DEFEND ACADEMIC FREEDOM & JOIN AAUP

COME TO OUR SOCIAL MEETING ON MARCH 19TH TO TALK ABOUT ISSUES THAT CONCERN YOU!

Founded in 1915, now with over 50,000 members and 500 local chapters, the AAUP:

- defends academic freedom
- advances shared governance
- advocates for economic security for all academic professionals (full-time, part-time, graduate student, retired...)
- supports faculty rights

"The faculty are not employees of the university. The faculty are the university."

Isidore Rabi, Nobel Prize winner, to Dwight Eisenhower, president of Columbia University

AAUP JMU Chapter: Let's get together as faculty and start the conversation.

Please drop by at our social hour, Thursday,
March 19th at 5-8pm,
Hotel Madison, Montpelier

How to join: Annual dues are based on academic income. Join AAUP at
