Brazil: Practical Experience for Teaching English Abroad

Sao Paulo and Andradina

(all dates are tentative and subject to change)

PROGRAM:
This Short Term Study Abroad in Brazil will explore the culture and education system of Sao Paulo, Brazil. The program will provide students with experience in the cities of Sao Paulo and Andradina. Participants will visit PreK-12 classrooms, visit language immersion schools, attend lectures and workshops, interact with teachers and students, and gain practical experience teaching English to students in the Andradina schools. The program will also provide participants the opportunity to experience life in Brazil.

COURSES:
TESL 470. Methods in Teaching English as a Second Language (3)
EDUC 381. Field Experience in English as a Second Language (3)
Independent Studies available. Consult with Program Director for more information.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR:
Prof. Lisa Schick | schicklc@jmu.edu | Education

www.jmu.edu/international/abroad/jmu_brazil_teach