence if contacted. Preservation of evidence that may assist in proving that the alleged criminal offense occurred or may be helpful in obtaining a protection order.
- Do not shower, bathe, or douche. Do not urinate, if possible. Do not eat, drink liquids, smoke or brush teeth if oral contact took place.
- Keep the clothes worn during the offense. If clothes are changed, place clothes in a paper bag (evidence deteriorates in plastic).
- If possible, tell someone all the details remembered about the assault and write everything down you remember as soon as possible.
- Although the university strongly encourages all members of its community to report sexual assault to law enforcement, you also have the option not to make a report with law enforcement. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease and provide for support.
- If a report is made to law enforcement, call the police department in the jurisdiction where the crime occurred. Call the JMU police if the incident occurred on campus at 540-568-6911; if the incident happened in the City of Harrisonburg call the Emergency 911, or Business 540-434-4436 for assistance.
- The responding officer’s primary responsibility will be the victim’s physical well-being and emergency medical needs to include arranging for transportation to the hospital.
- An investigation will follow to include the obtaining preliminary statements, preserving the crime scene, and collection of evidence. An investigator trained in sexual assault will respond and continue the investigation. If the assault occurred within 72 hours, at the hospital, the victim will be encouraged to allow an examination by a sexual assault nurse examiner to obtain evidence (Physical Evidence Recovery Kit) and a sexual assault victim advocate from the Collins Center will be called to assist the victim. If you are a JMU student, you can also request assistance from Student Wellness and Outreach victim advocate.
- Law enforcement will help obtain an emergency protective order for the victim if applicable and provide guidance through the criminal complaint process.
- Law enforcement in concert with other entities such as Title IX, the JMU Health Center, Sentara RMH Hospital, and the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, along with the Student Wellness and Outreach Office and the JMU Counseling Center will help coordinate medical, counseling and support services for students. Sentara RMH Hospital and the Collins Center along with the Harrisonburg Rockingham Victim Witness Program will coordinate for non-student victims.
- Written information providing information on existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance and if applicable visa and immigration assistance along with other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community will be provided. This information will also include options for and available assistance to victims for changing academic, living, transportation and working situations if requested by the victim and reasonably available.
- Although the university strongly encourages all members of its community to report sexual assault to law enforcement, it is the victims’ choice whether or not to make a report and victims have the right to decline police involvement. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, health care providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease and provide for support.

What to expect at the Emergency Room

Going to the emergency room after a sexual assault can be a scary and confusing experience. In Virginia evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement. The evidence collected can be held until a decision is made about pursuing legal action. Sentara RMH Hospital can assist with collecting evidence with a physical evidence recovery kit. You do have options. Although the university strongly encourages all members of its community to report violations to law enforcement, it is the victim’s choice whether or not to make such a report and victims have the right to decline involvement with the police. When you arrive at the emergency room, you will be checked in at the triage desk where you will be registered. At this time, a Collins Center advocate will be called as well as a specialized nurse called a SANE nurse (Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner). Students can call the Student Wellness and Outreach office at 540-568-2831 to request a member to accompany them if they desire. Institutional personnel will assist the victim in notifying these authorities, if the student requests the assistance of these personnel.

The Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner’s program, otherwise known as SANE, is a program set up specifically to gather forensic evidence from victims of sexual assault. SANE nurses are on call for duties to be performed at the Sentara RMH Emergency Room. Police investigators suggest that victims receive an exam by a SANE nurse if they are interested in pressing charges. SANE exams are administered to walk-in victims. SANE nurses are trained in examination techniques, forensic practice, how to collaborate with law enforcement officers, and how to present evidence as an expert witness in the courtroom. The SANE exam is an evidentiary exam, not a diagnostic one. There is a SANE nurse available 24/7 and exams are done for both adult and pediatric victims.

If the victim does not wish to support a police investigation or declines a forensic exam, she/he will be referred to the Emergency Room Physician.

For the exam, the SANE nurse obtains a brief medical history and may ask some detail about the assault that will help to know what areas of physical examination are most important for a thorough collection of forensic evidence. Blood, hair, and specific body fluids will be collected and packaged in a manner prescribed by the Virginia State Crime Laboratory. Specimens are labeled in detail and then sealed in a box that is remitted to law enforcement, following the rules of chain-of-custody. The investigating agency is then responsible for carrying the sealed evidence to the crime lab. (The Virginia Supreme Court can pay expenses related to the PERK kit exam. The Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund applies, per Virginia Code Section 19.2-368.18).

At the completion of the exam, the victim is offered prophylaxis for sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) and pregnancy and is given follow-up instructions depending on any findings during the exam. Follow-up can be through a private physician, the University Health Center, and/or the Public Health Department of Rockingham/Harrisonburg.

If the victim is a student, the SANE nurse requests of the victim that they allow the nurse to call a professional counselor from the school to let them know of the assault. The SANE nurses are bound by the limits of confidentiality, however, and may be able to only let the counselor know that an assault occurred on a student, but be unable to name that student if the victim wishes not to be named.

- The university must respond to complaints concerning Title IX. To the extent of the victim’s cooperation and consent, University offices to include the Office of Equal Opportunity, Title IX, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, the Student Wellness and Outreach Office, and the University Counseling Center, will work cooperatively to ensure that the victim’s health, physical safety, work and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal university investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a victim may be offered changes to academic, living, or working situations in addition to counseling, health services and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement. The Office of Equal Opportunity/Title IX will assist a victim with these accommodations. Additionally, personal identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating, adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the victim to the extent permissible by law. The University does not publish the name of crime victims nor identifiable information regarding victims in the campus police departments Daily Crime Log or in Timely Warning notifications or community crime alerts. Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to the JMU Police Department will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation regardless of if the victim choses to pursue criminal charges.

- Victims have the option of keeping their report of sexual assault in complete confidence, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center. If an incident is reported to the JMU Counseling Center, a professional staff member will be assigned to work with the victim on deciding whether or not to pursue legal action and will connect the victim with local programs and agencies, such as the Collins Center and the Victim/Witness Assistance Program. Victims have the option of keeping their report of sexual assault in complete confidence to the extent permitted by law, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center.

The Counseling Center offers free and confidential short and long-term individual, group, and emergency sexual trauma counseling services for JMU students; advocacy services for survivors, including assistance with medical, judicial, and legal referrals; and, finally, consultation services, including consultation around Title IX, for faculty, staff, family members, and friends of survivors of sexual trauma. During the initial assessment appointment, a counselor will help students decide which service(s) would be the most beneficial.

Message from JMU Counseling Center

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires all university employees to report disclosures of sexual harassment and sexual assault to the Office of Equal Opportunity in an effort to foster and maintain an environment free from sex discrimination, and so that the university can provide a prompt and effective response. Most JMU faculty, staff, and student employees must abide by these requirements. As staff members of the JMU Counseling Center, we are exempt from Title IX reporting requirements, and communications with our clients are privileged by law; therefore, we will discuss Title IX implications with faculty, staff, family members, and students as needed, and serve as clinicians for students directly impacted by sexual trauma. The Counseling Center is a safe and confidential environment for discussion of sexual harassment and assault; however, we encourage all survivors and support persons to review Title IX requirements before making any disclosures to other university personnel.

Additionally a Mutual Aid agreement with the Department of State Police, for the use of their joint forces, both regular and auxiliary, equipment, and materials when needed in the investigation of any felony criminal sexual assault or medically unattended death occurring on property owned or controlled by the institution of higher education or any death resulting from an incident occurring on such property has been enacted.

Following any incident, victims are encouraged to make a report to JMU Police Department or local police if they have not done so previously. This action does not obligate prosecution, but it does make legal action possible if the decision to prosecute is made at a later date. The earlier an incident is reported, the easier it is to collect valuable evidence and investigate the incident and obtain protective orders.

Protective Orders

Protective orders are civil court orders meant to protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, sexual assault or stalking by another individual. The JMU Police Department will explain and provide assistance in the process of obtaining protective orders. An emergency protective order (EPO) aims to protect the health or safety of any person regardless of a decision to arrest. The patrol officer shall request an emergency protective order for the victim for any act involving violence, force, or threat that results in bodily injury, OR places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury. Such acts include, but are not limited to, any forceful detention, stalking, or criminal sexual assault in violation of Article 7 (§ 18.2-61 et seq.) of Chapter 4 of Title 18.2, OR any criminal offense that results in bodily injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury. An emergency protective order is issued by a judge or magistrate, upon request of a law enforcement officer or an alleged victim. To obtain an emergency protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, and the judge or magistrate finds that (i) there is probable danger of a further such act being committed by the respondent against the alleged victim or (ii) a petition or warrant for the arrest of the respondent has been issued for a criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat.

An emergency protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat to criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the judge or magistrate deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

This remains in effect for 72 hours unless the 72 hour period expires at a time that Court is not in session. In that case, the order is extended until 5:00 p.m. on the next business day that the Court is in session. The victim may request a preliminary protective order, within a reasonable period of time following the incident, through the general district court. A preliminary protective order (PPO) is issued by a judge, upon request of an alleged victim or law enforcement officer. To obtain a preliminary protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, or a petition or warrant has been issued for the arrest of the alleged perpetrator for any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat. An alleged victim must appear before a judge in person to request a preliminary protective order.
A preliminary protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat,
   (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A preliminary protective order is valid for 15 days, or until the date of the next hearing scheduled at the time of issuance of the preliminary protective order for a permanent or full protective order. A full protective is issued by a judge, following a hearing at which both the petitioner and respondent are present.

A full protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat,
   (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A Protective Order is valid for any period of time up to a maximum of two years. It is very important to keep a copy of the protective order with you at all times. Show these to the police officer, magistrate, prosecutor, or judge if he/she violates the order.

