

"The CFI helped me realize that there are so many effective ways to teach and that I should not be afraid of the consequences when new classroom approaches fail. The CFI has taught me the importance of periodic self-reflection and portfolio development as a highly insightful career growth strategy... May Symposium is one of my favorite events to reflect on the past year and gain new ideas for the upcoming school year."

Theresa Clarke