

Beyond the Classroom

March 1st and April 10th - Beyond the Classroom, Part I and II

(Commonwealth Autism Service, Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport, and T/TAC collaboration)

Have you ever wondered how to develop materials that will help you teach functional life skills? Or how to develop data sheets to show that a student is making progress on his/her functional IEP goals? If so, you have to attend this 2-part workshop.

- Part I - March 1st - Beyond the Classroom: Social Narratives and Task Analysis
 - A one-day workshop designed to teach participants how to create and implement social narratives and task analyses for teaching functional life skills and community involvement. *Mandatory attendance for April 10th participation.
 - Time: 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.
 - Location: American Frontier Culture Museum, Staunton, VA
 - Cost: $20 (Lunch included)
- Part II - April 10th - Beyond the Classroom: Airport Exploration
 - A day of exploration at the Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport. Participants of Part I will have an opportunity to bring students with autism to the airport to practice a real TSA security check, wait at the airport, and board an airplane. Participants must have completed a social narrative or task analysis prior to this training. (Limit of 40 students for the day)
 - Time: 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
 - Location: Shenandoah Valley Regional Airport, Weyers Cave
 - Cost: Free with attendance of Part 1