If you are a student or an employee victim, please inform the JMU Police of any protection orders. Officers shall enforce protective orders from other states or possessions of the United States as if they were issued in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Domestic Violence

The James Madison University Police Department assigns domestic or family violence complaints a high priority. The nature and seriousness of crimes committed between family or household members are not mitigated because of the relationships or living arrangements of those involved. Therefore, law enforcement must exercise leadership in the community in responding to domestic violence. An immediate criminal justice response can make a major difference in the disputants’ lives. If an assault should occur, the victim should go to a safe place and contact a friend or family member for support. You should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible if injured. Sentara RMH Hospital will be able to examine and treat you after an assault. If you are a student, you have receive treatment at the JMU Health Center. Following any incident, victims are encouraged to call the JMU police if the incident occurred on campus at 540-568-6911; if the incident happened in the City of Harrisonburg call the Emergency 911, or Business 540-434-4436 for assistance. The responding officer’s primary responsibility will be the victim’s physical well-being and emergency medical needs with an investigation to follow to include the obtaining preliminary statements, preserving evidence, and documentation. As with any crime, it is important to preserve evidence and the victim is encouraged to preserve the crime scene and evidence. Victims will be assisted by campus authorities, if requested, in notifying law enforcement if the victim so chooses but may also decline to notify law enforcement. Victims have the option of keeping their report of domestic violence in complete confidence to the extent permitted by law, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center. If an incident is reported to the JMU Counseling Center, a professional staff member will be assigned to work with the victim. The university must respond to complaints concerning Title IX. To the extent of the victim’s cooperation and consent, University offices to include the Office of Equal Opportunity/Title IX, the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, the Student Wellness and Outreach Office, and the University Counseling Center, will work cooperatively to ensure that the victim’s health, physical safety, work and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal university investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a victim may be offered changes to academic, living, or working situations in addition to counseling, health services and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement. The Office of Equal Opportunity/Title IX will assist a victim with these accommodations. Additionally, personal identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating and adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the victim to the extent permissible by law. The University does not publish the name of crime victims nor identifiable information regarding victims in the campus police departments Daily Crime Log or in Timely Warning notifications or community crime alerts. Reports of all domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking made to the JMU Police Department will automatically be referred to the Title IX Coordinator for investigation regardless of if the victim choses to pursue criminal charges. Sentara RMH Hospital and the Collins Center along with the Harrisonburg/Rockingham Victim Witness Program will coordinate for non-student victims. Written information providing information on existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance and if applicable visa and immigration assistance along with other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community will be provided in the JMU Complainants Rights. This information will also include options for and available assistance to victims for changing academic, living, transportation and working situations if requested by the victim and reasonably available Reporting an incident does not obligate prosecution, but it does make legal action possible if the decision to prosecute is made at a later date. The earlier an incident is reported, the easier it is to collect valuable evidence and investigate the incident.

With all due consideration for their own safety, the policy of the JMU Police department responding to a domestic disturbance complaint shall (i) restore order; (2) arrest persons when probable cause exists that a crime has occurred; (3) provide safety and security for the crime victim(s); and, (4) help participants contact appropriate agencies to help prevent future occurrences.

Virginia defines domestic abuse as “any threat or act of violence, including forceful detention which results in physical injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of bodily injury and which is committed by a person against such person’s family or household member”. In essence domestic violence is any violent or controlling behavior by a person toward a spouse or partner. Although the partner is the primary target, domestic abuse also affects the children in the household, extended family members, and even the community at large.

The Virginia the statute for domestic violence is § 18.2-57.2. Assault and battery against a family or household member; penalty.

- Any person who commits an assault and battery against a family or household member is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.
- Upon a conviction for assault and battery against a family or household member, where it is alleged in the warrant, petition, information, or indictment on which a person is convicted, that such person has been previously convicted of two offenses against a family or household member of (i) assault and battery against a family or household member in violation of this section, (ii) malicious wounding or unlawful wounding in violation of § 18.2-51, (iii) aggravated malicious wounding in violation of § 18.2-51.2, (iv) malicious bodily injury by means of a substance in violation of § 18.2-52, (v) strangulation in violation of § 18.2-51.6, or (vi) an offense under the law of any other jurisdiction which has the same elements of any of the above offenses, in any combination, all of which occurred within a period of 20 years, and each of which occurred on a different date, such person is guilty of a Class 6 felony.

The VAWA term “domestic violence” includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by:

- a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated, with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction, in which the crime of violence occurred; OR
- By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

(42 U.S.C. 13925(a))

The JMU Police will arrest the aggressor when probable cause exits by the totality of the circumstances which may include:

1. Evidence that any of the parties acted in self-defense.
2. A history of violence (prior assault convictions) of the parties involved, including history of calls for service.
3. The relative severity of injuries inflicted on all parties, plus consideration whether the injuries were offensive or defensive.
4. The relative size, bulk, and strength of the parties involved.
5. Evidence from persons involved in or witnesses to the incident.
6. The likelihood of future injury to any party.
7. Current or previous protection orders filed against either party.

As with any crime, it is important to preserve evidence. Physical evidence can include injuries of the victim, evidentiary articles that substantiate an attack and the crime scene itself. Photographs of injuries and the crime scene showing a struggle occurred can be invaluable.
Protective orders are civil court orders meant to protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, sexual assault or stalking by another individual. The JMU Police Department will explain and provide assistance in the process of obtaining protective orders.

A special kind of Protective Order, called a Family Abuse Protective Order, exists for victims who have experienced or are in fear of physical threat or violence, sexual assault or stalking by a family member. Regardless of whether an arrest is made, if the responding officer has probable cause to believe that a danger of acts of family abuse exists, the officer shall seek an emergency protective order on behalf of the victim. Family abuse includes any act involving violence, force, or threat that results in bodily injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury and that is committed by a person against such person’s family or household member. Such act includes, but is not limited to, any forceful detention, stalking, criminal sexual assault in violation of Article 7 (§ 18.2-61 et seq.) of Chapter 4 of Title 18.2, or any criminal offense that results in bodily injury or places one in reasonable apprehension of death, sexual assault, or bodily injury. An abused family household member may petition the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court for a Preliminary Protective Order (PPO). After an ex parte hearing and based on immediate and present danger of family abuse or evidence sufficient to establish probable cause that family abuse has recently occurred, the court may issue a PPO (protecting the petitioner or his or her family, or both). At the hearing where the PPO is issued, a hearing date for a permanent or full protective order shall be set. The PPO is valid for up to 15 days. In addition to the restrictions and prohibitions placed in a PPO, the full protective order may require an abuser to pay for the victim and children to live elsewhere, and for the abuser to receive treatment or counseling. The victim must attend a protective order hearing at the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. The abuser must have notice and opportunity to attend the hearing. The full order is valid for up to two years.

If you are not able to obtain a family abuse protective order you may still be able to obtain a general emergency protective order (EPO) which aims to protect the health or safety of any person regardless of a decision to arrest. An emergency protective order is issued by a judge or magistrate, upon request of a law enforcement officer or an alleged victim. To obtain an emergency protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, and the judge or magistrate finds that (i) there is probable danger of a further such act being committed by the respondent against the alleged victim or (ii) a petition or warrant for the arrest of the respondent has been issued for a criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat.

An emergency protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the judge or magistrate deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

An emergency protective order expires at 11:59 p.m. on the third day following issuance. If the expiration occurs on a day that court is not in session, the emergency protective order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the court that issued the order is in session. The victim may request a preliminary protective order, within a reasonable period of time following the incident, through the general district court. A preliminary protective order (PPO) is issued by a judge, upon request of an alleged victim. To obtain a preliminary protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, or a petition or warrant has been issued for the arrest of the alleged perpetrator for any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat. An alleged victim must appear before a judge in person to request a preliminary protective order.

A preliminary protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A preliminary protective order is valid for 15 days, or until the date of the next hearing scheduled at the time of issuance of the preliminary protective order for a permanent or full protective order. A full protective is issued by a judge, following a hearing at which both the petitioner

Along with legal prosecution, University accountability action is an option that can be pursued in lieu of/or concurrent with legal prosecution. Accountability proceedings will provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence as well as dating violence and stalking and how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. To begin a university accountability action, a student, faculty member or staff member who feels he or she has been a victim of domestic assault can meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) and/or a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to speak with a staff member to explore options. Both the victim and the accused are afforded rights The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or preceding by an advisor or their choice and both the accuser and the accused shall be simultaneously informed, in writing of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation; the institution’s procedures for the accused and the victim to appeal the results of the institutional proceeding; of any change to the results that occurs prior to the time that such results become final; and when such results become final. The accused has the right to a presumption of not being responsible for a violation until proven responsible as determined by a preponderance of the evidence present at the hearing. The right to appeal to a higher accountability body or university administrative official can be made within 3 days of receiving the accountability decision from JMU. Student victims will be provided assistance and have the option to change their academic, living, transportation, and working situations after an alleged incident, if such changes are reasonably available. Accountability response to referral(s) related to act(s) of domestic violence can result in a charge of “Sexual Misconduct” against the accused; (J34-100 Student Handbook Sexual Misconduct). The process for domestic violence is the same for sex offenses documented earlier.

The institution will, upon written request, disclose to the victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in Section 16 of Title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for these purposes.

Red flags in a relationship:

Do you...

- Feel afraid of your partner most of the time?
- Feel that you can’t do anything right?
- Get embarrassed by your partner’s behavior toward you?
- Believe that you deserve to be hurt or mistreated?
- Avoid topics or situations out of fear of angering your partner?

Does your partner...

- Humiliate, criticize or yell at you?
- Blame you for his behavior?
- Threaten to hurt you?
- Threaten to take your kids away?
- Threaten to harm your kids or pets?
- Force you to have sex?
- Act jealous and possessive?
- Keep you from seeing friends and family?
- Limit your access to money or necessities?
- Keep you from getting a job or going to school?
- Constantly check up on you?
- Threaten to kill or hurt himself if you leave?

Risk reductions entails options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. Pay attention to the “red flags “and trust your instincts. Survivors of domestic violence frequently report that their instincts told them that there was something wrong early on but they disregarded the warning signs and didn’t know that these signs were indicative of an abusive relationship. Always take time to get to know a potential partner and watch for patterns of behavior in a variety of settings. Keeping in touch with your support system and participating in good self-care can lower your risk of being involved in an abusive relationship.

Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. The JMU Police Department along with the JMU community is committed to stopping domestic violence in our community by encouraging its community members to be a courageous bystander with safe and positive options for bystander interventions to prevent harm or intervene

Bystander interventions:

- Speak up when you hear threatening language.
- Hold people accountable for their actions.
- Respectfully challenge comments that degrade women.

Dating Violence

James Madison University is committed to providing security, education, training, and victim services to combat violence against all persons.

