

2009 Festival of Lights

at the

Mormon Temple

Mormon Temple & Fair Oaks Mall

Thursday, December 10, 2009

Celebrate the season with a day of shopping and beauty. First we begin with shopping and lunch at Fair Oaks Mall, followed by spectacular decorations at the Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Stroll among more than 500,000 Christmas lights and a live outdoor Nativity Scene at the 32nd annual Festival of Lights. Inside the Temple Visitors' Center you will see elegantly decorated trees, many with an international theme. Traditional crèches featuring nativity scenes from over 30 countries are also on exhibit. In addition, there are interactive exhibits, kiosks, films, videos, sculptures and paintings to be enjoyed.

This additional $5.00 check should be made payable to James Madison University. Non-member guests can pay a one-year membership for $15.00, plus the cost of the trip, and not have to wait until 21 days before a trip.

Responsibility on Tours and Class Trips: The tours and class-associated field trips of the JMU-LLI require walking and the physical capability to access sites that may have structural obstacles. By participating, members understand that should they require personal assistance to participate in tours/field trips, they are responsible for securing such assistance. That responsibility includes registering a person with Lifelong Learning Institute who can and will be totally responsible for providing all assistance. That person must register as a member and pay the cost of the tour/trip.
