Now that I have been accepted to The Graduate School, what do I need to do?

Paying Tuition -- University Business Office: jmu.edu/ubo
Phone: (540) 568-6505

- All charges not covered by financial aid or the installment payment plan are due in full by Friday of the first week of the semester. If your account becomes past due, then a late payment fee is assessed and your account is placed on "hold".

- You can view and pay your account by logging into MyMadison and clicking the "M3-My Student Account" link under Finances. You may pay using electronic check or credit card. If you have questions about M3, please visit the University Business Office FAQ site.

- Authorized Users can view and pay statements for you on M3. To log in as an Authorized User, visit the University Business Office web site and click the Authorized User link.

- All notifications of loan disbursements will be through your JMU e-mail account. Assistantships, grants, scholarships, and loans (if any) are credited to the student's account in the order received. Refunds will be issued after tuition and any other balances have been paid.

Read the Graduate Academic Policies jmu.edu/catalog

The Graduate Academic Policies are available in the online graduate catalog at jmu.edu/catalog.

Graduate Plan of Study -- Meet with your adviser to plan your program of study.

JMU Honor Code Tutorial -- All incoming JMU students are required to watch an online video about the JMU Honor Code and take an online test of the material. The test must be completed by the end of your first semester at JMU. The video, test information, and test can be found at jmu.edu/honorcode/test.shtml

Transfer of Credits – Upon program approval, a maximum of nine credits earned at other regionally accredited institutions and no more than one-half of the total graduate credits required to complete a program may be transferred in. If you wish to transfer credits taken prior to entering your graduate program, you must submit the Approval of Transfer Credit form (found on The Graduate School website) to your adviser during the first semester of enrollment. Acceptance of transfer credits toward program requirements must be approved by your adviser, academic unit head, and the Dean of The Graduate School.

Continuous Enrollment requires enrollment in one graduate level course within each fall and spring semester. If you are not continuously enrolled, unless granted a leave of absence, you will be dismissed and will need to re-apply for graduate study. You may enroll in GRAD 597, a one-credit course, in order to maintain continuous enrollment.
