

New HR Assistant

Britney Tapley is the new wage Human Resources Assistant for JMU Facilities. She is a 2014 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a degree in psychology. She is currently enrolled in the School Counseling graduate program at JMU. Her prior work experience consists of various administrative positions in higher education and also employment as bridal consultant, both in North Carolina and in Harrisonburg.

Britney grew up in Knoxville, Tennessee before moving to High Point, North Carolina in the 8th grade. In June of 2014 she married a fellow UNC alum and also fellow JMU graduate student, Sean Tapley. Along with Sean, she has two dogs living in the house, Scarlett and Bo. Britney loves shopping, trying new restaurants, crafting, basketball and volleyball.

Britney's position will provide assistance in many areas of human resources for JMU Facilities to include, interviewing, screening applicants, document retention, assisting employees with HR related questions, and many other administrative duties.

Please take the time to stop by and welcome Britney to USB!
