

Dual Career and Community Resources Program

The Dual Career and Community Resources Program, offered by the Office of Human Resources at James Madison University, is a gateway to the campus and community! It provides essential support to new and prospective faculty, staff, and their families. The program is focused on two key components: Dual Career Services and Community Resources.

Program Highlights

- Information and referrals to campus/community contacts on a variety of areas, including housing, real estate, child care services, local schools, volunteer opportunities, area maps, local and nature attractions, local dining, sports and recreation, and downtown information
- Dual career services to help jumpstart the employee's spouse/partner's local job search
- Recruitment Specialist is available to help you and your family as you transition to the area, settle in and make your unique contribution to JMU and your new community

Who is eligible?

Families of prospective employees in the final stages of the recruiting process or recently hired full-time faculty or staff members relocating to the area.

Who do I contact?

For more details about the program and to request assistance, contact Alicia Proctor, Recruitment Specialist, proctoan@jmu.edu, 540-568-7203.

Find out more at www.jmu.edu/humanresources/recruitment/c3