Virginia does not have a statute specifically making dating violence criminal, but it is a form of assault and battery, §§ 18.2-52, 18.2-57 which is criminal behavior defined as an intentional act by one person that creates an apprehension in another of an imminent harmful or offensive contact and/or inflicts physical injury on another. Under Virginia’s laws, if the defendant inflicts bodily injury on the victim based on the victim’s race, religion, color, or national origin, then the crime may be charged as a felony.
The VAWA term for “dating violence” means violence committed by a person:

- who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
  - The length of the relationship;
  - The type of the relationship;
  - The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

(42 U.S.C. 13925 (a))

- For the purposes of this definition—
  - Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
  - Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

Violence or abuse is never acceptable in a dating relationship. Anyone has been hit or abused by a dating partner can receive help. First and foremost, the victim should go to a safe place and contact a friend or family member for support. You should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible if injured. Sentara RMH Hospital will be able to examine and treat you after an assault. The JMU Health Center can treat students. Following any incident, victims are encouraged to call the JMU police if the incident occurred on campus at 540-568-6911; if the incident happened in the City of Harrisonburg call the Emergency 911, or Business 540-434-4436 for assistance. The responding officer’s primary responsibility will be the victim's physical well-being and emergency medical needs with an investigation to follow to include the obtaining preliminary statements, preserving evidence, and documentation. As with any crime, it is important to preserve evidence. Physical evidence can include the victim's evidence that substantiate an attack and the crime scene itself. Photographs of injuries and the crime scene showing a struggle occurred can be invaluable. Victims will be assisted by campus authorities, if requested, in notifying law enforcement if the victim so chooses but may also decline to notify law enforcement. Victims have the option of keeping their report of dating violence in complete confidence to the extent permitted by law, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center. Law enforcement in concert with other entities such as Title IX, Sentara RMH Hospital, the JMU Health Center and the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, along with the Student Wellness and Outreach Office and the JMU Counseling Center will help coordinate medical, counseling and support services for students. Sentara RMH Hospital and the Collins Center along with the Harrisonburg/Rockingham/Victim/Witness Program will coordinate for non-student victims. Written information providing information on existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance and if applicable visa and immigration assistance along with other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community will be provided in the JMU Complainants Rights. This information will also include options for and available assistance to victims for changing academic, living, transportation and working situations if requested by the victim and reasonably available. Reporting an incident does not obligate prosecution, but it does make legal action possible if the decision to prosecute is made at a later date. The earlier an incident is reported, the easier it is to collect valuable evidence and investigate the incident.

Victims have the option of keeping their report of dating violence in complete confidence, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center. Institutional personnel will assist the student in notifying these authorities, if the student requests the assistance of these personnel.

Red flags in a relationship might include your partner:

- Always wanting to know where you are and who you are with
- Not wanting you to spend time with others
- Getting angry if you do not answer a call or text immediately
- Always blaming you for their mistakes
- Calling you names or constantly putting you down
- Yelling constantly, throwing or punching objects
- Pressuring you to do more sexually than you are ready for

Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence. Pay attention to the “red flags” and “trust your instincts.” Instincts may have told them that there was something wrong early on but they disregarded the warning signs and didn’t know that these signs were indicative of an abusive relationship. Understand barriers to getting help such as fear of being judged, embarrassment and not wanting to admit that it’s a real problem. Always take time to get to know a potential partner and watch for patterns.

It includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are OK. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive toward another and it is no safe for you to interrupt.

If anyone has been hit or abused by dating partner and they want to report it as a crime; they should immediately call the call the JMU Police if the incident occurred on campus at 540-568-6911; if the incident happened in the City of Harrisonburg call the Emergency 911, or Business 540-434-4436 for assistance. Go to a safe place. Contact a friend or family member for support if possible. Protective orders are civil court orders meant to protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, sexual assault or stalking by another individual. The JMU Police Department will provide assistance in the process of obtaining protective orders. An emergency protective order (EPO) aims to protect the health or safety of any person regardless of a decision to arrest. An emergency protective order is issued by a judge or magistrate, upon request of an alleged victim or a law enforcement officer. To obtain an emergency protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, and the judge or magistrate finds that (i) there is probable danger of a further such act being committed by the respondent against the alleged victim or (ii) a petition or warrant for the arrest of the respondent has been issued for a criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat.

An emergency protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner's family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the judge or magistrate deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

An emergency protective order expires at 11:59 p.m. on the third day following issuance. If the expiration occurs on a day that court is not in session, the emergency protective order shall be extended until 11:59 p.m. on the next day that the court that issued the order is in session. The victim may request a preliminary protective order, within a reasonable period of time following the incident, through the general district court. A preliminary protective order (PPO) is issued by a judge, upon request of an alleged victim. To obtain a preliminary protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, or a petition or warrant has been issued for the arrest of the alleged perpetrator for any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat. An alleged victim must appear before a judge in person to request a preliminary protective order.

A preliminary protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A preliminary protective order is valid for 15 days, or until the date of the next hearing scheduled at the time of issuance of the preliminary protective order for a permanent or full protective order. A full protective is issued by a judge, following a hearing at which both the petitioner and respondent are present.

A full protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A full protective order is valid for any period of time up to a maximum of two years. It is very important to keep a copy of the protective order with you at all times. Show these to the police officer, magistrate, prosecutor, or judge if he or she violates the order.

If you are a student or employee victim, please inform the JMU Police of any protection orders. To begin a university accountability action, a student, faculty member or staff member who feels he or she has been a victim of dating violence can meet with a Title IX Coordinator(s) and/or a staff member of the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices to speak with a staff member to explore options. Both the victim and the accused are afforded rights. The accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during an institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or preceding by an advisor or their choice and both the accuser and the accused shall be simultaneously informed, in writing, of the outcome of any institutional disciplinary proceeding that arises from an allegation; the institution’s procedures for the accused and the victim to appeal the results of the institutional proceeding; of any change to the results that occurs prior to the time that such results become final; and when such results become final. The accused has the right to a presumption of not being responsible for a violation until proven responsible as determined by a preponderance of the evidence present at the hearing. The right to appeal to a higher accountability body or university administrative official can be made within 3 days of receiving the accountability decision from JMU. Student victims will be provided assistance and have the option to change their academic, living, transportation, and working situations after an alleged incident, if such changes are reasonably available. Accountability response to referral(s) related to act(s) of domestic violence can result in a charge of “Sexual Misconduct” against the accused; (J34-100 Student Handbook Sexual Misconduct). The process for domestic violence is the same for sex offenses documented earlier.

Stalking

Stalking is traumatic. You may experience nightmares, lose sleep, get depressed or feel like you’re no longer in control of your life.

Stalking is a crime that Virginia defines as § 18.2-60.3 “Any person who engages in conduct directed at another person with the intent to place or when he/she knows or reasonably should know that the conduct places that other person in reasonable fear of death, criminal sexual assault, or bodily injury to that other person or to that other person’s family or household member.”

The VAWA definition of stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—

- Fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of this definition—

- Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about, a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
- Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
- Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Stalking behaviors can include:

- Showing up at your home or place of work unannounced or uninvited.
- Sending you unwanted text messages, letters, emails and voicemails.
- Leaving unwanted items, gifts or flowers.
- Constantly calling you and hanging up.
- Use social networking sites and technology to track you.
- Spreading rumors about you via the internet or word of mouth.
- Making unwanted phone calls to you.
- Calling your employer or professor.
- Waiting at places you hang out.
- Damaging your home, car or other property.

Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

Anyone can become a victim of stalking. The following are suggestions as to what you can do if someone is stalking you:
• Keeps a log of incidents including the date, time, what happened, and the names of any witnesses. Even if you decide not to pursue prosecution, you may change your mind and it will be helpful to have documentation of every incident.
• If you have a protection order, make several copies, and carry a copy with you at all times.
• Save any packages, letters, messages, or gifts from the stalker. They may be important if you decide to report to the police.
• To keep your address confidential, get a post office box and use it on all correspondence. Put this address on your checks. If you are being sent something from Federal Express or another company that won’t mail to P.O. Boxes, change “P.O. Box” to “Apartment” when giving your address.
• Use an answering machine to screen calls. Save all voicemail messages from the stalker, or record them to a tape recorder and save the tapes.
• You can have your phone reject calls from anonymous or unknown callers by contacting your local telephone service provider.
• Acquaint yourself with 24-hour stores and other public, highly populated areas in your neighborhood.
• If someone is following you, never go home.
• Inform security at your place of employment that you are being stalked.
• Inform friends, family, neighbors, and other people you know that you are being stalked so that the stalker cannot get information about you from them.
• If you have a picture of your stalker, give one to people you know at the places you frequent.

Bystander intervention means safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of stalking. It includes recognizing situations of potential harm, understanding institutional structures and cultural conditions that facilitate violence, overcoming barriers to intervening, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene. Bystander intervention can be as simple as calling the police if you witness a serious situation in progress.

If you feel you are being stalked and want to report it as a crime; you should immediately call the call the JMU Police if the incident occurred on campus at 540-568-6911; if the incident happened in the City of Harrisonburg call the Emergency 911, or Business 540-434-4436 for assistance. If you are in immediate danger, go to a safe place. Contact a friend or family member for support if possible. The Officer’s primary responsibility will be the victim’s physical well-being and emergency medical needs followed by an investigation to include obtaining preliminary statements, preserving evidence, and documentation with possible arrest. Victims have the option of keeping their report of stalking in complete confidence to the extent permitted by law, protecting their right to anonymity, when making a report through the JMU Counseling Center. Institutional personnel will assist the student in notifying these authorities, if the student requests the assistance of these personnel.

Helpful information can be found at this link http://www.dcjs.virginia.gov.victims.documents.stalking.pdf. Talking to someone who is trained to work with victims and survivors may help alleviate some of the symptoms that may be interfering with other aspects of your life.

In addition to campus based resources there are community-based organizations such as The Collins Center (434-2272) and First Step (434-0295). Other resources include the Virginia Crime Victim Assistance INFO-LINE (1-888-887-3418) and the Virginia Family Violence and Sexual Assault Hotline (1-800-838-8238).

