

Engaged Teacher-Scholar Program Call for Applications

(SAMPLE APPLICATION COPY)

Apply to become an Engaged Teacher-Scholar (ETS) with the Center for Faculty Innovation for the 2023-2024 academic year.

Applications are due March 20, 2023 for inclusion in the program beginning August 2023 and running through May 2024.

Survey Questions

- First and Last Name
- Email (JMU preferred)
- Your Title
- Your College & Department
- Have you notified your AUH about your interest in the ETS program? If not, then you are required to do so.

Answer the following questions (300 words maximum)

- What interested you in applying for the CFI Engaged Teacher-Scholar Program?
- What teaching-related research project do you propose to advance or complete while an Engaged Teacher-Scholar?
- If chosen as an Engaged Teacher-Scholar Leader, how would you use the professional development funds to support your own work and work in your college/unit? Please note, some of the funding is for professional development and some is for program facilitation.

Additional questions

- Please provide a list of any publications or presentations you have done related to the scholarship of teaching and learning (i.e., journal publications, conferences, talks, grants, white papers, abstracts etc.).
- We want this program to be welcoming, accessible, and inclusive for all of our participants. Please use the space below to describe any considerations (e.g., disability, wellness, cultural, etc.) you want us to know about. You may also reach out to us at cfi@jmu.edu or (540) 568-4846.