2010
WOMEN'S STUDIES
FEMINIST SCHOLARSHIP
AWARDS

The Women's Studies Program is pleased to announce open submissions for the Women's Studies Feminist Scholarship Award for Faculty and the first Women's Studies Feminist Scholarship for Undergraduates.

Award: $500 (for faculty) $250 (for students)
Deadline: March 17, 2010

Submission Process for Faculty:
Submit the following in electronic form to thompsmx@jmu.edu:
1. a cover letter specifying feminist contributions of project
2. a curriculum vitae
3. an abstract of the submitted project
4. a copy of the published or unpublished project

Submission Process for Students:
Submit the following in electronic form to thompsmx@jmu.edu:
1. a cover letter specifying feminist contributions of project
2. an abstract of the submitted project (in the case of work from an honors thesis, please submit a summary of the larger project)
3. a copy of the project; limit 20 pages (if submitting work from an honors thesis, please submit only one chapter)

Items not available in electronic form may be submitted to Mary Thompson at MSC 1801. Materials will be returned upon request.

Selection Committee:
The Women's Studies Advisory Board
Decision Date: April 21, 2010

Eligible Faculty Projects:
New or published creative or analytical work by members of the JMU faculty or research staff

Eligible Student Projects:
New or published creative or analytical work authored or co-authored by JMU undergraduate(s) (work co-authored with a faculty member will not be considered)

Purpose:
To recruit, encourage and support feminist scholarship in the JMU community from both emerging and established scholars.

Decision Criteria:
1. Originality of work or performance
2. Impact on the feminist project of ending gender-based inequality.
3. Clarity & accessibility
4. Attention to human diversity

PLEASE NOTE: All applications will be visible on the WS Blackboard site. More information on this award may be found here: http://www.jmu.edu/womenstudies/announcements.shtml or by contacting Mary Thompson (thompsmx, 8-3758).