As with any crime, it is important to preserve evidence. Physical and evidentiary articles that substantiate the crime such as text messages, voicemails, videos, letters, photos, cards, unwanted items or gifts and emails should be saved. You should also write down the times, places and dates all the incidents occurred. You should include the names and contact information of people who witnessed what happened and provide this information to the police. Protective orders are civil court orders meant to protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, sexual assault or stalking by another individual. The JMU Police Department will provide assistance in the process of obtaining protective orders. An emergency protective order (EPO) aims to protect the health or safety of any person regardless of a decision to arrest. An emergency protective order (EPO) is issued by a judge or magistrate, upon request of a law enforcement officer or an alleged victim. To obtain this emergency protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, and the judge or magistrate finds that (i) there is probable danger of a further such act being committed by the respondent against the alleged victim or (ii) a petition or warrant for the arrest of the respondent has been issued for a criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat.

An emergency protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the judge or magistrate deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

This remains in effect for 72 hours unless the 72 hour period expires at a time that Court is not in session. In that case, the order is extended until 5:00 p.m. on the next business day that the Court is in session. The victim may request a preliminary protective order, within a reasonable period of time following the incident, through the general district court. A preliminary protective order (PPO) is issued by a judge, upon request of an alleged victim. To obtain a preliminary protective order, the alleged victim must have been subjected to an act of violence, force, or threat, or a petition or warrant has been issued for the arrest of the alleged perpetrator for any criminal offense resulting from the commission of an act of violence, force, or threat. An alleged victim must appear before a judge in person to request a preliminary protective order.

A preliminary protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A preliminary protective order is valid for 15 days, or until the date of the next hearing scheduled at the time of issuance of the preliminary protective order for a permanent or full protective order. A full protective is issued by a judge, following a hearing at which both the petitioner and respondent are present.

A protective order can:

1. Prohibit acts of violence, force, or threat or criminal offenses that may result in injury to person or property,
2. Prohibit contacts by the respondent with the petitioner or the petitioner’s family or household members, and
3. Grant other conditions that the court deems necessary to prevent (i) acts of violence, force, or threat, (ii) criminal offenses resulting in injury to person or property, or (iii) communication or other contact of any kind by the respondent.

A full protective order is valid for any period of time up to a maximum of two years. It is very important to keep a copy of the protective order with you at all times. Show these to the police officer, magistrate, prosecutor, or judge if he/she violates the order.

If you are a student or employee victim, please inform the JMU Police of any protection orders. Officers shall enforce protective orders from other states or possessions of the United States as if they were issued in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

A student victim of stalking has the right, in addition to filing charges through the criminal justice system, can file a complaint with the university’s Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices, relative to acts of violence toward them or another or committed by JMU student(s). Regardless of whether the act of violence occurred on or off-campus since the University reserves the right to hold students accountable for certain types of off-campus behavior. Disciplinary action will result if a student’s behavior jeopardizes the educational atmosphere or mission of the institution. Along with criminal prosecution, University judicial action is an option that can be pursued in lieu of/or concurrent with legal prosecution. Judicial proceedings will provide a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation and resolution conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to dating violence, as well as domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. The accused has the right to a presumption of not being responsible for a violation until proven responsible as determined by a preponderance of the evidence present at the hearing. To begin a university judicial action, the counselor, police or victim should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs at 540-568-6218 to speak with a judicial advisor. During campus judicial proceedings, both the victim and the accused may be present and may have an attorney and/or adviser present to provide support and advice. Both the victim and the accused will be informed simultaneously in writing of the results of any disciplinary proceeding, and be informed of any changes to the result and when the results become final. The right to appeal to a higher judicial body or university administrative official can be made within 3 days of receiving the judicial decision from JMU. Student victims will be provided assistance and have the option to change their academic, living, transportation, and working situations after an alleged incident, if such changes are reasonably available. Judicial response to referral(s) related to act(s) of dating violence can result in a charge of “Violence to Persons” (J43-100 Student Handbook) against the accused; “no student shall engage or attempt to engage in any form of violence directed toward another person or group of people” (J43-101). Sanctions may include disciplinary probation and educational programs and may result in suspension from the university.

Crime Victim and Witness Rights

As a victim or witness of a crime, individuals have certain rights under Virginia’s Crime Victim and Witness Rights Act. James Madison University’s Police are active participants in the City of Harrisonburg/County of Rockingham’s Victim/Witness Program. The telephone number is 564-3350. A summary of the Virginia’s Crime Victim and Witness Rights Act can be viewed at http://www.dcjis.virginia.gov.victims.documents.victimsWitnessRightsActSummary.pdf

There are specific steps one needs to take in order to receive these rights. The Victim/Witness program at the Commonwealth Attorney’s Office has been implemented for the benefits of victims and witnesses of crime. A victim is defined as a person who has suffered physical, psychological, or economic harm as a direct result of a crime.

As a victim one may be entitled to information about:

- Financial Assistance and Social Services
- Address and telephone confidentiality
- Closed preliminary hearing or use of closed-circuit television, if one was the victim of a sexual offense
- Separate waiting area during court proceedings
- The right to remain in the courtroom during a criminal trial or proceeding

As a victim one may also be entitled to assistance in:

- Obtaining protection from further harm or threats of harm
- Obtaining property obtained by law enforcement agencies
- Obtaining financial assistance from the Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund
- Intercession services with one’s employer and/or school
- Obtaining advanced notice of court proceedings
- Receive the services of an interpreter
- Preparing a victim impact statement prior to the defendant’s sentencing
- Seeking restitution for damages or loss

As a victim one may also be entitled to notification of:

- Case status information
- Changes in court dates
- Changes in the status of the defendant and release information

As the witness to a crime, one may be entitled to information about:

- Protection from harm or threats of harm
- Address and telephone number confidentiality
- A separate waiting area during court proceedings

As a witness one may also be entitled to assistance with:

- Receiving intercession services with one’s employer or school
- Receiving the services of an interpreter

A crime victim or witness is subject to receiving a subpoena, which is a court document requiring them to be present in court at the time and place stated.

Steps one takes to receive confidentiality, notification, or release of information if they are a crime victim:
Confidentiality: To request confidentiality, the crime victim must file a Request for Confidentiality by Crime Victim Form (DC-301) with the Magistrate, court, commonwealth’s attorney, or law enforcement agency in the locality where the crime occurred.

Silent Witness: If you have any information you feel would be helpful in an investigation but wish to remain anonymous, you have the option to report it through Silent Witness at: http://www.jmu.edu/pubsafety/SilentWitness.shtml. Please note: if the location of the incident is not provided, the University’s Clery Act Compliance Coordinator will be unable to count the related statistic in the annual Clery Campus Crime Disclosure and Policy Report.

Court Dates: A crime victim must give the Commonwealth’s Attorney their current name, address, and phone number, in writing, if they wish to be notified in advance of the scheduled court dates in their case.

Information about release or status of defendant: The crime victim must give the sheriff, jail superintendent, or Department of Corrections their current name, address, telephone number and defendant name, in writing, if they wish to be notified about the changes in the status of the defendant or inmate.

Legal Requirements in Virginia

Virginia recently passed legislation which aims to aid survivors of sexual assault and protect students on college campuses. Legislation requires that law enforcement notify the local attorney for the Commonwealth within 48 hours of beginning any investigation involving felony criminal sexual assault occurring on campus property or other property related to the institution of higher education. Additionally, it requires any responsible employee of a public or private nonprofit institution of higher education who in the course of his employment obtains information that an act of sexual violence has been committed against a student or on campus property or other property related to the institution to report such information to the Title IX coordinator for the institution as soon as practicable. The legislation requires the Title IX coordinator to report such information to a review committee, which shall meet within 72 hours of the receipt of information of an alleged act of sexual violence and which shall include the Title IX coordinator, a representative of law enforcement, and a student affairs representative. If the review committee determines that disclosure of the information regarding the alleged act of sexual violence is necessary to protect the health and safety of the victim or other individuals, the representative of law enforcement on the review committee shall disclose the information, including personally identifiable information, to the law-enforcement agency responsible for investigating the alleged act. In cases involving a felony sexual assault, the representative of law enforcement on the review committee, or in certain situations, another committee member, shall consult with the local attorney for the Commonwealth or other prosecutor responsible for prosecuting the alleged act of sexual violence.

JMU has composed a Sexual Violence Review Committee (SVRC). This committee is composed of a representative of the Title IX administration, a member of the university’s Police Department and a member of the university’s Student Affairs administration. The SVRC reviews information related to acts of sexual violence, including information reported to the Title IX officers to fulfill this requirement.

Additionally, the legislation also stipulated the formalization of a Memorandum of Understanding between entities providing trauma informed services to student and employee victims of sexual violence with the shared goal of preventing sexual assault on campus and in the community and responding appropriately to students and employees who have been victimized. James Madison University has built a partnership with the Collins Center to provide these services to the JMU community.

Student Accountability and Restorative Practice Guidelines

J16-100 Harassment and/or Bullying

It is the established policy of JMU to provide a work and study environment for faculty, staff and students free from all forms of harassment, bullying, stalking, intimidation and exploitation. The university has both an obligation to prevent harassment and bullying, but must balance that with its obligation to protect students’ exercise of their free speech rights. The university takes both of these obligations seriously. Prohibited harassment, bullying, stalking, intimidation and exploitation includes offensive verbal, written, electronic, or physical conduct in the following situations:
J16-101 Submission to the conduct is made a condition of employment or admission of an applicant.

J16-102 Submission to or rejection of the conduct is the basis for personnel action, recommendation for promotion or grades.

J16-103 Conduct that seriously and/or repeatedly affects an employee’s or student’s performance or creates a hostile work or study environment. The conduct includes but is not limited to behaviors referring to a person’s age, color, disability (formerly J22-100), genetic information, national origin, parental status, political affiliation, race, religion, sex (formerly J23-100), gender identity, sexual orientation or veteran status.

J16-104 Conduct that constitutes stalking, defined as conduct on more than one occasion that places another person in reasonable fear of bodily injury, sexual assault, or death, or causes such fear concerning the other person’s family or household members.

However, even though the accusing student may wish not to be identified, the university has an obligation to intervene in the matter if sexual harassment has occurred. It is important for the student encountering what he or she perceives to be harassment to remember that he or she may not be the only victim. If you have questions, need support through a complaint process, or need to talk with someone about how this harassment is affecting you, contact Student Wellness and Outreach (SWO) at 540-568-2831.

