8. Speaking and Listening: Follows directions and communicates effectively with customers and fellow employees

Objective: The child will develop speaking and listening skills.

Activities:

1. Engage in back and forth conversations of topics of interest with your child such as favorite toys, friends, books, pets, school activities, etc. Remember to have uninterrupted times of the day to fully attend to your child (turn all electronics off – TV, radio, cell phones, computer, etc.).
2. Play follow direction games with one or two step directions; Simon Says, Hokey Pokey, Mother May I.
3. Read books to your child. Have them reread the book using pictures.
