

Dawn Taylor

Dawn is an Audit Manager at Radford University. She is a results-oriented audit, compliance, and risk professional with 20+ years of experience and skilled in examining operations and processes to assess compliance with government regulations, policies, and procedures and to offer recommendations for efficiencies and process improvements. She worked as an auditor at the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles and Virginia Tech before assuming her current position at Radford. She is a Radford alum and received her MBA from the University of Phoenix.