Maintenance of Campus Facilities

Facilities and landscaping at James Madison University are maintained in a manner that minimizes hazardous conditions and provides a safe and secure learning and working environment for its students, employees and visitors. Lighting and shrubbery tours are conducted at least once an academic year by representatives from many segments of the campus community. They include student government representatives along with staff from student affairs, facilities management and public safety. Safety and security concerns are identified and recommendations for improvements are made. In addition, the University Safety Coordinator makes regular safety and health inspections, serves as a liaison with public health and safety officials and schedules safety lectures and training and follows up on recommendations with appropriate departments.

JMU students, faculty and staff have access to academic, recreational and administrative facilities on campus when the facilities are open and/or access may be gained by electronic card control or assigned key entry to secured areas. The general public may enter the public areas of the university and administrative and academic facilities during hours when the facilities are open and to attend cultural, recreational and athletic events on campus.

The University’s trespass policy enforced by the JMU Police and posted in university housing is as follows:

> Only those persons having legitimate business with James Madison University, members of the University community and their invited guests are permitted in this building. The University reserves the right to exclude all persons not conforming to acceptable behavior from these premises. Those who disregard this warning are to be considered in violation of criminal trespass (under cited Virginia code provisions) and are liable for prosecution.

JMU police officers may serve verbal or written trespass notices on non-members of the University community present on campus and may make immediate arrests of persons in secure areas for which they have no legitimate business. If a person served with a prior trespass notice reappears on campus, or if a person is found in a posted facility with no legitimate purpose in that building, he or she is subject to immediate arrest.

The Washington Semester Program is not considered a branch campus. It is considered non-campus for purposes of annual reporting relative to the federal Clery Act.

The Washington Semester program enables students to explore the wealth of political and cultural opportunities available in the Washington, D.C. area. The program includes semester-length internships, courses taught on-site, panel discussions by people in various professions, cultural activities, and networking opportunities with JMU alumni working in the DC area. This program is open to all majors and is offered every semester.

JMU Washington Semester students are housed in the Avalon at Gallery Place (http://www.avaloncommunities.com/district-of-columbia/washington-apartments/avalon-at-gallery-place), an apartment building in the Chinatown section of DC. The building has front-desk security 24 hours a day and a key fob entry system. Each apartment has two bedrooms and two bathrooms, holding a maximum of four students. Apartments are fully furnished, including laundry equipment. The building address is 770 5th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20001. The housing arrangement is managed by TurnKey Housing Solutions, a corporate housing company (contact: Eric Hershey, Eric@TKHousing.com, 703-615-6591). Classes are held at the JMU Washington Center at 1400 16th Street, NW, Suite 320 (http://www.1400sixteenth.net/).

The Avalon (student housing) is located within the Metropolitan Police Department’s 1st District in Police Service Area (PSA) 102. The 1st District station is located at 101 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone: (202) 698-0555. Emergency Notification

The JMU Washington Semester program is committed to the immediate notification of the program participants, without delay, upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health and safety of students or staff occurring on or near either facility, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. The Metropolitan Police Department’s 1st District in Police Service Area (PSA) 102 located at 101 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone: (202) 698-0555 or by calling 911 should be contacted immediately if an emergency or dangerous situation exists for response and mitigation of the emergency along with the Faculty-Member-in-Residence (FMIR). The JMU Washington Semester Faculty-Member-in-Residence (FMIR) upon confirmation of an emergency, can initiate the notification system and will concurrently or contemporaneously inform the JMU Police and the Washington Semester academic program officials (Political Science Department at JMU’s main Harrisonburg campus) that an emergency is at hand and will provide the justification for the dissemination of the related notification.

The FMIR officials have four methods of notifying the students within the building: text-messaging, email, telephone and word of mouth. These components which may be activated independently or in-conjunction with each other based on the circumstances to notify the University community of the existence of an emergency, and updated information and as necessary throughout the duration of any incident.

All members of the JMU community are instructed to notify the Metropolitan Police Department’s 1st District in Police Service Area (PSA) 102 located at 101 M Street, SW, Washington, DC 20024; telephone: (202) 698-0555 and the semester Faculty-Member-in-Residence (FMIR) immediately if an emergency or dangerous situation exists for response, mitigation, and documentation of the emergency.

Timely Warning

In compliance with the "Timely Notice" provisions of the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998, the James Madison University is required to give a timely notice for Clery Act crime that occurs on Clery geography. Timely warning notifications are sent to notify the campus community in the event that a situation arises on the Clery geography which encompasses the JMU campus, non-campus property (property owned or controlled by the University or a recognized student organization not on the main campus), and public property (property within or immediately adjacent to campus). In regards to the Semester in Washington, for Clery Act crime that, in the judgment of FMIR’s or designee, after reviewing the facts and circumstances of the incident, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat to the campus community necessitates a timely warning. Timely warnings are primarily triggered by Clery Act crimes (criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery involving force or violence, aggravated assault, and major cases of arson). Timely notices may also be posted for other crime classifications, as deemed necessary. Timely Warnings are evaluated on a case by case basis depending on the facts of the case and the information known.

Missing Student

If a member of the JMU Community has reason to believe that a student is missing, all possible efforts are made to locate the student to determine his or her state of health and well-being through the collaboration of the Metro Police and the Washington Semester FMIR. A police report must be made when someone between 18 and 21 is reported missing.

Safety and Security for the Washington Semester

1. A car in Washington can be a burden and very costly. Parking is difficult due to limited availability and when found can be very expensive.

2. It’s safer to travel in groups. It is especially important for students to stick together after dark. In Washington, it is generally safe to travel alone during the day if one knows the area. One always should know their route. You should be cognizant of those about you. Take precautions! Do not expose yourself to additional risk by being intoxicated or alcohol impaired. Students will be advised to avoid going to or through any location or area where it may be dangerous.

3. Always lock your doors.

4. Report any situation that appears to constitute a threat to the proper authorities.

5. The number one rule is to have confidence! It is recommended that one should act like they belong in Washington. It is recommended that students ask questions if they are lost, but not stand on a street corner with a confused look on their face. Projecting confidence, being comfortable, keep one's shoulders back, and dressing up to the occasion or the area will go a long way to helping the student fit right in.

6. Experience has shown that students may benefit from security briefings or advisories offered by the Metro and Capitol Police for their public service area (PSA). Such communications will assist students reinforcing the message to the students that going into questionable neighborhoods should be avoided.

7. Students should know the common courtesies that will help one get around. They should ask directions of merchants, waiters, policemen, bus drivers and so on. If someone offers advice, students should thank that person but do not accept an offer to be led to their destination. One should not leave things unattended. One should not be obvious with money, cameras, expensive phones, etc. One should not use ATMs in lonely and poorly lighted areas after dark. The main places where people can be robbed are near deserted metro stations after hours, crowded streets, at nightspots and open markets. Generally, those appearing to be homeless are harmless, but one should be on guard. Muggings are rare, but again, pick pocketing and purse snatching can occur so, one should keep track of purses and wallets. One should never leave them on a cafe table or bench, and hang on to them securely while on public transport. A pouch worn beneath blouse or shirt is recommended. It should be used for extra money, traveler’s checks, passport, and ATM/credit cards. When traveling, one should wear this at night.

8. Safe places to meet friends are restaurants, pubs and other public places (during peak hours).

9. Taking unknown guests back to your Washington Semester residence has the potential to endanger you and the other residents. BE CAREFUL, you can never be too cautious when dealing with those with who you are newly acquainted.
10. One should always avoid the neighborhoods known for prostitution and other forms of vice. Those intent on preying on the unwary are known to wait out on the street for them to depart such establishments.

11. Most important, one should never give out their Washington Semester address to people they do not know well. Students will be advised on the security procedures related to general safety and security, keys, guests, and fire/safety regulations. They are asked to observe the same common sense about travel and strangers that one would take at home.

12. Students participating in internships are strongly urged to have hospitalization and medical insurance. It is also advisable for participants to secure a renters policy to cover personal property losses due to theft, fire or other damage.

13. Students participating in JMU's internship programs are bound by all tenets of the JMU Honor and Accountability Systems. They are subject to all regulations in place on the JMU campus that pertain to every student enrolled in university-sponsored educational programs.

Preparation for and Response to Crisis Related to Short-Term Internship Programs

With the responsibility of leading a JMU Internship Program the director is aware that it is possible that an emergency may occur involving one or more of the students in the group. Students can and do become ill, suffer accidents, are the victims of muggings and assaults, find themselves caught up in potentially violent political situations, or fail to return on time to programs at the end of long weekends. While it is of course impossible to plan for all contingencies involving our student interns, the FMIR is trained to follow sound recommended practices when emergencies do arise. The FMIR works individually and together with public officials to provide for the safety and well-being of our student interns.

JMU has, therefore, developed a series of specific procedures designed to safeguard the welfare of program participants. The students are informed about these procedures during their on-site orientations.

What is an emergency?

An emergency is any circumstance that poses a genuine risk to, or that has already disturbed, the safety and well-being of program participants. Emergencies will include, though not be confined to, the following types of events and incidents:

- Physical assault
- Disappearance or kidnapping of a student
- Robbery
- Sexual assault or rape
- Serious illness, physical or emotional
- Significant accident and/or injury
- Hospitalization for any reason
- Terrorist threat or attack
- Local political crisis that could affect the students' safety or well-being

Emergency Contact

Dr. David Jones 202-422-6161

Anyone who is a victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking while attending the Semester in Washington is encouraged to seek support and assistance and to report the incident. Available support may include resources available to any JMU student through the Title IX coordinator, Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Justice and the JMU Counseling Center if requested and reasonably available. Those within the campus community who are found to be responsible for sexual violence are subject to University sanctions and may be subject to criminal prosecution. Individuals are encouraged to contact DC Metro Police Department, by dialing 9-1-1 or 202-727-9099 to report the incident fully and completely to the DC Metro Police but there are options, including the right to file no report. However, to pursue criminal options, it is important to preserve evidence. Whether or not a victim chooses to report an incident to the police, the victim should report the incident to the FMIR. Personnel will assist the victim in notifying local authorities and receiving the necessary medical treatments and tests, help with obtaining protection orders through the appropriate court, if applicable, and assist in obtaining resources for the victim if the victim so requests. Sexual Harassment and incidents of sexual violence will be investigated by the Title IX coordinator. Incidents will be conducted confidentially consistent with applicable legal requirements and safety considerations.

