

“I came from having seventeen years between when I finished my degrees and when I was coming in, so the CFI helped me with everything from how to create a rubric, to ways to engage students in the classroom when you have those long blocks of classes. It really was incredible for me, even in terms of just little workshops about how to do different things as a professor.”

*Karen Myers,
Department of Social Work*