

January Symposium 2019

Thursday, January 3, 1:00-5:00 PM

Professional Grant Development Workshop

This intensive 1.5 day application-based, grant proposal institute will focus will be on how to effectively tell the story that leads to funding, be it for the researcher in the sciences and social sciences, education, humanities, arts, or non-profit professional. Differentiated instruction for NIH, NSF, and other types of grants (private foundation) will be provided. Guidance will be offered on how to write graduate assistant support into grants. Optional individual consultations will also be offered. Participants will need to bring their own laptops. In addition, bring a request for proposal (RFP) for a desired grant to the Professional Grant Development Institute.

Friday, January 4, 8:30 AM- 4:30 PM

Professional Grant Development Workshop

The Professional Grant Development Institute continues for a full day on Friday.

Write on Site, 8:30 AM-4:30 PM

Need the time and space to advance or complete a scholarship project? This session provides an opportunity for faculty members who desire time and structure to focus on academic writing. Join colleagues in a common space, who will be independently working on their scholarship and leave with a productive start to your spring semester. Please bring your own laptop computers. Optional writing consultations are available as well.

Consultations, 8:30 AM-12:00 PM

Scholarship Networking Lunch 12:00-1:00 PM

Access and Inclusion Practices

The CFI is committed to fostering a symposium experience that is accessible and inclusive to all attendees.

- Rose Library's front entrance is zero-entry with automatic doors. Left side entrance zero-entry with outside automatic doors to the 24-hour space. There is not an automatic door between the 24-hour space and the library.
- There is elevator access between all floors.
- Parking: Enforcement officers have been requested to avoid issuing citations to unregistered campus visitors in C10, C12, D2 and D1 lots between the hours of 8 AM – 5 PM on January 3 and 4, 2019. No visitor parking permits will be necessary. All regulations for JMU students, faculty and staff will remain in effect, and students attending the event are required to park in appropriate student parking lots with a JMU parking permit.
- Handicapped parking spaces are available, with permit, adjacent to Rose Library.
- JMU parking map
- Event hospitality will be available in the Rose Library Third Floor Flex Space.
- The CFI appreciates that one's diet reflects cultural and religious preferences, as well as personal needs (e.g., gluten-free, vegan). To that end, any meals will feature simple options that will be labeled with common allergens and preferences.
- Gender neutral restrooms. Two single-occupancy restrooms are located within the 24-hour study space on the ground floor. A JACard is required for entry to the 24-hour space or CFI staff can assist with access.
- Private rooms are available for nursing mothers in the CFI suite; rooms 5119 & 5109.