Resources in DC for sexual violence can be found at DC Rape Crisis Center located at 5321 1st P1 NE, Washington, DC (202) 232-0789. Counseling services are available at Parkhurst Associates.

What is done to prepare for emergencies?

Students are instructed that they are required to inform the FMIR about any medical emergency. The FMIR in turn is required to contact the Head of the Political Science Department. The students are informed that this information will be treated with the strictest confidentiality, and that it will be shared on a “need to know” basis only. If the crisis involving the student is grave enough to jeopardize his or her safety or wellbeing, the emergency contact they have provided at the time of registration will be informed. During the orientation on-site, the students will be provided with:

- The local telephone number(s) the students should use to contact emergency services, such as “911” that we use throughout the United States, which provides access to police, fire and emergency medical services);

- A written list of reputable local medical clinics or hospitals.
How do FMIR’s respond to emergencies?

1. In an emergency, the first responsibility for the FMIR is to safeguard the safety and wellbeing of program participants. Whatever is necessary is done to assure this, whether this means obtaining prompt and appropriate medical attention, police intervention or protection.

2. The FMIR will report all perceived emergencies to the Department Head. The conversation between the FMIR and the Department Head will determine whether or not the Executive Assistant to the President should be notified. In the event that the Department Head is not available, the Assistant Department Head will be contacted. If neither department-level colleague is available, the FMIR will contact the Executive Assistant to the President. If that office cannot be reached, then the JMU Chief of Police will be contacted. The FMIR will notify the Metro Police about the situation, if this is appropriate; the FMIR will then follow the procedures the police may require of them or the student.

3. During an ongoing crisis, the FMIR will keep the academic department head informed on a regular basis, through telephone, fax, or E-mail messages, about the evolution of the crisis, until it has passed.

4. In the event of a crisis, it is important that all concerned not overreact or panic. The FMIR will help the students to get through a difficult time. The Dean of Students has experience dealing with crises in the past and will be ready to assist the FMIR during and after any type of event or incident. If the situation suggests that it would prove useful, a recommendation that students obtain counseling services might become part of the response plan.

5. If a JMU student or JMU employee is involved in an incident, the FMIR will NOT speak with the media. Instead, the FMIR will refer any media inquiry to University Communications. Upon receiving a media inquiry regarding an incident, the FMIR will notify the Executive Assistant to the President and the Department Head regarding the media inquiry. The Executive Assistant to the President will liaise with University Communications and other relevant JMU personnel to coordinate a response to the media inquiry. Only upon receiving specific authorization from the university would the FMIR reply to media inquiries.

6. After the academic department head is informed about an emergency, and after university officials consult with the FMIR and other appropriate individuals on site, those officials may, depending on the acuteness of the crisis, fax or e-mail a description of the course of action that the FMIR and the students will need to follow. All program participants will be required to sign a statement acknowledging that they have received, read and understood this response plan; after all of the participants have signed, the FMIR will fax the aforementioned university officials the signed acknowledgments.

7. It is highly unlikely that participants would need to be evacuated from the program site, even post September 11. However, JMU would of course bring interns home if a situation were to deteriorate to the point where the degree of risk to participants was deemed unacceptable. If this unlikely event were to happen, university officials, in consultation with the FMIR plus the university’s Chief of Police at the Harrisonburg campus, will develop an evacuation plan in as much detail as possible. This plan will be transmitted to the FMIR in confidence, and the university’s public safety will continue to work closely with the FMIR throughout the process.

8. In the event of a significant crisis, individual interns have the option of returning to Harrisonburg or their home. Every reasonable effort will be made to allow them to continue their academic program on campus, and to be housed appropriately as well. Refund policies are outlined in the faculty handbook for the FMIRs; withdrawals and grades will conform to JMU policies as well.

Observing the procedures outlined here will help our students have the distinctive educational experience afforded by the Washington Semester program.

Office of International Programs

The Semesters in the Overseas London, Antwerp and Florence (Branch Campuses)

The Office of International Programs serves as the central university office concerning international education, with oversight of all James Madison University and non-JMU study abroad programs; visa and reporting processes for international students and scholars; and the development of curricula, faculty experiences and programs that address international issues. The Office of International Studies provides several options for overseas study to include Semester Abroad, Short Term and Exchange opportunities.
The Semester in London (UK), Antwerp (Belgium) and Florence (Italy) are designated as branch campuses. For crime statistics and other safety/security information of these programs see http://www.jmu.edu/pubsafety.righttoknow.shtml. The programs: Semester in Salamanca; Spain; Beijing, China; Edinburg St Andrew, Scotland are not considered branch campuses.

Short-term programs generally run in the summer and occasionally during spring break. Depending on the program parameters, these programs may fall in non-campus reporting requirements.

In exchange programs, students study at one of our partner institutions in Australia, England, Egypt, Japan, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, Italy, Indonesia, Taiwan, France, or the United Arab Emirates while being immersed in the cultures of some of the world’s most exciting and provocative cities. While participating in a JMU exchange program, you will pay room & board to the overseas institution. There is no reporting requirement for these programs.

Policy for Reporting Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics and Developing Information for this Report

The James Madison University Police Department through the Office of Public Safety is charged with the responsibility for collecting data, preparing, and distributing the Annual Security Report and Annual Fire Safety Report. This report was prepared to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. Crime statistics are gathered monthly and annually from the Office of Residence Life and the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice by the Clery Compliance officer. JMU Campus Security Authorities can submit data utilizing an electronic report/survey form located on the JMU Police website. Crime reports can also be transmitted to the JMU Police via fax machine, e-mail or conventional campus mail.

The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report is available electronically at http://www.jmu.edu/pubsafety.righttoknow.shtml. Each year e-mail mail notifications are sent to all enrolled students, employees and affiliates.

Prospective student and employees are informed of the report and how it may be secured through the admissions process and human resources respectively. A report is also made available to the general public upon request.
Clery Act mandated crime statistics for the most recent three-year period reflect crime reports, arrests and referrals, reported to Campus Security Authorities, to include law enforcement agencies with concurrent jurisdiction: the Harrisonburg Police Department (HPD), the Rockingham Sheriff’s Office (RCSO), the local Virginia State Police (VSP) installation, and the Alcoholic Beverage Commission enforcement officers (Virginia ABC), the Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practices and the Office of Residence Life are forwarded to the Clery Compliance officer for inclusion in the Annual Security report and Fire Safety Report. Statistics are gathered for off-campus affiliated organizations such as fraternities and the various campus ministry locations for non-campus properties, on-campus and public areas. The HPD, RCSO, VSP and ABC records personnel are able to supply detailed crime information. The Harrisonburg Police Department, the Rockingham Sheriff’s Office and aforementioned state law enforcement agencies are provided with off campus addresses for which it is required to provide statistics (fraternities, campus ministries, other affiliates and university facilities remote from the main campus). Crime statistics are provided for the geographical categories, e.g., main campus, the residence halls subset, the streets and sidewalks immediately bordering campus (public areas) and non-campus (affiliates and remote university facilities).

Clery Act reporting and disclosures maintains the confidentiality of the victim without the inclusion of personally identifying information about the victim and any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The JMU Police Department submits a report to the Virginia State Police’s and the FBI’s Incident Based Reporting Program (NIBRS) on a monthly basis.

The Clery act is constantly under review and revision. For the latest updates and information use this link to access Clery Center for Security on Campus at http://clerycenter.org/, the non-profit organization established by the Clery family to honor the memory of their daughter.

* Crimes not reported by hierarchy.
An institution may withhold, or subsequently remove, a reported crime from its crime statistics in the rare situations where sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel have fully investigated the reported crime and, based on the results of this full investigation and evidence, have made a formal determination that the crime report is false or baseless and therefore “unfounded”. Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel may “unfound” a crime report for purposes of reporting under this section. The recovery of stolen property, the low value of stolen property, the refusal of the victim to cooperate with prosecution, and the failure to make an arrest do not “unfound” a crime report. This requirement began with 2014 statistics.
Includes referrals from both Office of Residence Life and Office of Student Accountability and Restorative Practice.

Effective July 1, 2015 Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013 (VAWA) amended the Clery Act to require institutions to compile statistics for incidents of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and to include certain policies, procedures, and programs pertaining to these incidents in their annual security reports.

Hate Crimes

Involving crimes or incidents of homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, arson, larceny-theft, simple assault, vandalism, and intimidation against persons characterized as and motivated by the actual or perceived bias, against race, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, national origin, and/or disability.

Geographical Areas: On Campus, Residential Facilities, Non-Campus and Public Property

2014 – There were no reported bias motivated incidents.
2013 – There were no reported bias motivated incidents.
2012 – There were no reported bias motivated incidents.

The Individual’s Responsibility

Although JMU works hard to ensure the safety of all individuals within its community, students and employees must also take responsibility for their own personal safety and that of their personal belongings. Simple, common sense precautions are the most effective means of maintaining personal security.

Although the JMU campus is well lighted and appears safe, all members and guests of the University community, walking across campus or to/from parking lots should remember to use well-lighted paths and avoid isolation. Walk with others. At night, whether male or female, utilize the emergency “blue light” and other courtesy phones plus the university cadet and police escort services. Always be aware that you may be a potential victim of crime. Stay alert and attuned to people and circumstances around you. Students living in residence halls should keep their room doors locked at all times and should never prop open external doors. All guests in the halls should be escorted by a resident at all times.

Do not leave property unattended. Valuable personal property should be engraved with the owner’s vehicle operator’s permit number (not Social Security number) by using equipment available through Residence Life or the Public Safety office. Bicycles should be registered with JMU Police and secured with a lock. Cars should be locked and parked in well-lighted areas with valuable items removed from the vehicle or locked in the trunk. Students and employees should notify JMU Police or residence hall staff of any individual present in a building or on campus that arouses suspicion in any way or appears to have no legitimate business in the area.

Title IX Discrimination & Harassment Complaints

Definitions: Discrimination - Harassment

Procedures for addressing discrimination or harassment are somewhat different for faculty, staff, and students. Addressing sexual harassment also follows a slightly modified procedure.

You may contact the Office of Equal Opportunity at any time with any questions. The OEO can provide information and guidance to students, faculty, staff, or visitors regarding any form of discrimination or harassment.

Getting started:

- For JMU Students experiencing discrimination or harassment.
- For JMU Staff experiencing discrimination or harassment.
- For JMU Faculty experiencing discrimination or harassment.

