

2014 Application for the Dept. of Foreign Languages, Literatures and Cultures Annual

Scholarship For Excellence in French

(up to $1000 to be used for a JMU sophomore or junior student for Study Abroad, Individual Research, Conference Attendance, or other worthy project to be carried out during 2014-15, at the discretion of the Selection Committee; senior French majors applying to graduate school are also eligible to apply)

Name:

Year at JMU:

Declared Major(s):

Overall GPA (must be at least 3.5):

GPA in French courses (must be at least 3.7):

French courses taken at JMU, and with what faculty (including for the current semester):

Please attach an unofficial copy of your transcript to this application (available to you for free on-line through MyMadison).

Please also attach a 300-word description (in French) of how you propose to use this scholarship money, and how it may be of benefit to you as you pursue your future goals.

Turn in all application materials by Dec. 1, 2014 to Prof. Peter Eubanks, MSC 1802, Dept. of Foreign Languages, Literatures and Cultures, 301 Keezell Hall.