

James Madison University
Student Officials Association Member Benefits

Non-Active Members (Officials who have not been invited) Benefits

1. Officiate all intramural contests
2. Eligible for Student Officials Association Incentive Program
 - a) No exception to receiving extra points
3. Eligible for officiating community games, sport club events, fraternity/sorority events, extramural tournaments after all active members are scheduled.
4. Not required to attend a monthly meetings

Active Members (Officials who have been invited and pay the $30.00 yearly Membership Fee) Benefits

1. Officiate all intramural contests
2. Eligible for Student Officials Association Incentive Program
 - a) Officials will receive 1.5 incentive points for each intramural game officiated
 - b) Officials will receive 2.5 incentive points for each community game, sport club event, fraternity/sorority event, or extramural tournament officiated.
3. Eligible for officiating community games, sport club events, fraternity/sorority events, extramural tournaments.
 - a) Active members will receive first priority to these events.
4. Officials will receive the official t-shirt for the Student Officials Association
5. Officials will receive an officials jersey and the official Student Officials Patch
6. Active members are required to attend monthly meetings. (Approximately 1 hour in length)
7. After a year, active members can apply for a certification or professional development grant.

Active Members (Officials who have been invited and pay the $30.00 yearly Membership Fee) Requirements

1. Pay $30 yearly membership fee.
2. Actively officiate intramural sports. In order for officials to be actively officiating intramural sports, officials need to officiate a minimum of 2 shifts a week.
3. Officials will need to officiate a minimum of 1 community league and 1 tournament a year.
4. Officials will need to participate in the organization and implementation of all fundraising events.