Complaints against faculty and staff follow JMU Policy 1324: Discrimination and Harassment Complaint Procedures. Visit the OEO’s Policy 1324 page for detailed explanation of the informal and formal complaint procedures.

Complaints against students will be processed through the Office of Student Accountability & Restorative Practices.

Though not required, employees and students are encouraged to attempt initially to resolve complaints informally at the lowest level through the administrative structure of the employment unit or academic department; however, this is not required and complainants can go directly to the formal complaint procedures.

Regarding one-on-one attempts at resolution:

1. If you feel comfortable dealing with the situation without the direct involvement of a third party, you can communicate directly with the person whose behavior is unwelcome.
2. It is appropriate to use face-to-face, individual communication only when you do not feel threatened, there is no risk of physical harm and you believe the other person will be receptive.
3. E-mail is the preferred method of communication. If you choose to communicate face-to-face, you also should send an e-mail, if possible. Keep copies of any written communication.
4. The communication should include:
   1. A factual description of the incident(s) including date, time, place, witnesses and a description of the specific unwelcome behavior.
   2. A description of any consequences you may have suffered due to the unwelcome behavior.
   3. A request that the unwelcome behavior cease.
5. If you do not feel comfortable with individual communication or you believe the communication was not successful, you should consider other informal complaint procedures and formal complaint procedures.
Efforts to stop sexual assault at James Madison University: A summary of progress made during the Fall 2014 semester

JMU has made strides to stop sexual assault. This is a summary of those initiatives.

- Created Title IX Task Force in August 2014. The 14-member group was charged with conducting a comprehensive review of university policies and procedures designed to prevent and adjudicate cases of sexual assault.
  - Title IX Task Force members include: Josh Bacon, Office of Student Accountability & Restorative Practices, Tricia Crocker, Counseling Center, Art Dean, Campus & Community Programs for Access & Inclusion, Maggie Evans, Executive Assistant to the President, Teresa Gonzalez, Vice Provost, Donna Harper, Access & Inclusion; Co-Chair, Liz Howley, University Health Center, Andy Perrine, Communications & Marketing, James Robinson, Title IX Coordinator, Lee Shifflett, Campus Police, Mark Warner, Student Affairs & University Planning, Susan Wheeler, University Counsel; Co-Chair, Diane Yerian, Human Resources and Wendy Young, Office of Student Accountability & Restorative Practices.

- The Title IX Task Force immediately reviewed the policy and definitions guiding the university’s Sexual Misconduct Accountability Process. The Office of Student Accountability & Restorative Practices is responsible for administering this process, and major changes include:
  - Added new definitions of behavior covered in the Sexual Misconduct Policy,
  - Revised hearing board to three members now called the Sexual Misconduct Accountability Review board,
  - Advisors for the accuser and the accused will now be provided.

- The Title IX Task Force also reviewed the following to assure university compliance:
  - The report of The White House Task Force to Protect Students from Sexual Assault,
  - The guidelines issued by the Office for Civil Rights at the Department of Education,
  - The OCR’s “Dear Colleague” letter,
  - The standards established by the Commonwealth Attorney General’s Office
  - The Violence Against Women Act report.

- As a result of the comprehensive review, university policy 1324, “Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct,” is undergoing significant revisions. A revised policy will be issued during the Spring semester 2015.

- The Classified Employee Handbook is under review to assure consistency with changing university policy.

- A subcommittee of the Title IX Task Force was created to explore appropriate materials and modes for mandatory training on sexual misconduct for faculty, staff and students (all freshmen currently receive training through HAVEN).
  - Subcommittee members include: JoAnn Benjamin, Audrey Burnett, Tricia Crocker, Art Dean, Chris Ehrhart, Carol Hurney, Wendy Lushbaugh, James Robinson and Jenny Toth.

- The Task Force is reviewing training and procedures for all Title IX officers. As a result of this review, the university will add new Title IX officers to better assist with handling student complaints.

- A subcommittee of the Title IX Task Force was created to investigate and develop a comprehensive university sexual assault climate survey to potentially be implemented in Spring 2015.
Subcommittee members include: Matt Ezzell, Donna Harper, Liz Howley, Kimberly Johnson, David Jones, Charity O’Connor, Andy Perrine, James Robinson, Katherine Ott Walter, Diane Yerian, Tracy Zinn

Policy 2301 related to university summer camps held at the university for minors is under revision to include mandatory training for those responsible for the camp.

Academic Affairs created a Task Force to review university policies and procedures related to complaints filed by faculty (update needed to Faculty Handbook)

Academic Affairs Task Force Members include: Audrey Burnett, Laura Leduc, Matt Ezzell, Doug Harrison, David Brakke, Melissa Aleman (Chair), Kim Foreman and Jane Thall.

Fire Safety Report

“Your Right to Know”
http://www.jmu.edu/pubsafety/righttoknow.shtml
October 1, 2015

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) requires two new safety-related requirements on institutions that participate in federal student financial aid programs which follow:

Fire Log: Institutions must keep a fire log that states the nature of the fire, date, time, and general location of each fire in on-campus student housing facilities.

Annual Fire Safety Report: Institutions with on-campus student housing facilities must publish annually a fire safety report that provides information on campus fire safety practices and standards.

Fire Safety Oversight

While fire safety is the responsibility of each of us as members of the campus community, the oversight of fire prevention rests with the Office of Public Safety. The safety coordinator working through the Office of Risk Management provides consistent monitoring and compliance enforcement of all applicable fire and safety laws, codes, best work practices and standards in all campus facilities and on the campus grounds. The Safety Coordinator is a liaison with other departments, outside agencies of public safety, and the University community and is responsible for compliance and reporting of the Annual Fire Safety Report. The Safety Coordinator ensures that all constituencies have been properly informed as to correct safety measures and reporting procedures and maintains Master Fire Safety Plans. The Safety Coordinator tracks pending Fire Safety oriented state and federal legislation and prepares, schedules, and conducts compliance awareness sessions for appropriate senior campus officials on matters pertaining to fire safety and schedules, coordinates and conducts semi-annual fire safety inspection of all campus facilities in cooperation with the State Fire Marshal’s representative.

Reporting

All fire-related incidents should be reported to the James Madison University Police Department Communications Division for response and documentation. The Communication Division is maintained 24 hours a day, seven days a week and is responsible for monitoring all fire alarms. Fire alarm panels monitoring all residence halls are located in the communication center. If a fire occurs in any building, community members should immediately notify the JMU Police Communication Center by dialing 6911 from any on-campus telephone or (540-568-6911) from any cell phone or off-campus telephone. The telephone call will initiate a response from the University police department through a network of speed-dialed lines providing direct access to Harrisonburg/Rockingham Emergency Services for local and state law enforcement, fire and rescue services which can summon the fire department quickly.

If a member of the JMU community finds evidence of a fire that has been extinguished, the community member should immediately notify JMU Police Department Communications to document the incident and begin the process of investigation.

Evacuation

The JMU campus fire alarm systems alert community members of potential hazards. Community members are required to heed an activated fire alarm system and/or upon notification by Public Safety or a Building Coordinator to evacuate the building immediately. The fire alarm system provides audible and visible notification. A loud buzzer and flashing strobe lights notify occupants that the fire alarm system has been activated.
When the fire alarm activates, all occupants should ensure that nearby persons are aware of the emergency, quickly proceed from their current location to a marked EXIT.

1. When the building evacuation alarm is activated during an emergency, leave by the nearest marked exit and alert others to do the same.

2. Feel doors for heat – don’t open doors that are warm to touch. If you cannot exit due to fire and/or smoke place items around door openings to prevent smoke from entering the area and call 568-6911 and give your exact location.

3. Assist the handicapped into an “AREA OF RESCUE” in the building.

4. If you must exit through smoke stay low and crawl – the air at floor level is less hot and cleaner.

5. All occupants should know where primary and alternative exits are located, and be familiar with the various evacuation routes available. Floor plans with escape routes, alternate escape routes, exit locations and designated meeting sites are posted in conspicuous locations throughout the building.

6. Elevators must NOT be used to evacuate the building in the event of an emergency. Occupants should use the stairs to evacuate the building. If you are caught in the elevator, push the emergency phone button. The emergency phones in elevators on campus connect to the JMU Police Communication Center.

7. Exit the building and proceed to designated meeting sites. Once outside, proceed to a clear area that is at least 500 feet away from the affected building. Keep streets, fire lanes, hydrant areas and walkways clear for emergency vehicles and personnel. Know your area assembly points. Stay there until an accurate head count attendance is taken and assist in the accounting for all building occupants.

8. Do NOT re-enter the building until directed to do so by University Police or Fire Department personnel.

Regulations/Policy

Smoking Regulations

Smoking is not permitted within buildings, facilities, structures, or vehicles owned, leased or rented by the university, including parking garages, covered walkways, temporary enclosed structures, trailers, and tents as well as structures placed on state-owned property by contractors or vendors. Smoking is permitted outdoors on university grounds, plazas, sidewalks, malls and similar open pedestrian-ways, unless such areas are designated as non-smoking areas, provided smokers are 25 feet or more in distance away from an entrance or exit of any facility, including parking garages. Smokers are required to use ash urns to dispose of their smoking material waste, and are prohibited from littering state-owned property with smoking material waste.

Candles, Incense and Open Flames

Candles, incense and other items producing an open flame or ember may not be burned in residence halls. Residents may not have candles of any kind in their hall. Violations may be subject to disciplinary action and/or fines.

Electrical Appliances

To prevent fire hazards, the State Fire Marshal’s Office and the Office of Public Safety established the following policies to reduce the possibility of electrical-related fires.

These appliances and items are prohibited in residence halls:

- Air conditioners
- Any appliances with an open heating element
- Ceiling fans
- Coffee makers without automatic shut-off
- Electrical cords under carpets
- Extension cords
- Fuel-powered equipment
- Gasoline, propane, flammable liquids or gases
- Halogen lamps
- Hot plates
- Keg refrigeration devices
- Microwave ovens
- Refrigerators larger than 4.4 cubic feet
- Sandwich grills
- Space heaters
- Toaster ovens
- Wireless routers
- Only one refrigerator (no more than 4.4 cubic feet) is permitted per room.

