Subject: Request for Faculty Feedback

Dear Colleagues,

As you know, the university has been gathering faculty input on a number of items related to JMU's response to COVID-19. Below are links to two critical faculty surveys that will help us assess Spring 2020 and plan for Fall 2020. One survey is focused on faculty assessments of institutional responses, instructional techniques used in remote teaching, and faculty well-being; the other is focused on gathering ideas and feedback about remote proctoring.

Your feedback will help us move forward, and I encourage you to take the time to share your experience and insights.

Both surveys will be open until noon on Friday, June 12.

Thank you for your ongoing good work,
Heather
