

Learn what you can do about Disability History and Awareness by visiting <http://www.virginiaselfadvocacy.org>.

Check out the Encyclopedia of American Disability History from the T/TAC library.

Check out Modules 1 and 2 on the I'm Determined website at www.imdetermined.org/modules. Scroll down to Webquest on Module 2. You will find ideas for integrating disability history into the curriculum, the Museum of disABILITY, and be able to read a blog of a young adult with a disability.

LIVES WORTH LIVING PREMIERES ON THE PBS SERIES INDEPENDENT LENS ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2011 AT 10 PM

Powerful Documentary Chronicles the History of America's Disability Rights Movement
Additional information: <http://pressroom.pbs.org/Programs/i/INDEPENDENT-LENS/1303-Lives-Worth-Living.aspx>