

INTERESTED IN TAKING PART IN A HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE THROUGH MUSEUM TOURS?

MOTON MUSEUM
FARMVILLE, VA

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY & CULTURE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

LUCY SIMMS SCHOOL
ROCKINGHAM, VA

UNITED STATES HOLOCAUST MUSEUM
WASHINGTON, D.C.

The College of Education is seeking future educators who are interested in discussing hard history and the effects that hard history has had globally through the touring of museums. The goal of these tours is to examine the stories and cultures that are shaped and informed by various influences while reaffirming why these events and narratives in time serve as a benefit to the knowledge of all citizens. The days for museum tours are listed below.

FEBRUARY 2ND, 2024

- MOTON MUSEUM - FARMVILLE, VA
- LUCY SIMMS SCHOOL - ROCKINGHAM, VA

FEBRUARY 16TH - 17TH, 2024

- NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY & CULTURE
- UNITED STATES HOLOCAUST MUSEUM

For more details on registration, contact: Dr. Richards (richardll@jmu.edu)