

Academic Affairs
Administrative Staff
Advisory Council
(AAASAC)

"To represent administrative employees, both full and part-time, within Academic Affairs in the consideration of policies and practices that impact the direction of the unit."

AAASAC Recognition Committee Members:

Liana Bayne – Libraries

Julie Love – College of Health & Behavioral Studies - Dean's Office

Melissa Rebich - College of Education - Dean's Office

Kelly Sweet – Student Academic Success and Enrollment Management

Provost Award for Administrative Excellence

For more information about the nomination process for this 2021-2022 award, please visit:

<https://www.jmu.edu/academic-affairs/awards/administrative-excellence-award.shtml>

Deadline for nominations is January 31, 2022

Recognition Opportunities

Recognition of a job well-done can be a powerful motivator

Did you know that you can recognize your peers through Duke 2 Duke Recognition or the Informational Recognition programs? These programs are already available to you from Human Resources.

Check it out at: <https://www.jmu.edu/humanresources/balanced-dukes/awards-recognition/index.shtml>

Recognizing an Administrative Staff Member can be as simple as writing a note or buying them a cup of coffee!

for all you do!