

Professional Biography:

David Ralph
Senior Information Technology Internal Auditor
Christopher Newport University

Mr. Ralph has just over two years of dedicated service as an IT Internal Auditor at Christopher Newport University. With a background spanning nearly 25 years in Higher Education Information Technology, he has brought a wealth of experience to the institution's IT auditing practices.

Previously holding positions at Old Dominion University and the University of Alabama at Birmingham, Mr. Ralph has worked across various domains including Web Development, Technical Support, Systems Administration, and Information Security.

Mr. Ralph holds bachelor's and master's degrees in Computer Science and maintains the Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) credential.