Cultural Baggage

Even experienced travelers and people who have lived in other parts of the world go through a period of cultural adjustment when moving to a new place. You will experience many differences and many similarities that you may not have initially anticipated. Some of these experiences can be pleasant and funny, and at times irritating and frustrating.

Distance and time differences have a huge impact on relationships, as such we urge you to

- spend time with your loved ones as it will be months before you see them in person again.
- □ refer yourself to our ^(⊕) Cultural Adjustment resources page

Bed Sheets & Linen

No, there will not be any bed sheets waiting for you in your room! You can [→] purchase linens through a vendor contracted by JMU, however they will deliver your order to a US address. You can however take advantage of our shopping trip during Transitions (or go to a place like Wal-Mart) to purchase linens and other necessities.
