

STUDENT SUCCESS CONFERENCE

PAST PROGRAMS

Preparing Citizens in an Everchanging World (2007)

- The Global Citizenship Program: Primer for an International Learning Experience
- Finances and the Real World
- Project Success: Academic Affairs and Student Affairs Helping Probationary Students Succeed
- Student Success Plans at Longwood: Enrollment Management and Retention go from First to Second Gear
- Developing Diversity Skills: Discussions on Culture and Experiences
- Conflict Resolution in the Workplace
- Second Year Student Success Retreat: Integrating Personal, Academic and Career Goals
- Enhancing the First Year of College: BRCC Learning Communities
- First Impressions/Setting the Stage for a Semester of Success
- Communication Confidence and Academic Success: The Role of Communication Centers
- PictureIt JMU: Exploring the Undergraduate Experience Through Student Images and Discussions
- Using Critical Reflection to Develop the Whole Person
- The Cynthia Tyson Leadership Series
- Keeping it Real: Closing the Loop on Engaged Learning
- Interactive Diversity Education: Promoting the Recognition of Diversity

2002-2006

Conference cancelled due to travel freezes and budget cuts

Advising and Mentoring: Steering Student Success in Virginia (2002)

- “Good Grief!”: Mentoring Positive Transitions
- Motivision? Supervation?
- Mentoring First Year Students: Learning Communities at JMU
- “How to Get Student Buy in at no Cost.”
- Connected not Suspended: Service Learning with a Twist
- Partners in Success: The International TA Language Consultant Program
- Mentoring for Academically At-risk Students
- Establishing and Extending Partnerships: The Leadership 2002 Experience
- Partnership of Pride: Organizations Working Together on LGBT Issues
- Enhancing the Mentoring Process Using Reflection and Meaning Making
- Is There Really a Such Thing as a Decided Student?
- “When One Plus One Equals Three.”
- Designing for a Successful Peer Tutoring Program

Redefining Student Success in Virginia (2001)

- “Budgeting, Credit and Bills, OH MY!”
- Go On, Take the Money and STAY: How Financial Aid Packages Can Positively Impact Student Retention on Your Campus
- Undeclared Undergraduate Students in Good Academic Standing: Why Do They Leave?
- Retaining Community College Students: Best Practices in Virginia
- Advising, Teaching, and Retaining the Adult Learner
- Collaborative Management of Minority Retention in a University Life Program

- Improving Retention by Assessing, Understanding and Intervening in Freshman Academic Difficulty
- Advisory, Teacher, and Mentor: A Preliminary Report on Undeclared Early Identification (EIP) Students
- Model Minority? Perpetual Foreigner?: The ABC/D's of Serving Asian Pacific American Students
- Impacting Student Retention Through Team Development
- Key Elements to a Successful Student Retention Program
- Supplemental Instruction: A Successful Course-Based Approach to Retention
- A Co-Curricular Culture: The Key to Creating a College Culture Conducive to Student Success
- Academic Probation Program: Using Learning Contracts to Promote Retention and Responsibility
- Taking Responsibility for Retention: Redefining the Role of Student Affairs
- Conversations on "Making Students Feel They Matter"
- Articulation Agreements Between 2 year and 4 year Institutions: A Win for the Student, the Community College and the University

Markers and Milestones: Measuring Student Success in Virginia (2000)

- Improving the First Year of College: Assessing Institutional Philosophy, Policy and Practice
- Exploring the Relationship of Student Success with Staff Success
- Turning Assumptions into Assessment
- Planning Your Assessment Program
- Evaluating Service/Evaluating Learning
- Focus Groups Deepening our Understanding of Student Success
- Recapturing the High Ground: The Assessment of Civic Virtue
- Learning Together: Partnering for Improving Performance in Student Services
- Moving From Numbers to Action: The Analysis of Attrition Factors and Development of Findings and Recommendations to Curb Attrition
- Assessing the Student Leader Experience
- Passport to Success: Measurement and Achievements for the New Millennium
- Doctoral Study in Assessment and Measurement at James Madison University
- On-Line Surveys: Assessing with Economy and Appeal
- Students with LD and ADHD Can Be Effective Learners: Results of a Model Demonstration Program
- Promoting Student Learning and Accountability
- An Hour With Karl Schilling: Post Keynote Address Discussion
- Going Full Circle with Leadership Assessment
- Focus Groups: Using OUR Skills in Assessment and Research
- Learning With/Without a Classroom

Building Bridges Between Academic and Student Affairs (1999)

- Assisting Sisyphus: Collaboration, Innovation, and Freshmen Success
- VCU Career Connections: Maximizing University and Community Services for Students with Disabilities
- Student Life and Academic Affairs: A Seamless Transition for First Year Students
- A Bridge Well Built: Powerful Partnerships between Faculty and Residence Life
- Building and Maintaining a Service Learning Program
- FIGs Can Be Fun, FIGs Can Be Fruitful
- Building Natural and Logical Bridges between Housing, Student Affairs and Academic Affairs: Focused Communities at the University of Virginia

- Acknowledging the Whole Person: Bridging the Gap for Student Success
- Assessment for Success
- Career Journey: First Year Online Career Orientation
- C.M./A.A.S.A: Another Dimension of School Spirit
- And Now for Something (Almost) Completely Different: VCU's New Freshman Seminar TextKit
- Charles C. Schroeder
- Creating Synergy between Academic and Student Affairs: Developing Student Leaders
- Holistic Learning Partnerships
- Shaping New Perceptions: The WILL Program and Women Students at the University of Richmond
- Further Conversations with Dr. Charles Schroeder
- Leading Outside the Lines
- The Experience of Interdisciplinary Team-Teaching
- Fables, Labels and Folding Tables: Book Signing

Mapping a New Direction: Student Success in Virginia (1998)

- Orchestrating Computer Success
- Further Conversations with John Gardner
- "Transitions": An Enrichment Game Plan for Entering Student Athletes
- Longwood College Learning Communities to Increase Student Success
- Academic Success for Students with Mild Disabilities
- A Winning Combination: Recruitment and Retention Strategies That Work
- A Broader Concept of Student Orientation: The Developmental Advising Inventory
- Student Success in Practice
- The Info Bits Program
- Service to Work: Making the Transition from Campus to Career Utilizing Community Service
- Transitioning Special Needs Students for Success
- Academic Advising and Career Development: An Integrated Program Model
- The Residence Halls: Venue for Academic Success
- Peer Advising Spells Success
- First Year Involvement (FYI)
- Creating an Environment for Transition: A Multi-stage Orientation Program
- RU Connections: Integrating the Student Success Learning Experience
- Virginia Tech's The W.E.L.L.: A Living Experience and Taking Flight with VA Tech's WING Program
- A Collaborative Model for Dealing with Academically "At-Risk" Students
- Gateways to Success for Students with Disabilities
- Contributing to the Success of International Students