

The Shenandoah Valley Transition Council

PRESENTS

What Will They Do After We're Gone? Lessons on Special Needs Planning

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2010

3:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Augusta Health Conference Center
Fishersville, Virginia

Target Audience: Transition Specialists, Adult Service Providers, Other
Transition Providers

This is a similar workshop to a presentation that is being offered to families.

FEATURING:

Ann McGee Green, Attorney at Law

Ann is an attorney who focuses her practice in the areas of elder law, guardianship, and "Special Needs Planning". She published a series of articles in Special Education Today on estate planning for those who are disabled. In 2008, she published an article on transition planning in Exceptional Parent Magazine. She will provide the audience helpful information on the following topics:

Transfer of Rights – Age of Majority
Guardianship including Power of Attorney
Estate Planning
Long Term Care
Medicaid Waivers
Special Needs Trusts
Wills

There is no cost for this presentation.

Registration is required.

Space is limited to 50 participants.

For more information you may contact: Sally Chappel at chappesl@jmu.edu / 540.568.8095 or Charlie Downs at 540.949.6752.

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION'S TRAINING AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CENTER AT JAMES MADISON UNIVERSITY, THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY AUTISM PARTNERSHIP AND THE AUGUSTA HEALTH FOUNDATION FOR SUPPORTING THIS PRESENTATION.

What Will They Do After We're Gone? Lessons on Special Needs Planning

SIGN UP NOW!

Registration Deadline: October 26, 2010

Return registration form to Susan Bowman,
Region 5 T/TAC @ JMU, MSC 9002
Harrisonburg, VA 22807

SPACE IS LIMITED
TO 50!

Fax: 540.568.6726 Phone: 540.568.8843
Email: bowmansp@jmu.edu

Name: _____

(Check One)

Transition Specialist _____

Adult Service Provider _____

Other _____

Mailing Address: _____
Street or PO Box

City

State

Zip Code

Phone (w/area code): _____ Email: _____

School Division/Agency: _____

Reasonable accommodations requests (including interpreting services):

(Requests needed by October 26, 2010)

Space is limited to the first 50 registrations. No walk-ins or on-site registration available. Registration confirmation and directions will be sent one week prior to the event. Contact Susan Bowman if you do not receive a confirmation by November 3rd.