

SAVE THE DATE

~ for ~

“Bullying Prevention in the Promotion of a Positive School Climate: Effective Principles and Practices”

Wednesday, June 20, 2012

Charlottesville, Virginia

Presentations by national and state experts on bullying prevention and school climate:

We will explore translation from theory to research to implementation in Virginia schools and:

- Legislative and liability updates on bullying
 - Research on what works
- Practical approaches for school improvement

~ for ~

Superintendents, principals, and other administrators ; school support professionals, including school counselors, nurses, prevention and student assistance specialists, psychologists, and social workers; school resource officers; and teachers

Online registration will begin April 2, 2012. Fee: $25 per person.

Website and more details to come.

Sponsored by:

The Virginia Department of Education ✎ The Virginia Department of Health ✎
Safe Schools/Healthy Students of Albemarle/Charlottesville ✎ Bullying Research Network ✎
Youth-Nex | The University of Virginia Center to Promote Effective Youth Development ✎

Confirmed Speakers

Catherine Bradshaw – Associate Professor, Department of Mental Health, Deputy Director, Johns Hopkins Center for the Prevention of Youth Violence

Dorothy Espelage – Professor of Child Development, College of Education, University of Illinois

Susan Limber – Dan Olweus Distinguished Professor in the Institute on Family and Neighborhood Life (IFNL), Clemson University

Susan Swearer – Associate Professor, Department of Educational Psychology, University of Nebraska

Dewey Cornell – Clinical Psychologist, Professor of Education, and Youth-Nex Associate Director, Curry School of Education, University of Virginia

June Jenkins – Project Director, Safe Schools/Healthy Students Albemarle/Charlottesville Project