

Motion to Support the Madison AAPI Caucus Resolution on Anti-Racism

James Madison University Faculty Senate

April 29, 2021

WHEREAS on March 29, 2021, the Madison Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) Caucus issued a statement, which condemns any form of hate crime against AAPI and other marginalized minority communities on the JMU campus,

WHEREAS faculty members at JMU value diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in the campus environment,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the JMU Faculty Senate (1) strongly supports Madison AAPI Caucus' anti-racism and racial justice statement, and (2) urges JMU administrators and local government officials to more strongly condemn white supremacist domestic terrorism and racism which targets racial and ethnic minorities at JMU and local communities.
