Approved for Reentry _____

REENTRY TO THE UNIVERSITY

Degree-seeking students who have not attended JMU for one or more semesters and who wish to return to their studies at JMU are classified as re-entry students. The re-entry process is contingent upon the student's length of absence and academic standing at the time of departure. The Intent to Enroll Form must be submitted in person or postmarked by the indicated deadline for the anticipated semester of return. All registration holds must be cleared before the student will be eligible to register.

Deadlines for Submission of Intent to Enroll Forms

Fall Semester	July 1
Spring Semester	November 1
Summer Session	April 1

Reentry after Absence Exceeding Two Calendar Years

Students who wish to reenter after an absence of two or more calendar years, regardless of their academic standing at the time of departure, must apply for readmission through the Office of Admissions, James Madison University, MSC 0101, Harrisonburg, VA 22807. Readmission is not automatic but subject to Admission Committee review of the application, the personal statement citing the reason for absence, and evaluation of work completed at JMU as well as work completed at other institutions during the student's absence from JMU.

Reentry after Absence of Less than Two Calendar Years

Students in Good Standing

Students who left the university in good standing and who have been absent for one semester or more without declaring a formal leave of absence must submit an "Intent to Enroll" form.

Students in good standing who have declared a formal leave of absence will be automatically reactivated and eligible to register for the stated semester of return without further action on their part (provided resolution of outstanding registration holds).

Students on Probation

Students who left the university on academic probation and who have been absent for one semester or more must submit an "Intent to Enroll" form directly to the Director of Academic Student Services, MSC 7503. A personal statement citing the reason for departure and interim activities must accompany the form. Re-entry and continued enrollment are not guaranteed, but contingent upon review by an academic review committee chaired by the Director of Academic Student Services. Such review may result in denial or conditional re-entry.

Students on Suspension

Students who leave the university on a first academic suspension may follow the appeal process stated in their suspension notification or apply for re-entry after the suspension period. A personal statement citing the reason for departure and interim activities must accompany all Intent to Enroll Forms. Submit all documents to the Director of Academic Student Services, MSC 7503. Re-entry and continued enrollment are not guaranteed, but contingent upon review by an academic review committee chaired by the Director of Academic Student Services. Such review may result in denial or conditional re-entry.