Any appliance with a heavy electrical draw, such as a hair dryer, an iron, a television or a refrigerator, is to be plugged directly into an outlet or surge protector.

Curtains

Any curtains or drapes in student rooms must be fire treated or made from fabric that is fire retardant. If curtains are fire treated, students must have proof of treatment. This proof can be an attached manufacturers tag, a receipt for professional treatment or the can of spray treatment used. No draperies should be hung at or near doorways. Hanging or suspending any type of paper or fabric from the ceiling is prohibited.

Students found with inappropriate appliances/items in their room or suite will have 24 hours to remove the items and may be subject to a $50 fine if they do not promptly remove the items. A follow-up inspection will occur to verify removal.

Training

Hall Directors and Resident Advisors are assigned to each residence hall. These individuals receive training from the Office of Public Safety at the beginning of each school year outlining fire and emergency evacuation procedures. Hall Directors and Resident Advisors also participate in a training program provided by the Harrisonburg Fire Department providing hands on training stressing fire safety as part of their orientation process.

On the day students move into their on-campus residence halls, they are required to attend a community meeting with their Resident Advisers (RA). At that one hour meeting, the RA outlines fire and emergency evacuation procedures, distributes a fire safety instructional brochure, and discusses policies and procedures regarding electrical appliances, smoking, and open flames. Students also receive a copy of the ORL Guidebook Calendar that contains policies and procedures regarding fire and personal safety.

The James Madison University’s Comprehensive Safety Plan can be located at http:www.jmu.edu.safetyplan.fire.index.shtml and provides in depth information on fire safety to the JMU community.

Fire Drills

A fire drill is a “supervised practice of a mandatory evacuation of a building for a fire”. Properly conducted fire drills can help minimize problems if an actual fire emergency occurs. Fire evacuation diagrams are posted on each residence hall floor and an education program is conducted during the first week of each semester.

Each residence hall must hold a pre-announced, walk-through fire drill during the first few days of each semester. During each pre-announced fire drill, staff members will be required to open doors to all residence hall rooms to ensure evacuation and check for possible safety issues. JMU mandates at least one unannounced fire drill in every residence hall every eight weeks.

Residence hall staff members may make a room-by-room check to ensure that all occupants leave the building in the event of any fire alarm. Residents are not permitted to re-enter the building until authorized to do so by Campus Police or the fire department. Students may be held responsible for violations found during fire alarms or room inspections.
Violations

False Alarms

Residence halls are completely evacuated for all fire alarms. No student may activate any alarm or attempt to manipulate any electrical or mechanical device for the purpose of creating a false fire alarm.

Failure to Evacuate

No student may disregard a fire alarm signal or refuse to evacuate a building or a section of a building where a fire alarm is sounding. This is a violation of Commonwealth law and can result in judicial action and/or a fine.

Tampering with Fire Safety Equipment or Devices

No student may operate or tamper with any firefighting equipment without authorization, except for the purpose of extinguishing a fire. In addition, no student may tamper with or otherwise misuse any fire detection or early warning device, emergency lighting, evacuation systems, or emergency telephones. Tampering with or misusing such items is a violation of Commonwealth laws and can result in judicial action and/or a fine.

Obstruction of Fire Evacuation Routes

Due to fire safety regulations, students may not store loft bed construction materials, boxes, trash, bicycles, furniture or other items in hallways or other public areas or within 18 inches of the ceiling in a sprinkled building and 24 inches of the ceiling in a non-sprinkled building. No student may purposefully prevent someone from swiftly and safely evacuating a building. No student may enter or exit from a fire escape except during a fire drill or in the case of an actual fire.

Fireworks, Explosives and Flammable Substances

Possessing, storing or using any fireworks or explosives is strictly prohibited. This is a violation of Commonwealth law and can result in judicial action and/or a fine.

Definitions

Fire:

Rapid oxidation of combustible material accompanied by heat, light and smoke of combustible material, which is found outside of its normal appliance, whether or not it is extinguished prior to arrival of emergency; any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.

Fire-related Deaths:

Number of persons who were fatalities because of a fire incident, including death resulting from a natural or accidental cause while involved in fire control, attempting a rescue, or persons escaping from the fire scene (an individual who dies within one (1) year of injuries sustained as a result of a fire.

Fire-related injury:

Number of persons receiving injuries from fire-related incidents, including an injury from a natural or accidental cause who received medical treatment at a local medical facility. This includes first responders attempting to control the fire, attempting a rescue, or persons escaping from the fire scene. Persons may include students, faculty, staff, visitors, firefighters, or any other individual.

Fire drill:

A supervised practice of a mandatory evacuation of a building for a fire.
Cause of fire:

The factor or factors that give rise to a fire. The causal factor may be, but is not limited to, the result of an intentional or unintentional action, mechanical failure, or act of nature.

Value of property damage:

The estimated value of the loss of the structure and contents, in terms of the cost of replacement in like kind and quantity. This estimate should include contents damaged by fire, and related damages caused by smoke, water, and overhaul; however, it does not include indirect loss, such as business interruption.

Fire safety system:

Any mechanism or system related to the detection of a fire, the warning resulting from a fire, or the control of a fire. This may include sprinkler systems or other fire extinguishing systems, fire detection devices, stand-alone smoke alarms, devices that alert one to the presence of a fire, such as horns, bells, or strobe lights; smoke-control and reduction mechanisms; and fire doors and walls that reduce the spread of a fire.

On-campus Student Housing Fire Safety Systems

Any student housing facility that is owned or controlled by the institution, or is located on property that is owned or controlled by the institution, and is within the reasonably contiguous geographic area that makes up the campus is considered an on-campus student housing facility.

Daily Fire Log

The safety coordinator working through the office of Risk Management and Public Safety maintains the James Madison University Daily Fire Log and posts specific incidents within two (2) business days of receiving a report of an incident and reserves the right to exclude reports from a log in certain circumstances as permitted by law. The Fire Log is kept electronically and can be found on site at the James Madison University Police Department located in Anthony Seeger Hall and also at the Office of Risk Management located at 131 Grace Street Harrisonburg, Virginia for public inspection, upon request, during normal business hours.

The Daily Fire Log contains:

1. The number and cause of each fire in an on-campus student housing facility.

   Unintentional Fire - A fire that does not involve an intentional human act to ignite or spread into an area where the fire should not be.
- Cooking - grease fire on stove top, oven or a microwave fire.
- Smoking materials – discarded lit cigarette butt.
- Open flames- candles.
- Electrical- electrical arcing overheated electrical motor.
- Heating equipment- heating stoves, space heaters, fireplaces, furnaces and water heaters.
- Hazardous products- spontaneous combustion or chemical reactions.
- Machinery/Industrial- heat from friction (e.g. fan belts) or cutting and welding.
- Natural – fires that result from natural phenomenon such as lightning, tornadoes, and earthquakes
- Other- fireworks, paper caps, party poppers, sunlight (usually magnified through glass or a bottle).

Intentional Fire – A fire that is ignited, or that results from the deliberate action, in circumstances where the person knows there should not be a fire.

Undetermined Fire – A fire in which the cause cannot be determined

2. The number of deaths related to the fire in an on-campus student housing facility.

3. The number of injuries related to a fire in an on-campus student housing facility that resulted in treatment at a medical facility.

4. The value of property damage related to the fire.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

POLICE/FIRE/MEDICAL EMERGENCY DIAL: 540-568-6911
Dial 6911 from any on-campus phone or 540-442-6911 if phone circuits are down. Use the LiveSafe smart phone app.

FIRE
* Activate the nearest fire alarm pull station and call 568-6911 if possible to report the location and cause of the fire if known.
* EVERYONE MUST LEAVE IMMEDIATELY when a fire alarm is activated, even if there are no obvious signs of an emergency!
* DO NOT use the elevator!
* Remain calm and assist others in safely getting out.
* Confine the fire by closing all doors and windows if possible.
* Extinguish the fire if you have been trained and it is safe to do so.
* Evacuate the building to a safe location away from the structure.
* Take any personal belongings you may need with you. (including wallets, purses, keys, cell phones, etc.)
* If circumstances permit, secure your area by closing doors and locking them if you would normally do so when you leave for the day.
* Follow directions given by emergency personnel and respond to location designated by your building coordinator outside the structure to await further instructions and so that everyone can be easily accounted for before leaving the area.
* Do not re-enter until authorized to do so.

OFFICIAL JMU COMMUNICATIONS
During a campus emergency, JMU will distribute information to the campus community utilizing the following methods:
* Madison ALERT - Campus Horn & PA System
* JMU Radio AM-1610 Broadcasts
* JMU Web page at www.jmu.edu
* Blast e-mail to "__@jmu.edu" accounts
* SMS Text Messages to registered users through My Madison
  > Faculty & Staff
  > Students
* Building Coordinators
* ORL Hall Directors & Resident Advisers
* Interdepartmental & Building Phone Trees
* Emergency FAX Notifications to JMU Departments
* Police Loudspeakers and PA Systems
* JMU Lightning Prediction System "RED ALERT" Horns
* Local Media/Campus TV/Radio Broadcasts

HOSTILE INTRUDER RUN-HIDE-FIGHT
RUN
* Have an escape route in mind. Leave your belongings behind. Evacuate regardless of whether others agree to follow.
* Help others escape if possible. Do not attempt to move the wounded. Prevent others from entering an area where the active shooter may be.

HIDE
* Hide in an area out of the shooter’s view. Lock door or block entry to your hiding place. Silence your cell phone (including vibrate) and remain quiet.

FIGHT
* Fight as a last resort only when your life is in imminent danger.
* Attempt to incapacitate the shooter.
* Act with as much physical aggression as possible.
* Improvise weapons or throw items at the shooter.
* Commit to your actions... Your life depends on it.

When Law Enforcement Arrives
* Remain calm and follow instructions.
* Drop items in hands. Raise hands and spread fingers. Keep hands visible at all times.
* Avoid quick movements toward officers such as holding on to them for safety.
* Avoid pointing, screaming or yelling.
* Do not ask questions when evacuating.

WEATHER EMERGENCY
* Listen for the JMU Lightning Prediction System’s audible air horn alarms:
  SINGLE 15-second air horn blast - RED ALERT
  THREE 5-second air horn blasts - ALL CLEAR
* Seek shelter inside a building until notified by University officials that it is safe to leave.
* If flooding occurs, seek higher ground and avoid walking through standing or moving water.
